New Zealand Betrayed Kissinger Associates At Work

10/9/92 #2 HATONN

The "New World Order" is not a new idea nor is action just now coming to the surface. There are patriots in every nation who would uncover corruption and treason and who are left unsung and, more often, simply buried by "the system" about which they spoke out.

To do justice to that which we are about to commit to your attention, I must speak first and foremost about the one who has shared this information. There has been a years-long struggle to get ANYONE to listen and pay attention. Just as do all patriots—he began by efforting to make the "ones in charge" hear. However, just as in America or any other corrupted system, the response is negative, unattentive at the least—and incarceration of the "author" and/or death to the one bringing Truth.

The information stems from one whose life depended upon his signing a statement that he would write no more and speak no more against the "system". We published that prior to this in the LIBERATOR [see last week's LIBERATOR, pages 21-22].

HAD ENOUGH!

This patriot of New Zealand has had enough but his very soul cries out to be heard lest his life have passed without merit. Since all the banking systems in the world finally come down to the ONE, it is most worthy, indeed, to share the betrayal and downfall of a nation through the hands and deceit of this "enemy" to ALL.

I have presented much information from this person, E.H. Hart, whom I refer to as Brother Edward. He doesn't know what he thinks about me, but I honor him and therefore await decisions and choices.

I realize you will think that we "start off on a Kissinger exposé" and end up with New Zealand Bank fraud. The two are all connected. LOOK at what appeared in the *International Herald

Tribune (in New Zealand), August 21, 1985:

BUSINESS PEOPLE: KISSINGER JOINS ITALIAN BANK ADVISORY BOARD.

LONDON—Banca Nazionale del Lavoro, the state-controlled institution that is Italy's biggest bank, has appointed Henry A. Kissinger to its international advisory board.

Formed in 1984, the board advises the bank on economic and social conditions in countries where it operates.

Mr. Kissinger, a former U.S. secretary of state, is chairman of the board of Kissinger Associates Inc., which gives political advice to governments.

So now I ask you to also remember information I shared with you—from New Zealand. This next article bears repeating because it lays foundation of involvement. New Zealand Times, Sunday, Nov. 18, 1984.

TO OUR READERS

While it didn't start out that way, this issue of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR seems to have evolved into a kind of a "special tribute" to that warm and witty Crook For All Seasons, otherwise known as "Doctor" Henry Kissinger. Just like Professor Moriarity in Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes stories, Kissinger and his "Associates" can be found consistently at the center of just about everything that is happening of any consequence in the world. We doubt this issue's publicity of Kissinger and Kissinger Associates will be of the kind that likely solicits an appreciative letter of thanks from the good "Doctor."

BIG GUNS IN THINK TANKKISSINGER, FRASER JOIN ANZUS STUDY:

A special ANZUS (Australia, New Zealand & U.S.) "think-tank" involving former world leaders Malcolm Fraser, Dr. Henry Kissinger and Zbigniew Brzezinski is being set up. [H: and WAS.]

The project, still in the formative stage, will be directed by Mr. Ray Cline, former director of intelligence in the US State Department and later deputy-director of foreign intelligence at the Central Intelligence Agency.

New Zealanders and Australians have already been canvassed for support for the think-tank's work.

The project will be controlled by the Centre for Strategic and International Studies, an independent unit which is attached to the Georgetown University in Washington D.C.

The Centre has played a significant role in helping President Reagan formulate his foreign policy stance.

Mr. Cline is a senior associate at the centre. Dr. Kissinger, secretary of state and foreign affairs adviser to President Nixon, and Mr. Brzezinski, assistant to the president on national security between 1977 and 1981, are senior advisers at the centre. Another is Admiral Thomas Moorer, former chief of US naval operations and chairman of the joint chiefs committee.

Mr. Fraser, former prime minister of Australia, is a senior fellow at the centre.

Mr. Kissinger carried out a study of the Central American situation for President Reagan.

Mr. Cline told the New Zealand Times from the United States that Mr. Fraser had helped the centre on specific projects and he hoped he would be involved with this one. Dr. Kissinger would be to a lesser extent.

Mr. Cline expects the study to begin in the New Year. It will examine whether the Anzus treaty is and will continue to have a useful stabilizing influence in the region.

It will also examine great power relations in the West Pacific and its global context.

Mr. Cline said naturally the centre's viewpoint would be how the United States strategic and economic interests were served. The same question would be asked from New Zealand and Australia.

Mr. Cline has been in touch with "some friends" in New Zealand but no formal participation has yet been established. The centre has sent Massey University lecturer Dalton West a letter.

Mr. West, originally from North America, is a frequent commentator on defense issues. It is understood he hopes to spend next year at Georgetown.

Australians involved in the project include Dr. Tom Miller from the Australian National University in Canberra and Professor Henry Albinski, who was in Wellington a week ago.

Mr. Cline said the study was not far enough along to speak clearly about trilateral linkages. "There aren't that many people in this field so I think all those (people) will be involved in one way or another."

A Dr. Alvel, from the centre, who was recently in Australia on a speaking tour, will be involved. Mr. Cline said she was a writer on Pacific naval affairs.

He told the NZ Times he was very worried about the "roughness" of the relationship between the United States and New Zealand. "We always had very close relations. There seems to be a good bit of public controversy at this point over Anzus and our general strategic relationship.

"I'm not interested in the specifics of naval problems and all that, but I am keenly interested in what I call geo-strategic or geo-political aspects of the South Pacific.

"New Zealand has a very important role to play here, particularly in relationship with some of the smaller island states, so I think I should come out to New Zealand early on in this project to talk with people and simply find out what the thinking is there."

Mr. Cline wrote a 1981 book titled THE CIA UNDER REAGAN, BUSH AND CASEY. One of its main thrusts is the concept that free nations ought to maintain a kind of informal "constabulary" of the sea.

Mr. Cline told the NZ Times that New Zealand should be concerned about the protection of our sea lanes in peace times. Navies should be able to work together for POLITICAL as well as defensive reasons.

"I stress the peacetime aspect. That's why I was a little bit disturbed when I heard there was some unhappiness over our port calls and that kind of thing. Not that they are intrinsically critical, but the atmosphere and the concept is important."

Mr. Cline's CIA duties included advising the State Department and the White House on the intelligence-sharing arrangements that link the Anzus partners.

"I am convinced that those are valuable arrangements. Though it is difficult to describe them in much detail I think some of the suspicions about the arrangements in the press and academic circles are pretty misguided.

"One of my hopes, in view of my background, is to set some of those concerns to rest by giving a little more information about these things.

"It is difficult to say much, but at least I am familiar with how these were arranged in a spirit of close cooperation and mutual benefit." ...[H: And so on it went but this pretty well covers it enough for now.]

Does it strike you as strange that a man who was a Russian Jew, trained in Israel, a member of the KGB became, along with a brother, Brzezinski, THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS RUNNERS OF THE WORLD—NOT TO EVEN MENTION THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA? There is a book I suggest you all get and the only reprint that I know about is from Criminal Politics magazine. It is called HENRY KISSINGER—SOVIET AGENT. It is by Frank Cappel. $10.00 per copy—2 copies for $15.00. I also herein suggest that a couple of copies should be obtained for "here", it will allow Dharma a bit more easy rest to see that she is NOT the only one revealing the dastardly deeds of Kissinger. I would say, however, that it is the hatred of Kissinger toward one, Hatonn, which makes her way the more dangerous—but interesting.

You can send a check payable to Criminal Politics magazine TO: P.O.Box 37432, Cincinnati, OH 45222. Credit cards: 1-800-543-0486.

The entire Global Plan 2000 has been allowed to be orchestrated and brought into economic and political fruition by these evil beings. You not only allowed it to happen, you have given these people the highest places of honor in your nations and on your planet. Perhaps you do, after all, deserve just about anything that comes upon you.

I realize it will be inconvenient and difficult to run the paper utilizing the accompanying material. You have only "copies" from which to work—the New Zealand government police force confiscated all originals. It matters not, for even if the copy is bad—I ask that the information from hand-printed cover sheet to ending be reproduced "as is". It is for the purpose of "documentation". It is most important for the security of ones involved, not the least of which are in-between persons such as Dharma and you, staff, that it be reproduced as is and no effort made to "improve" copy. Thank you. A world is at stake, not just a nation called The United States of America. A WORLD IS ABOUT TO PERISH! SALU.

Hatonn to clear.

(Editor's note: The next 20 pages of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR are devoted to the sensitive and controversial New Zealand material that Commander Hatonn refers to above.)

Dear Sir,

I am writing in respect of the papers which you sent to me last year about the Prime Minister, and others which you have previously sent to me about Sir Robert Muldoon, the Reserve Bank, the Broadcasting Corporation and others.

In essence you have suggested that criminal proceedings charging treason should be, or should have been, brought against the Prime Minister, Mr Spencer Russell, Mr Ian Cross and Sir Robert Muldoon. Your letters also suggest that the requirements of s.8 (2) of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964 have not been complied with.

I have read all of the material which you have submitted in support of your charges against the people named, and have formed the view that there is no basis in that material for criminal proceedings to be instigated against any of them.

Section 8 of the Reserve Bank Act sets out the primary functions of the Bank. In my view, it is not a section any departure from which gives rise to legal sanctions or can form the basis for a prosecution. The section indicates general criteria relating to the monetary policy of the Government of the day, but what that policy should be is for the Government to decide. The existence of those criteria does not, in my view, mean that the Government's policies can be brought before a Court for review, however much any citizen may disagree with them.

So far as treason is concerned, I am aware that you have had the benefit of the views of Dr William C. Hodge about this aspect of the matter. My conclusion is, and has been, that there is no basis in the material you have supplied on which such a charge, or any criminal charge, could be based in respect of the people you have named.

New Zealand is being deliberately economically sabotaged. The security of New Zealand is at risk.

The news media of New Zealand is being manipulated and since 1981 has not been permitted to publish or report vital information that was supplied from the Reserve Bank in 1980-1981.

An allegation of TREASON citing Members of Parliament and others was duly processed through the Solicitor General and Governor General in 1985 has also not been made public.

I state that the Solicitor General's findings make interesting reading.

It was only due to the way that the law on TREASON is drafted that prevented charges from being laid.

The allegation of TREASON was based upon the information from the Reserve Bank and you will note in the Solicitor General's findings that he concedes to a departure from the requirements of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act.

The essence of treason (leaving aside that form which involves personal injury to the Monarch) is the use of force to overthrow the Government or involvement in warlike activities against the Crown. It is not a concept that can be correctly applied to economic or monetary matters.

I accept the genuineness of your concern, but must advise you that in my view any remedy for the problems you perceive does not lie through the channel of prosecuting anyone.

Yours faithfully,

 (D.P. Neazor Q.C.).

I accept the findings of the Solicitor General.

The Reserve Bank Of New Zealand Act is a "Civil" Act of Parliament and does not cover criminal law.

A Civil Court action could have been taken but I did not have the money to seek a High Court Injunction.

However, no criminal charges could be laid under the Reserve Bank Act and the deliberate economic sabotage of New Zealand, as first disclosed by the Reserve Bank in 1981, continues to this day.

There is EVIDENCE to prove that New Zealand has been robbed of over forty thousand million dollars.

The news media has suppressed all knowledge of this reportable event.

There is no freedom of the press.

Further, the news media have been suppressing all knowledge of the fact that in November 1986,

The Commerce Commission,
 The N.Z. Police,

and

The Security Intelligence Service of New Zealand

were supplied with EVIDENCE giving them eleven months advance notice that the New Zealand share-market was to be subjected to fraudulent activity in which the RADA company would be involved.

The share-market did subsequently collapse in October 1987 and the RADA company was involved.

The share-market collapse of 1987 was arranged with the intent to deliberately sabotage the N.Z. economy.

Had action been taken in 1986 the share-market collapse of 1987 could have been prevented.

I now allege that the Commerce Commission and the N.Z. Police and the N.Z. Security Intelligence Service were under Political Directive, and were forbidden to investigate or take any preventative action in 1986.

Thus it was, I allege, that by Political Directive the N.Z. share-market was deliberately collapsed and the news media is not permitted to make any of this public.

I further allege that in 1986 the then Prime Minister, David Lange, as Minister in charge of the N.Z. Security Intelligence Service, together with the then Minister of Finance, Rodger Douglas, and Sir Robert Muldoon, C.H., were all involved with the activity of Mr George Wheeler of the RADA company who now in 1990 faces criminal charges in the High Court in Auckland.

I now state that at least Sir Robert Muldoon C.H. and Mr Rodger Douglas should also be facing charges.

Study the following N.Z. Herald report of the 18th September 1987, showing Sir Robert Muldoon C.H. and Mr Rodger Douglas in cahorts with Mr George Wheeler and other corporate heads.

They were actually practising in September 1987 what they were going to do one month later in October 1987.

Politicians Get into the Takeover Game

Sir Robert Muldoon

Gamesmanship may well turn out to be the name of the game at the Regent Hotel in Auckland on Monday evening.

Politicians and leading lights of the business world are to assemble to promote the introduction of a new game which could prove as popular as Trivial Pursuit and Monopoly.

It is called Takeover and is a table-top game created by an Auckland company director, Mr Ron Crockett.

On the board are 48 New Zealand companies which range from heavyweights such as Fletcher Challenge and Chase Corporation to relative newcomers such as Herzer Greenlees and Prorada.

Players can buy into these companies by landing on them as the result of the throw of a dice.

Through skilful trading and a bit of luck, players can build up a portfolio with the ultimate aim of making a complete takeover for one company.

The political players at Monday evening's introduction of the new game include the Minister of Overseas Trade, Mr Mike Moore, and Opposition MPs Sir Robert Muldoon, Mr George Gair and Mr Doug Graham.

Their corporate competitors at the takeover table include Messrs Peter Stanes of Equitcorp, Richard Adams of Chase Corporation, David Beldotti of Inter-Pacific Equity and George Wheeler of Rada Corporation.

The launching will be performed by the Minister of Finance, Mr Douglas.

ONE MONTH

LATER, OCT. 87

THEY DID IT

ON THE

SHARE MARKET

WELLINGTON — Former Prime Minister Sir Robert Muldoon yesterday confirmed he would receive an award this month for his services to his country and the world from an economic group backed by the controversial religious sect known as the Moonies.

While acknowledging that the Reverend Sun Myung Moon's Unification Church could be a co-founder and funder of the organisation, the Global Economic Action Institute (GEAI), Sir Robert said it was one of "many contributors".

"They are contributors, certainly, but so is Coca-Cola," he said.

Sir Robert described the group as the force behind "international gatherings of academics, politicians, bankers and industrialists to give a private sector input into the problems of international finance, currency relationships and Third World development".

He doubted an NZPA report saying that GEAI chairman, former US senator Eugene McCarthy, belonged to the Unification Church. "Certainly his background is steeped in Roman Catholicism," he said.

Sir Robert said association with GEAI went back as far as the change of government in 1984 and he had attended about half a dozen gatherings.

Previously he had not been involved because "as Prime Minister and Minister of Finance my work was very much in the government area".

GEAI selected people each year to honour.

Other recipients at the next meeting in Washington later this month would be a former president of Costa Rica, Mr Luis Alberto Monge, the Ivory Coast's Minister of State, Mr Lamine Diabate, the Deputy Director of the United Nations' development programme, Mr Arthur Brown and Mr Thomas Bolan, whom Sir Robert described as a member of a Washington law firm "concerned deeply with economic problems of Latin-American countries".

Sir Robert said he would be addressing a session of the week-long GEAI meeting and also confirmed he would be speaking at the World Bank and International Monetary Fund annual meetings held in Washington about the same time.

The sharemarket collapse of 1987 was planned to happen and in view of the number of Cabinet Ministers involved in this deliberate economic sabotage of New Zealand little wonder that in 1986 neither the Commerce Commission, N.Z. Police, or the Security Intelligence Service, were not permitted to investigate or take action.

Now there is just one other matter concerning the N.Z. Police that I draw your attention to.

In 1988 in Christchurch I lodged the following allegation giving the N.Z. Police advance knowledge of Bank of New Zealand fraudulent activity.

To this date, 1990, the police have not acknowledged receipt of this allegation and no investigation was conducted.

It is history now that the Bank of New Zealand was subsequently seriously damaged with the RADA company being involved.

The Police were not permitted to investigate and I now allege that the share-collapse of the B.N.Z. came about by a Political Directive.

Statement to The Christchurch Central Police, for the URGENT attention of the C.I.D. Fraud Squad.

This statement will be "formally" handed in on this 25th day of July 1988 at the Christchurch Central Police Station and will further be confirmed by Registered Mail.

My name is EDWARD JOHN HART. My address is:-

E.J.Hart,
203 Worcester Street,
Christchurch.

I, this day, allege that New Zealand shareholders in the company of Goodman, Fielder, Wattie, and that New Zealand shareholders in the "Bank of New Zealand" are destined to lose their Investment Capital due to the fraudulent activity of an international company of international world bankers who are formally registered as "Kissingers Associated Incorporated".

I further state that the following listed people are conspirators in this alleged fraudulent activity:

1. His Excellency
The Most Reverend,
Sir Paul Reeves,
Governor General of New Zealand.
2. Prime Minister of
New Zealand,
David Lange.
3. Mr Palmer,
The Minister of Justice of New Zealand.
4. Mr Roger Douglas,
Minister of Finance of
New Zealand.
5. Dr Donald Brash,
Governor of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand.
6. Sir Robert Muldoon, C.H. M.P.
7. Mr Winstone Peters,

Bank inquiry essential

The Opposition is surely right in its call for a full public inquiry into how the Bank of New Zealand came to expose itself to bad and doubtful debts of $1294 million. This figure is the key to the announcement yesterday that the bank has posted a loss for the financial year of $633 million. This means that, in the last two years, the bank has had to recognise losses and bad and doubtful debts of more than $1300 million. This year's loss would have been worse but for the availability of $311 million in tax credits to partly offset the provision that has had to be made for the consequences of the bank's investment decisions.

Had it not been for the immediate guarantee of support from the Government, the bank's major shareholder on behalf of the country's taxpayers, a run on holdings by the bank's depositors could well have forced the collapse of a central player in New Zealand's banking system. As it is, the announcement has scuttled sharemarket confidence.

What might have happened if the Government had pressed ahead with its widely-criticised intention to sell the bank — and if the latest revelations had not become public until after the sale — is anyone's guess. Presumably the Government could not have stood aside and watched a central part of the New Zealand economy crumble; but the bank's customers have every reason to be grateful that the sale was shelved. As part of the rescue operation, of course, a significant shareholding in the bank — 29 per cent — will pass to Capital Markets, the merchant bank of which Mr Michael Fay is joint managing director.

The Minister of Finance, Mr Caygill, has criticised the bank: he has said that control of its lending has been inadequate. The bank put it rather more delicately. "In recognising the bad and doubtful debts, the bank has adopted a new and more rigorous accounting methodology in line with the practice of major international banks." By whichever description the bank's financial affairs are weighed, it is plain that previous controls have not been rigorous enough. It is true, and important, that the provision for losses is just that: provisional. Perhaps not all losses will eventuate.

It is true, too, that the bank's day-to-day operations are still in the black. Trading profit for the year was $347.8 million. This is some consolation, but of less comfort than it might have been when it is realised that the trading profit for the year is down by almost 25 per cent on the previous year. The picture is far from satisfactory. Trading profits down, bad debts up (from $206 million to $1294 million), and last year's profit of $199 million turned into this year's loss of $648 million — a turnaround of $847 million. The Government cannot shake off such a staggering confirmation of bad years for the bank.

Simply pumping more money into the bank, even if it is regarded as an investment in the bank's future, is unsatisfactory and does not do enough to reassure the bank's customers and the institutions with which the bank wishes to deal. The Government has fumbled at every turn over the BNZ; it partly redeemed itself when, finally, it shelved the plan to sell the bank at a time — now obvious to everyone — when the advantage lay with the buyer and not the seller; the Government would only fumble again if it attempts to sweep the problems under the carpet.

I state that the EVIDENCE in my possession is of such volume that it would take at least 48 hours to present.

10.

I further state that copies of this statement are NOW being distributed nationwide and advise that a thorough investigation of this URGENT and SERIOUS allegation is not permitted to become under adverse political influence.

B.N.Z. WENT DOWN.

ONCE AGAIN "RADA"

INVOLVED

Adverse political influence was exercised and the Police did not investigate.

The Reserve Bank of New Zealand 1980-1981 Letters of Disclosure.

Letters from the Reserve Bank of New Zealand in 1980 and 1981 disclosed the greatest economic deceit that has ever been perpetrated within New Zealand.

These letters disclosed that as at the 31st March 1980 eleven thousand two hundred and one million dollars ($M11,201), which should have been in the Reserve Bank of New Zealand as the "asset" of the Reserve Bank had in fact been illegally lodged in private bank accounts contrary to the statutory requirements of Section 8 para 2 of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act of 1964.

Thus was the nation robbed of 11,201 million dollars which should have been available for Government expenditure "in the public interest".

This economic deceit has continued right up to this year of 1990 and since 1980 a further sum of 30,000 million dollars which should now be in the Reserve Bank of New Zealand has also been illegally placed in private bank accounts contrary to the requirement of Sect.8. para 2, of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act of 1964.

In all there is now in excess of forty thousand million dollars that has been furtively secreted in private bank accounts, quite illegally, and done in contravention of Section 8 para 2 of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act of 1964.

New Zealand has been robbed of forty thousand million dollars. No wonder the Government now has to sell all state owned assets and at the same time close down public hospitals.

I warn all New Zealand people that this corrupt Labour Government has now amended the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act and in so doing have deleted Section 8 para 2 from the Act.

No longer do we have any legal course of redress.

Para 2 Section 8 of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964, as Amended, sets out the primary function of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand, quote:-

"to ensure the availability and conditions of credit provided by the financial institutions are not inconsistent with the sovereign right of the Crown to control "money" and credit in the public interest".

Note the words "to control "money" and credit in the public interest".

BNZ takes on Rada

PA PRESS 17/8/89 Auckland
The Bank of New Zealand took the first step in a legal campaign to wind up Rada Corporation.
The bank claimed in the High Court at Auckland that Rada owed it $350 million and was insolvent.
The BNZ was successful in seeking to have its name substituted as plaintiff in the winding-up claim, after the National Bank dropped its earlier winding-up action against Rada.
The court action was simply to establish whether the BNZ had the right to step into the proceedings. Argument about the actual winding-up claim will begin when the case resumes on March 12.
An application from Elders Resources-NZFP, to have the case transferred to Wellington, is also due to be heard on that date.
The order allowing the BNZ to substitute its name in the proceedings was made by Master Towle, in spite of opposition from both Rada and ER-NZFP.
Summing up the history of the case, Master Towle said the National Bank had applied for a winding-up order in November, claiming Rada owed it some $3.6M.
However, in January the National Bank filed notice that it wanted to drop the claim.
The court was told the National Bank had been paid its $3.6M by ER-NZFP, which then became a creditor of Rada.

Hearing adjourned
PA PRESS 17/8/89 Auckland
The Bank of New Zealand was back in court yesterday in an attempt to have Rada Corporation wound up. The hearing was adjourned by Master Towle to a date still to be set by the Registrar of Companies.
The adjournment was given after Rada counsel indicated the company had filed an application to stay, or strike out, BNZ's proceedings.
"The wheel has gone full circle," said Master Towle, referring to the protracted attempts by BNZ to take the place of National Bank in an earlier winding up petition.
Those attempts failed when Mr Justice Spence recently overturned a decision of Master Towle, allowing the BNZ substitution. BNZ was left with no choice but to begin proceedings from the start.
During yesterday's hearing, Master Towle asked Rada's counsel whether Rada would be filing an affidavit as to its solvency.
Rada counsel responded that it believed such an affidavit was irrelevant to current proceedings.
Master Towle disagreed.
The proceedings between BNZ and Rada are over a $350 million loan.

This is the section of the Act that has been deleted, and every New Zealander should be demanding to know why that neither the Crown or the Government, or, the Governor of the Reserve Bank, are no longer bound to "control money and credit in the public interest".

Dr Donald Brash, the Governor of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand, now has sovereign economic control of New Zealand and he is not now bound to act "in the public interest".
Most interesting.

The economic deceit continues but now what was once "illegal" has now become "legalised" in the amended Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act.

I further note that the Auditor General of New Zealand does not have a mandatory right to audit the accounts of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand.

For God's sake, New Zealand, wake up.

The Reserve Bank of New Zealand 1980-1981 "Letters of Disclosure" revealed the truth of the internal money supply system of Private Banker Credit Creation which results in the nation being cheated out of 50 cents "purchasing power" of every dollar of money in circulation.

There is in fact only "half" a money supply in circulation, - the other half having been firtively siphoned off into private bank accounts and our Government has knowingly done this to us.

This economic deceit is the cause of unemployment, increasing crime, and social injustice.

The New Zealand Government, in cohorts with the Governor of the Reserve Bank, Dr Donald Brash, and in cohorts with their Round Table Private Financial Friends have now legalised this immoral process by deleting Section 8 para 2 of the old Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act.

The Government's policy of lowering inflation and interest rates by continuing this heathen process of "monetary restraint" will work.

Oh yes, it will work but not for the right reason.

They will get rid of the symptoms by ignoring the disease.

There was no high inflation or high interest rates during the great depression of the thirties.

No one could afford to spend. No one could afford to borrow.

And that is what we are heading for now through this deliberate economic deceit as disclosed from the Reserve Bank in 1980-1981 in the Reserve Bank of New Zealand

Letters of Disclosure.

Any corrupt Doctor can get rid of a person's high blood pressure by strangling the patient.

The flow of blood stops.
The heart stops.
The blood pressure drops.

The policy of further monetary restraint, as now advocated by Doctor Donald Brash in cohorts with his private banking friends and in cohorts with corrupt Cabinet Ministers and Members of Parliament, is designed to economically sabotage New Zealand and strangle the nation.

The flow of "real money" to the nation is to be further restricted and the economy to be strangled.

They will bring "high inflation" and "high interest rates" down but only at the expense of killing the nation.

This is not IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST.

And now of course you will know why they have just amended the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act and got rid of Section 8 para 2.

They are no longer bound to do anything IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST.

They have now legalised feathering their own nests.

Definitely NOT IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST.

Study the following letter that I did get published in "The Bay of Plenty Times" in 1982.

Doctor Donald Brash did not reply in 1982.

Today he is Governor of the Reserve Bank and no longer bound to act "in the public interest".

Every New Zealand person should demand that Section 8 para 2 of the old Act be reinstated in the new Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act immediately.

Fail to do so then this nation is to go totally down.

A WARNING

Changing the Government will not solve the problem.

I have EVIDENCE proving that Mr Bolger and Sir Robert Muldoon CH and other prominent National Members are conspiritors in this deceit of the nation.

Other M.P.'s of other Political Parties are also involved.

Credit debt bondage

"Dr Donald Brash, economist, in his front page assessment of the Budget says 'that the Budget may bankrupt orchardists' (Bay of Plenty Times, August 11, black Friday) states E. J. Hart, of Tauranga, in a supplied statement.

"Confining his observations to the 'Budget' and 'orchardists' reflects the tunnel vision syndrome that afflicts all economists of The System. In search of solutions all such system-trained economists can only look back into The System of their indoctrination and their restrictive tunnel vision confines their observations to the limited field of their immediate concern. Broader minded self-trained economists are not so restricted and in search of solutions seek truth and a knowledge of causes.

"I assert that it is The System that is at fault and I challenge Dr Brash to debate the merit of The System, that through the secreted 'credit creation process', usurps and transforms the real wealth of nations into the privately 'created credit asset' of private bankers which then, as their credit 'asset' is granted as an overdraft facility on existing bank accounts thus to become the bankrupting 'credit debt' of nations.

"That this is so I have confirmed from the Reserve Bank of New Zealand and I challenge Dr Brash to dispute the fact that there is not one solitary dollar of 'money' within New Zealand that is not mortgaged to the private banking sector through this 'credit creation' process. The nation's work effort value bestowed upon the private bankers in the first instance as their 'created asset of credit' is then loaded back upon the nation as credit debt. Thus cheque account balances evolve. Those who 'produce' being saddled with debt. Those who 'create credit' being blessed with a debt-free asset.

"America as a nation bankrupt to The System as published in the Bay of Plenty Times, February 10, 1982. Under the heading 'US Assets Behind Liabilities' President Reagan said, 'that the United States could be judged bankrupt if it were a business and forced to liquidate.'

"And again from the Bay of Plenty Times, August 11, 1982 under the heading 'Bankrupt': Source Wiesbaden (West Germany) quote: 'The worst wave of bankruptcies since the second world war swept West Germany during the first six months of 1982 according to figures issued yesterday by the Federal Statistics Office.'

"The following table is based upon statistics supplied by the Reserve Bank of New Zealand and deals with New Zealand's internal supply of credit and money.

Year	GNP $M	Credit Supply $M	Money Supply $M	Total Purchasing Power Supply $M
1965	3,528	2,820	3,136	4,182
1972	7,828	3,770	4,165	7,935
1974	9,368	4,581	4,836	9,417

"The statistics prove that it has been the policy of successive governments of New Zealand to follow The System that requires that 50 per cent or more of our increasing annual GNP value is first bestowed upon the private banking sector as their 'created asset' of credit. The banks acquire an 'asset' while the nation acquires the 'liability' of this credit debt.

"It is the policy of The System that when GNP value increases five times the credit asset of private banks must also increase five times, and therefore the internal credit debt of the nation must mandatorily increase five times — when this system is understood the bankruptcy of nations becomes understandable.

"Noting that since 1975 the credit debt issue has exceeded the dollar value of our total GNP money supply, I simply state that internal bankruptcy is inevitable. The solution is equally simple. The increased productivity value of any nation should be represented by money and only money. We don't want credit debt. The Government only should be the organizing source and supplier of purchasing power money only that enables with the increasing value of our industries should be created by the Reserve Bank of New Zealand and every dollar of such money (representing our own work effort) should at first be 'spent' into circulation by our Government on our behalf.

"Thus would our increased productivity be rewarded with 'money only' which by at first being 'spent' into circulation would come into existence debt and interest free. Taxation could thus be genuinely reduced and increased productivity would be rewarded with increased debt-free prosperity.

"The world is being bankrupted and it is The System that has placed the world in credit debt bondage. Inflated inflation, multiple unemployment and bankruptcies (of orchardists, nations, or the world) are but the symptoms of the act of private bankers' credit creation.

"Don't blame the Government or look to it for solutions. The Government evolved backwards out of The System and, afflicted with breach birth vision, is bankrupt of

NOW IN 1990.

To further highlight the political suppression of the vital economic truth as contained in the 1980-1981 Reserve Bank of New Zealand LETTERS OF DISCLOSURE, Prime Minister David Lange would not permit these letters to be tabled for consideration at that sham Summit Economic Conference that Labour set up in 1984.

The truth of the deceit had to remain concealed at all costs.

Another example of political interference in the due process of justice took place at the Royal Commission of Enquiry into the Aotea Square Riot in Auckland.

The late Chief Justice Mahon presided and a more honest man would be hard to find.

The day before that enquiry opened Chief Justice Mahon arranged for me to be the third speaker for the express purpose of getting the Reserve Bank Letters of Disclosure tabled for consideration. These letters did fall within the "Terms of Reference" governing the enquiry.

In support of the New Zealand Police I intended to demonstrate that due to the economic deceit - (the nation only having "half" a money supply) the Police Department was under financed. It had to be.

The Police Dept was under-staffed. It had to be.

The nation only had "half" a money supply to service the nation's needs, the other "half" having been stolen.

Thus the N.Z. Police were under staffed:
under paid:
over worked:
and over stressed.

It had to be due to the economic deceit that was taking place.

And what happened at the enquiry?

The Reserve Bank Letters were not allowed to be presented on the day and Chief Justice Mahon explained that that morning Prime Minister David Lange had instructed him not to allow the Reserve Bank Letters to be presented.

Political interference in the process of justice.

The Press reporters were there. The TV cameras were rolling. And all words were being officially tape recorded.

I caused quite a little riot at that enquiry. In anger I gave them all a final message to the effect that due to economic truth remaining concealed unemployment would escalate, that there would be a further increase in serious crime, and further all-round social injustice.

Not one word of all this got reported by the media.

Now look at the mess New Zealand is in today, 1990.

The late Chief Justice Mahon was a dying man at that time, under stress and under political pressure, A sick man.

There is no limit to the inhumane tactics that politicians will use to protect their own hides.

I have the greatest respect for the late Chief Justice Mahon.

To: Commissioner Jamieson of the N.Z. Police.

To: Mr Brian Tyler the N.Z. Auditor General.

I seek your support.

In the interest of protecting the sovereignty of New Zealand I pray that you will with urgency approach the Governor General of New Zealand requesting Her Majesty The Queen to intercede and cause the following to happen.

One: That the old Section 8 para 2, provision of the 1964 Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act, be reinstated immediately in the current Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act.

The "Public Interest" must be protected.

Two: In the "Public Interest" cause the Auditor General to have a mandatory right to audit the accounts of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand.

Three: Cause a Royal Commission of Enquiry to sit and investigate immediately all EVIDENCE pertaining to the economic sabotage of this nation which is currently taking place.

The security of the nation is at risk.

Four: Cause the 1990 General Election to be postponed until the result of a Royal Commission of Enquiry establishes the economic truth and has presented the facts to the public. It will be an exercise in futility if this 1990 General Election is allowed to proceed when at best it can only produce a consensus of indoctrinated ignorance from a confused people, who, through no fault of their own, have been deceived by a dishonest news media and have been betrayed by corrupt politicians and puppet private banker economists of the system.

Five: Cause the immediate stoppage of the sale of any further State Owned Assets until the result of the Royal Commission of Enquiry has been made public.

Sirs,

I seek your support.

The situation is extremely URGENT.

This Labour Government plans to totally sabotage this nation before it leaves office.

National plans to continue with the status quo.

New Labour - the confused Social Credit come Democratic Party - are part of the deceit adding further confusion within a corrupt money supply system that they are not willing to expose.

To the General Public of New Zealand, please support my prayer by writing to the Auditor General, the Commissioner of Police and to Brigadere Smith of the N.Z. Security Intelligence Service.

They will need all the public support that they can get if they try to approach the Labour Party Governor General of New Zealand.

I enclose herewith my 17th July 1987 petition to Her Majesty The Queen seeking a postponement of the General Election 1987.

Her Majesty the Queen did not receive this petition in 1987. It did not go beyond the Governor General of New Zealand.

Your Majesty's Appointed Representative
His Excellency
The Most Reverend Sir Paul Reeves
Governor General of New Zealand,
Government House,
Wellington.

Your Majesty,

I request that Your Majesty intercedes to prevent the General Election in New Zealand that is dated to take place on 15 August 1987.

I respectfully make known to Your Majesty that if this General Election of a Government of New Zealand is permitted to be conducted under the present conditions of public news media suppression of establishing facts, then this 1987 General Election will be a sham event, that at best, will only establish a consensus of indoctrinated ignorance that will, in the final event, transfer the sovereign state of New Zealand into alien hands.

Respectfully do I request that no General Election by consensus of political ideology be allowed to take place within New Zealand, until

- one: the subject matter herewith submitted to Your Majesty has been available for open public debate within New Zealand.
- two: that the result of the New Zealand Police Fraud Squad investigation into Counterfeit ECU Eurodollar credit through the New Zealand Share Market has been made available to the general public of New Zealand.

Your Majesty,
I respectfully suggest that you hear this prayer.

All is not well in New Zealand. I seek a time lapse in respect of the proposed General Election.

For God's sake - for New Zealand's sake - please consent to at least one calendar month's delay so that EVIDENCE of the betrayal of New Zealand can be made available to the General Public of New Zealand.

Your Majesty, for your consideration I include with this submission my Brother Edward Number 3 cassette and copies of relevant correspondence from the Solicitor-General of New Zealand, together with a copy of my submission to the New Zealand Police and a copy of Detective Superintendent Galbraith's formal acknowledgement that this matter is under investigation.

Your Gracious Majesty, I do pray that you will intercede.

The whole concept of British justice is at stake.

To permit this sham General Election of 1987 within New Zealand to proceed from within the New Zealand current state of indoctrinated ignorance, will be - Your Majesty - the final travesty of British justice.

Your Majesty, at the risk of being discourteous, I deem the situation within New Zealand to be so URGENT and SERIOUS that I have caused copies of this letter with copies of the relevant EVIDENCE to be distributed throughout New Zealand.

Not only I, but other loyal New Zealand servants of Your Majesty, now await Your Majesty's consideration of this submission.

Your Majesty, the subject matter of this submission dated 17th July 1987 relates to my previous correspondence to Your Majesty dated the 31st October 1985 and the 6th March 1985 in which I advised that my submissions be brought to the urgent attention of the British Intelligence Service.

I appreciate Your Majesty's acknowledgements dated 17th February 1986, and 10th July 1986, of the above submissions.

Brash tightens screws

By RICHARD BOULTON

Just as there was a little light appearing, the Governor of the Reserve Bank, Dr Brash, turned the screw of tighter monetary policy.

This was in reaction to the poor outcome of the June quarter Consumers Price Index figure, persistently high inflation expectations, and the weakness of the Kiwi dollar on a trade-weighted basis during the past few weeks.

Market reaction was immediate and came on top of firmer rates after the disappointing Budget.

Call closed at 14.75 per cent up one percentage point for the week and the 90-day rate was up 0.5 percentage points at 14.25%.

We are now experiencing long Government bond yields at their highest level for the last year, the benchmark maturities closing at 11/93, 12.84%; 3/95, 12.64%; and 7/97, 12.42% — all up at least 0.2 percentage points for the week.

There has already been a flow-through to the mortgage market with Westpac Banking Company announcing an increase of 0.5 percentage points to 13.75, and other banks are considering larger increases.

Borrowers last week could be in for a nasty shock as call rates out of Monday are in the 13.5% to 16% range and there are a large number of rollovers due.

Money market plays to the Reserve Bank tune

By PATTRICK SMELLIE in Wellington

The third explicit Reserve Bank action to tighten monetary conditions in three days dominated trading on New Zealand money markets yesterday, with 90 day rates now 1.1 per cent higher than they were on Budget day.

But traders do not expect the Bank to keep up its pressure with similar tightening operations next week, as they believe monetary authorities will see action so far as sufficient to create a new, higher interest rate structure.

They predicted the most recent action would create room for a looser monetary policy once inflation targets had been renegotiated under a National Government.

Interest rates on 90 day bills moved to an 18 month high of 14.3% by the close of trading yesterday, with market participants likening the atmosphere to that of late 1988 when the wrangles between the former Prime Minister (Mr Lange) and the Minister of Finance (Mr Douglas) reached their peak.

Five year government stock rates closed at around 12.67%, up 0.3% on the beginning of the week.

The Reserve Bank is now seen as having placed a sustainable floor on rates.

Several observers believed much of this week's Reserve Bank activity was manoeuvring to allow loosening once National's target of 0 to 2% inflation by the end of 1993 is in place.

Under previous policy settings, the Reserve Bank would have been in the embarrassing position of telling National that its delayed target did not allow looser monetary policy because the policy was already too loose.

This way, the Bank may be taking two notches on the belt so that it can let one out a bit further down the track," said an economist from one merchant bank.

Traders remained concerned that with the Trade Weighted Index (TWI) still below 61, the Reserve Bank may still see room for further tightening to bring the exchange rate within its preferred range.

But some questioned how far the Bank would be able to push against the message the markets were giving about the fundamental need for a weaker exchange rate, particularly given the outlook for the balance of payments.

NOT GOVERNMENT ACTION.

JUST "BRASH" ACTION.

The appointment of a former Minister of Finance, Mr Roger Douglas, to the board of Brierley Investments Ltd, provoked strong disapproval from a large body of shareholders at the company's annual meeting yesterday.

Mr Douglas was eventually elected to the board on a show of hands with a large majority, but not before a critical speech was pronounced by a shareholder, Mr Wellington shareholder, Mr Fred Morgan.

"You and your fellow directors will be aware of Mr Douglas's total indifference to the damage he has done to our country," he told the meeting.

"Despite all the evidence of the subject failure of his interests, the Labour Government would be perfect in the claim that he did not go far enough before he was stopped," Mr Morgan said to loud applause and murmurings of "hear, hear."

Mr Douglas did not address the meeting, and reacted to the impact of Mr Douglas's speech by further reports, page 22

Wellington

The Reserve Bank Governor, Mr Don Brash's announcement that he intends to stem the fall in short-term interest rates is unjustified and will not help restore economic growth, manufacturers say.

New Zealand already had the highest interest rates among Organisation of Economic Co-operation and Development trading partners, the Manufacturers' Federation said yesterday.

It was "plain lunacy" for the Reserve Bank to move prematurely before the free market had a chance to work, he said in a statement.

He said he intended to call for a "less and destructive" action.

Similar Government action would lead the move to higher short-term interest rates further into a recession.

Mr Graeme Reeves, has also criticised the move.

A National Party backbencher, Anderson, also criticised the bank's exchange rate "artificially high".

The New Labour leader, Mr Jim Anderton, said:

"At a time at which the economy is at its lowest ebb since the 1930s Depression the Reserve Bank action is reckless and destructive," Mr Reeves said.

Mr Reeves (Nat. Minister), said yesterday that the bank's statement had dropped one percentage point, while some retail interest rates referred to retail rates.

While some retail interest rates had dropped one percentage point, fundamentals showed there room for further reductions.

The bank's latest move did little to restore confidence of manufacturers and there were fears that it could lead to a further fall in the exchange rate.

Mr Reeves (Nat. Minister), said yesterday that the bank's statement had dropped one percentage point, while some retail interest rates referred to retail rates.

Dear Mr Hart,

I am sorry I have been so long in answering your letter of the 23rd of June with the enclosures, but have been studying your proposals.

I might say that personally, I have for many years advocated what you are now proposing. There has also been one petition to Parliament and a Royal Commission on the subject of true money values, but all to no avail. However, I have pursued in my endeavours to get an honest system of money and credit creation, and will continue to talk with those in authority, although up to now with little success.

I can appreciate your frustrations, but I feel that monetary really needs some

WELLINGTON

15th October, 1980.

Mr E.J. Hart,
7 Kiwi Crescent,
TAURANGA.

Handwritten: Exhibit "A"

Dear Mr Hart,

Thank you for your letter of 4th October, 1980, addressed to the Governor, concerning credit as a source of money.

Money may come into existence through one of a number of means. One of which is credit creation. For example, if an overdraft limit at a trading bank is drawn on, the recipient of the funds is likely to place them on deposit with a trading bank, or with another financial institution which in turn banks with a trading bank. This process is quite legal as the Articles of Association of each individual trading bank empower it to grant credit. In New Zealand, the money supply is defined as notes and coin in the hands of the public together with cheque account balances at savings banks and trading banks. Thus if the deposit creation process described above results in deposits in cheque accounts (or increased holdings of notes or coin), the money supply will rise.

However, credit is not itself an element of the money supply, rather it is one of the main factors leading to the creation of money. In balance sheet terms, money is a liability of one or other of the financial institutions, while credit is an asset. Therefore it is neither possible nor sensible to apportion the money supply between notes, coin (which are components of money) and credit (which is not). We can say, however, that as at 31st March, 1980, the money supply comprised 2 per cent coin, 21 per cent notes, and 77 per cent cheque accounts.

As an indication of the relative importance of credit in the money creation process, it is possible to say that the financial institutions' lending activities were equal to about 60 per cent of deposits in existence at 31st March, 1980, i.e. not just those included as part of the money supply, but including also term deposits, investment accounts and similar liabilities of the main financial institutions. It is not possible to say how much of New Zealand's present money supply has been created via credit.

Yours sincerely,

RESERVE BANK OF NEW ZEALAND

P.O. BOX 2498
WELLINGTON

25th September 1981.

Mr E.J. Hart,
7 Kiwi Crescent,
TAURANGA.

Dear Mr Hart,

Thank you for your letter of 20th September 1981, concerning money and purchasing power.

In my letter to you of 15th October 1980 I pointed out that in New Zealand 'money' is defined as notes and coin in the hands of the public together with cheque account balances at savings banks and trading banks. Such a definition does not involve a double usage of the word 'money', as both currency and cheque account balances are money. Furthermore I noted that credit is not a part of money - it is a different thing from either currency or cheque account balances. Money is an asset of its holder, while credit is a liability. Because it must be paid back at some stage, it might be best regarded as negative spending power - quite the opposite of your concept.

Money (including cheque accounts) does indeed represent purchasing power in the hands of the public, although it is not the only thing which represents purchasing power. Other deposits with trading banks and with other financial institutions may also be purchasing power in the hands of the public. This fact is indeed what motivates the Reserve Bank to publish not only data on money but also data on the money supply and selected liquid assets (frequently referred to as M3 or 'broadly defined money'). There are also, it should be noted, a range of liquid financial assets outside the scope of M3 which also represent purchasing power.

The table below presents the data that you requested, although using what I feel to be the correct definitions. For the sake of completeness, credit granted by the major financial institutions as a percentage of GNP is also shown, although as we have said, credit should not be added to money.

I should point out at this stage that one should be careful about drawing conclusions from these figures. First, the relationship between money and GNP is affected by technical factors such as the improvement over the years in the money transfer system which mean that people can operate off lower average cheque account balances. Secondly, increases in the rate of inflation will cause a fall in the money to GNP ratio as it becomes more expensive for people to hold large balances in non-interest bearing accounts. Thus a conclusion that the fall in the money to GNP ratio causes inflation is not valid.

Yours sincerely,

W. L. Williams

Assistant Chief Economist.

NOTE: Multiple Factor shows a five-fold increase in created "Credit" Debt is the Nation's reward for a five-fold increase in Work (Gross National Product) 1

It is obvious from the statistics that this worldwide established practice of bankers creating credit as the "main source" of money to be supplied to the Nations of the world is the concealed beathen practice of "credit creation usury" that stealthily converts the productive work effort value of Nations into the created Credit asset of the bankers.

That New Zealand's five-fold increase in annual GNP dollar value established between the years 1965-1980 has, mandatorily through the System, resulted in a five-fold increase in the created Credit "asset" of the private financial institutions, is an organized sin condoned by successive Governments of New Zealand that have, I suggest, betrayed the Nation.

Further, on realization that a five-fold increase in annual GNP value mandatorily results in a five-fold increase in the internal burden of created Credit debt before an internal supply of Money results therefrom, then the magnitude of the sin becomes blatantly apparent.

the bankers get the created Credit asset.

the Nation gets the created Credit debt as its first reward for work effort done. Always in this created Credit debt increasing in proportion to, and relative to, the ever increasing GNP value of the Nation.

the total stupidity of this Government sponsored sin is reflected in the statistics which expose the sad facts:-

one:-

that the Nation's internal supply of Money, must mandatorily within the System, be mortgaged to the created Credit debt from which it evolves, and two:-

that this resulting money supply must mandatorily equate to approximately only 50 per cent of the Nation's productive work effort value (GNP).

Take New Zealand's 1980 year statistics as at 31st March.

GNP value for the year $M 20,441
 Created Credit asset of the bankers on issue $M 11,201
 Internally created credit debt of the Nation $M 11,201
 Nation's resulting internal Money supply (M3) $M 10,792

Every dollar of the Nation's internal money supply mortgaged to the private creators of Credit. Try working a Nation out of debt under this perpetual system of wealth misappropriation through legalised stealth.

And this is the world-wide system that secretly converts the productive work effort value of Nations into the created Credit asset of the Credit creating usurers.

Currently there are 60 million sheep in New Zealand and under this heathen system no matter how much wool earns on overseas markets, or how much lambs sell for in the United Kingdom, in the final analysis when the internal supply of Purchasing Power (Credit and Money) is being determined by the Government of New Zealand, the value of 30 million of these sheep (50 per cent GNP) is destined to be bentowed upon the private financial institutions as their created "asset" of Credit before the Nation receives its restricted and mortgaged half supply of money.

Don't know if correct.

Credit debt bondage

Dr Donald Brash comments on the 'banking' system of the Bank of New Zealand, in a special interview with the Phoenix Liberator, in a special statement.

Continuing his observations on the 'banking' system, Dr Brash says that the 'banking' system is a system of 'credit creation' which is based on the 'banking' system of the Bank of New Zealand. He says that the 'banking' system is a system of 'credit creation' which is based on the 'banking' system of the Bank of New Zealand.

But this is so I have confirmed from the Reserve Bank of New Zealand and I challenge Dr Brash to dispute the fact that there is no 'banking' system of the Bank of New Zealand. He says that the 'banking' system is a system of 'credit creation' which is based on the 'banking' system of the Bank of New Zealand.

Under the heading 'The Reserve Bank of New Zealand' in the 'Financial Review' of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand, it is stated that the 'banking' system is a system of 'credit creation' which is based on the 'banking' system of the Bank of New Zealand.

The following table is based on statistics supplied by the Reserve Bank of New Zealand and shows the 'banking' system of the Bank of New Zealand. It is based on the 'banking' system of the Bank of New Zealand.

The statistics prove that it has been the policy of successive governments of New Zealand to follow the 'banking' system of the Bank of New Zealand. It is based on the 'banking' system of the Bank of New Zealand.

Mr. E.J. Hart,

TAURANGA.

Dear Sir,

I am writing in respect of the papers which you sent to me last year about the Prime Minister, and others which you have previously sent to me about Sir Robert Muldoon, the Reserve Bank, the Broadcasting Corporation and others.

In essence you have suggested that criminal proceedings charging treason should be, or should have been, brought against the Prime Minister, Mr Spencer Russell, Mr Ian Cross and Sir Robert Muldoon. Your letters also suggest that the requirements of s.8 (2) of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964 have not been complied with.

I have read all of the material which you have submitted in support of your charges against the people named, and have formed the view that there is no basis in that material for criminal proceedings to be instigated against any of them.

Section 8 of the Reserve Bank Act sets out the primary functions of the Bank. In my view, it is not a section any departure from which gives rise to legal sanctions or can form the basis for a prosecution. The section indicates general criteria relating to the monetary policy of the Government of the day, but what that policy should be is for the Government to decide. The existence of those criteria does not, in my view, mean that the Government's policies can be brought before a Court for review, however much any citizen may disagree with them.

So far as treason is concerned, I am aware that you have had the benefit of the views of Dr William C. Hodge about this aspect of the matter. My conclusion is, and has been, that there is no basis in the material you have supplied on which such a charge, or any criminal charge, could be based in respect of the people you have named.

The essence of treason (leaving aside that form which involves personal injury to the Monarch) is the use of force to overthrow the Government or involvement in warlike activities against the Crown. It is not a concept that can be correctly applied to economic or monetary matters.

I accept the genuineness of your concern, but must advise you that in my view any remedy for the problems you perceive does not lie through the channel of prosecuting anyone.

Yours faithfully,

Alwyn

Henry "Octopus" Kissinger was heard to say...

Editor's note: THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR would like to introduce young artist extraordinaire Damian Hardy who was, on very short notice, "inspired" to draw the cartoon to the right to help capture this issue's theme of "honoring" that man-about-the-world, Henry Kissinger. Kinda does the old rascal proud, don't you think?

SHOULD AND WOULD ARE DIFFERENT WORDS

I shall not write, first thing, of crashed planes or floods in Florida, other than to say that if Bush doesn't stay OUT of Florida, there will be no Florida left. You can see these things going on and hopefully can discern the REAL from that which is foisted off on you.

As we sat in visiting yesterday I realized that I err very often just as do you of mortal life—facing every day. All are confused and the brain reels with the onslaught of unimagined things, except in science fiction. I too must learn to resist telling people how something should be done. Instead, we must face and tell what would be done and needs to be done. Perhaps you dwell too long in that which WAS and do not yet see that which IS. I do not wish, however, to take that wondrous ability from you which brings surprise with creative and innovative solutions to problems about you, your nation and planet. It is a very fine line, chelas, and we must both "feel" our way along very carefully for the traps are laid with nary a slip by the Adversary.

PEROT

Ah yes, this is constant again. What of Perot? I see that if he is pushed over the top and into the White House, you prevent Clinton (the choice groomed specifically by the Kissinger gang and the Committee of Bilderbergers for the sham job). You do, however, give strength to Bush and the Republicans but you will probably never find TRUTH from the past criminal activities of the administration. This is because Perot has told you that you "should be totally forgiving" and "let what HAS happened go by the way and move on". That has worthy merit, after all, but lulls you back into the arms of Hypnos, the god of sleep. There are several ways it could go from here and through the next few weeks to E-day. Perot would, however, spark a "speaking" of the people in some manner and there would have to be at least a sham of change. Can the grass-roots movement of Gritz do it and win after all? I see not how enough can overcome the "three" rule. It could be done but perhaps Gritz' role in your redemption and return to freedom is to be witnessed and experienced in a far more important role than a cookie-cutter President hamstrung by the Elite Lobbies, PACs and bought-off Congress. You must go with your heart, chelas, I cannot measure all for you.

I must remind you that you must NEVER give up on that which you really want to do. The person with big dreams (not la-la-land fantasies of magical nonsense) is more powerful than one with all the "facts"—IF THE "DREAMER" HOLDS THE HAND OF CHRIST-GOD AND THE "GOAL" IS TO ARRIVE AT A SOCIETY IN THE IMAGE OF CHRIST-GOD'S KINGDOM.

As for ALL OF THE BLATHERING FACES IN POLITICS—BE SUSPICIOUS OF ALL POLITICIANS AND EVANGELISTS WHO SELL COMMODITIES AND PROCLAIM TO BE BORN AGAIN—THEY ARE BORN AGAIN INTO A HUMAN FOCUSED GOAL—NOT A SPIRITUAL REALITY WITH GOD.

Beware!

THE CLUB OF PHOENIX

We shall now write on these things: "commodity" dealers in adviser capacity and the use of "Christ" lies to give credence to their projections. Some of them know not in the least what they are actually doing. Further, some of them I have given great credit and asked you to heed their writings—for Truth is Truth from any resource and within ANY intent. YOU must come to know and discern that which is human "selling" and that which is Truth to give fullness to your insight and education.

Many of you who will read this will have been stung badly by some whose names will appear here. I cannot help that which is already finished—I can only give you that which comes for the greatest and highest good of you of God. Unless you have studied and retain and recall ALL of that which we have presented unto you—do not belabor our lack of service prior to your errors. I have written about this very group and their operations prior to this and if you did not read it, I cannot help you. I can and will present it again for we gain new readers daily and it is too hard to catch up on 65 JOURNALS and weekly papers.

Do I want you to stop utilizing the input of the ones who will be named in the following? What you do with information is purely and solely up to you. Several of the ones named will have given invaluable information and presentations. You will find that most were sucked in by Zionist fellow-writers and investment advisers. Now it becomes a mad drive to "survive" in their own life-style and they will now mislead you greatly as to "what to do" in order to keep you "hooked" on their advice. In the end GOD wins, my friends, and all the denials and refusals to stand on stage with my people will merit them naught—but YOU are up to YOU!

I do not feel that I can do justice to an introduction to the "book" from which I quote at this writing for the information I have received in written format has not been given definite title, only prospective, and some misinformation is being analyzed and corrected, deleted or in need of comment before I print it and/or give urgent request that you obtain the journal in point.

You will see that there is amazing information in the volume in point for I will reproduce Chapter VII for you herein—with permission of both the author and the prospective publisher. Some of you will already have the information, this specific—from me if not elsewhere, and many of you will have had a copy of a "first printing" of limited numbers of the author's work regarding this subject.

I leave it into your hands for discernment because you are going to recognize some names which represent "authority" and "expertise" and are quite prominently represented in patriot libraries.

QUOTING: (Chapter VII)

CLUB OF ROME SYNDROME

[H: Headings are mine.]

A "CLUB OF ROME SYNDROME": The title is a bit of a play on words taken from the notorious "Club of Rome" which in itself is one of the most high regions of the International Zionist Conspiracy [Also known as the Committee of 300]. Not too long ago it became very evident that there was a growing number of conservative newsletters and publications each of which was using Post Office Box addresses in Phoenix, Arizona. There, also, was something strange but very noticeable concerning this growing number of Phoenix box numbers: they seemed to be forming a continuous pattern of numerically sequential numbers! Newsletters that for years had been published at addresses throughout the country now began having their mailing addresses changed to Phoenix.

Their publications appeared to be the same but correspondence, subscriptions, etc., were now directed to a central axial point there in the Southwest. [H: Now don't rush to your latest newsletter and expect to find this information for when uncovered, a lot of things began to happen very quickly—like covering up the boo-boo!] These were publications that had been in such locations as Florida, California, Colorado, Texas and so forth; why now were so many receiving their mail at a central location with their box numbers just one digit removed from their "contemporaries"?

This bodes for some interesting speculation and conjecture, the results of which will probably be very close to being right on point. What has piqued the interest in this "coincidence" is the fact that many of these now-consolidated entities, at one time or other, were all recommended or positively commented upon by the John Birch Society, Inc. "Birds of a feather...." and they do flock together, especially if they have the same force which is directing and ultimately controlling them. Now these newsletter writers, editors, publishers, et al., have not physically relocated to Arizona; that, in most cases, would be inconvenient. Recall that the current president of the JBS, Inc. (John Birch Society) resides in Massachusetts; the Society headquarters being in Wisconsin. So why this consolidation of mailing addresses in Phoenix? Could it be a central control function which is overseeing and more physically directing each???

[H: I would say this much: IF the addresses were in NEVADA, it would be "good business" and might well have not been noted at all—ever.]

CONSORTIUM OF CONTROL

It could not be that it is more convenient for the names associated with these various publications are still far removed from these addresses. There would be no economical reason for the centralization of mail receipt if the mail, in turn, had to be forwarded to those who, supposedly, are writing, editing and publishing the various "letters". "It just doesn't make sense, Admiral!" BUT, it does make sense if the reason for this centralization is that all of these publications are uniquely funnelled from the same basic source to insure that nothing comes forward which would not be in concordance with the "Master Plan"!

And just who are some of these in the "Club"? They are:

L. Abraham	POB 84903,	Phoenix	85071
D. McAlvany	" 84904,	" "	" "
Bates	" 84909,	" "	" "
Aden's	" 84905,	" "	" "

World News Digest	" 84900,02	" "	" "
G. North	" 84906	" "	" "

Each of these (and many others), remember, have been recommended by the JBS, Inc. Let us look at one, in particular, who has been briefly mentioned before, but is certainly deserving of much more editorial space. That one is Larry H. Abraham.

A FRAUD TO THE ULTIMATE DEGREE

Our Mr. Abraham supposedly produces the Insider Report and the GEO Report: I seriously doubt this. Currently, one Mr. Wallace "Chip" Wood is listed as the editor of the Insider Report but he has also taken over the editorship of the former "Johnny" Johnson Daily News Digest (Boxes 84900, 84902 and 84903). He wears two, or more, hats, but they cover only one head. A common connection? Certainly! Let us look at some of the historical record of Abraham and draw some positive facts to the surface and see just what type of person this has been, fully aware of these positive facts.

We trace back in time to the State of Washington and the machinations and activities of L. Abraham within the State. Abraham was licensed as a Securities Salesman within the State of Washington under Washington Securities Laws. This was many years ago and he would have been considered, in simple terms, a Stock Broker.

Larry Henry Abraham, Sr. (L. Abraham) has been a resident of the State of Washington for many years, most of his life, to be sure. He was first employed there by his father in 1957 in the father's plywood business and remained there until 1960. For the next two years he was employed by both a radio station (KNEW) and a television station (KXLY-TV) and then, through about 1963, he was employed by the Pacific National Advertising Agency.

A SIGNIFICANT MOVE

For eight years, 1964 through 1972, L. Abraham was extremely close to the workings and inner activities of the John Birch Society, Incorporated. He was a paid Area and Major Coordinator for the JBS, Inc. during this period and was closely associated with the hierarchy, leaders and, certainly, the controlling forces of that "clan". He was aware of activities, goals and precepts of the Society that are never the privy of the "lower classes" and "run-of-the-mill" members; he had to have this knowledge to be allowed to occupy a position of Area Coordinator! Even more importantly, the John Birch Society, Inc. accepted L. Abraham for this period of eight years and it must be assumed and accepted that the JBS, Inc. knew full well the moral and mental attributes of this person. Keep that in mind and equate it to the facts that here follow.

Abraham got his feet wet in the securities/investment fields in about 1972; he became employed with the Pacific Coast Coin Exchange and stayed with them until 1974. He learned, or developed, the fundamental ability to speculate with other people's funds.

THE "SCAM" WIDENS

Larry Abraham was learning quickly the rudiments of the ploys, the speaking with forked tongue; he had a convincing way and manner. In 1974 he, along with another "Operator", formed "Abraham-Reitz & Co." as a New York corporation and operated in the commodities field until 1977. In that year, for whatever contrived reason, he parted with John Reitz and sallied forth into the realm of the big boys; he formed "Larry Abraham and Associates" and proudly announced that he was now an Investment Banker. This reminds one of the subjective titles employed by the "Penny Stock Boiler Rooms" (Brokerage Firms) operating from and out of Denver, Colorado. But, here, we should not sally forth too quickly for during the time that "Abraham, Reitz & Co." was in operation a large amount of investor funds disappeared. The story folds and unfolds, Abraham claiming that an associate firm, Swiss Manhattan Metals Corp., was the culprit in the entire loss and that he (Abraham) was an innocent victim caught in a web of legal intrigue and poorly written securities laws of the State of Washington.

A LEGAL DISAGREEMENT? Not so, said the State of Washington concerning the Abraham contention that he (Abraham) was an innocent victim. The State came down on him for just and good cause and reason. The State of Washington permanently REVOKED the securities license of Larry H. Abraham for the following violations:

1. "That he willfully made an untrue statement of a material fact...."
2. "...engaged in an act which operated as a fraud or deceit upon another person in a securities transaction."
3. "...engaged in unethical practices in the securities business."

The ORDER (SDO-142-81) revoking his license emanated from the Securities Division, State of Washington, on 10 August 1982. BUT, the Birch support of L. H. Abraham did not cease!

COMMON COMPANY

The dissertation on Abraham is given to clearly show a type of individual that is not unique in himself (note, again, those who were previously mentioned as 'some' of the members of the Club of Phoenix), but is representative of support of International ZIONISM and who, in turn, are fully supported by the John Birch Society, Incorporated. Let there be no doubt about that last statement. As an interesting after-thought one could wonder if others of the ilk of a Jerry Falwell, a Pat Robertson, a Billy Graham, a Jimmy Swaggart and a host of others of like cloth, FAKE Christian, leaders of the George Orwell Boobtube Networks are not also getting some portion of their mail via Phoenix, Arizona. They are ALL ZIONISTS: first, last and foremost!

LEOPARD'S SPOTS DO NOT CHANGE

L. Abraham did not go unseen or unheard of following the demise of his securities frauds in the State of Washington; on the contrary, he schemed to go 'International'! A new team was formed to bilk the unsuspecting patriots and it had a lot of the premises and goals of the famous William Kennedy scam, Western Monetary Consultants! The team was Larry and Harry; Larry, of course, being Abraham and the Harry was the long known and infamous Harry D. Schultz of Monaco and the Harry Schultz letter, a tout vehicle, if ever there was one! (Harry frequently preceded his name with "Dr.", however, he had never been granted a doctorate from, or by, ANY accepted institution of higher learning.) Unknown, but probably there was a "Moe" also in their act.

They founded "Freedom Incorporated" [H: Enter now, information which I have priorly shared with you, just to jog your memory.]. Their initial goal: To raise $10,000,000.00 and put a dent in the "conspiracy"; to change the make-up of the world and bring proper law-and-order to the market place. Unfortunately, there will be many who read this who will have had first hand investment knowledge of the inner workings (or lack of) of FI. Larry and Harry proceeded to con as many as they could reach through their own newsletters, Insider Report and HSL, and by having many other newsletter publishers promote the FI wares.

THE "FI" PLOY OF DECEPTION: It was coincidentally of interest that the stated objectives of Freedom, Inc. were cunningly akin to those that were spewed forth by the John Birch Society, Inc. Larry and Harry put their shoulders to the grind-stone and put forward for public consumption a glowing accounting of the aims and goals of their newly formed scam. They plied upon the patriotism of the flag-bearing goyim and expounded in vivid language just how Freedom, Inc. was going to turn the tide of socialism, the CFR, the Trilateralists and the bankers.

They vehemently contended that they had a critical advantage of actually KNOWING "who the enemy is" and with this information, they, and the members of the Freedom, Inc. organization, could wage an effective campaign against "the enemy"!! A quote from one of their fliers reads: "Most have attacked the wrong targets. For a long time, it was thought anti-intellectual and simplistic to believe in the conspiracy theory. WE thought so, too! Until finally the proof of its reality was overwhelming. We were propagandized by them but now we will turn the tables on the CFR & Trilateralists, the New York megabankers, & all these appeasers of Communism, lenders to the USSR, creators of debt overhang, fosterers of government control over the individual, advocates of high taxation & its brutal enforcement." And additionally: "We must pool our talents, time, & cash to create a global organization: Freedom, Inc. Through Freedom, Inc. we can influence legislatures at the grassroots level everywhere; we can elect directors to media boards; fund our own book publishing houses; fund and aid freedom fighters in Angola, Afghanistan, Nicaragua, Mozambique, Cambodia." And one more quote of pure drivel from their "send us money flier": "We will press for an investigation of the US State Department....We'll critically influence elections. We will create a groundswell via a network of both paid and volunteer workers in every voting district around the world. Where we can't influence or change the media, we will start our own." Well now, reader, doesn't that all sound just Jim Dandy, Peachy Keen & etc.!!

THE JBS, INC./FREEDOM, INC. TIE

This verbiage could have been taken almost verbatim from the gospel of "Saint" Welch and his Church of Deception. It is misinformation personified to the ultimate degree and the Freedom, Inc. language is precisely what has been the language of the John Birch Society, Inc. It is the deception of false leadership and false guidance specifically designed to undermine and lead astray any who follow and wrongfully believe that they are being given the truth! Abraham learned well from R. Welch during those years as an Area Coordinator.

The glaring fact is here for all to see, at least for those who have the presence of thought to understand and rationalize what they are reading. NEVER does an implication to ZIONISM appear, whether it be from the JBS, Inc. or the contrived Freedom, Inc. money scam. They both freely and often allude to the CFR, the Trilateralists, the bankers and others in APPARENT control but NEVER do they pose the question of who controls these operations!!! These apparent forces in control are, in no way, the tip of the iceberg; they are lesser functions of the tip; and the tip, of course, is the International Zionist Conspiracy!

"FI" A SIMPLE FRAUD

The Freedom, Inc. goal of raising $10,000,000.00 within six months was certainly never reached—never intended to be reached. The promise to refund monies to the subscribers who requested a return was a joke. There were many who requested a refund—none received any. Requests to see accountings of the books of FI were unanswered and legal action against FI was for naught. Ah, "Western Monetary...", to a lesser, although faster, degree.

Give this some thought. Some of the backers of "FI" just happened to be: Jim Blanchard, Gary North, Antony Sutton, Mark Skousen, Howard Phillips, Morton Blackwell, Hilaré du Barrier, Robert Prechter, Julian Snyder, Ed Lee and the late Johnny Johnson. "The Club of Phoenix", for want of a better title.

MORE ABRAHAM LIES

Former John Birch Society, Inc. paid Area Coordinator Larry H. Abraham, Jr. still runs rife and rampant with deceit. After some twenty years he still has the audacity to claim that he was responsible for, authored and produced "None Dare Call I Conspiracy", which was entirely the product of Gary Allen. The Abraham association with Gary Allen was minimal. For a short period of time during and immediately following the publication of NDCC, Abraham performed in a marketing role for Allen. None of the original printing of NDCC has any reference to L. Abraham; on the contrary, Gary Allen gave full credit to all of his sources of data in compiling NDCC. It is further interesting to note that there was no close association between Abraham and Allen for many years thereafter. At a later time they did join in a newsletter partnership which was forthwith terminated by Gary when he learned of a number of financial and monetary discrepancies, which could not be explained by his "partner"!

The JBS, Inc. did, initially, support the sale of "None Dare Call it Conspiracy". It was displayed at their local meetings and gatherings for sale and undoubtedly had a good sales result as a consequence. At no time, however, after Abraham began his lying assertion that implied that he was the author of NDCC did the JBS, Inc. ever come forward and counter the Abraham claim. Lying by omission, shall we say

TRUTH WILL SET YOU FR

THE FORKED TONGUE

The ploy goes on with current advertising and flyers from "Phoenix" extolling the vast virtues of the accomplishments of Larry Abraham. He continually claims that he is a millionaire and has made millionaires of untold numbers of those who have listened to and heeded his profound investment advice. This assertion alone flies in the face of fact and reality when, again, it is duly noted that he has filed Personal Bankruptcy in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington, (Case No. 90-33994)! He therein listed his liabilities at a figure of almost $1,200,000.00 and assets less than $5,000. This is not reflective of an investment "Guru" in any way!

ULTERIOR MOTIVES

There are far too many Birch supporters overtly and covertly involved, not only with the promotion of the Larry Abraham rip-off of the unwary, but in and among themselves. Why does Gary North and M. Skousen, as examples, continue to outrageously verbally, and by direct quotation, so strongly support and refer to Abraham in the most glowing of terms? There is a method to all madness and a destiny that shapes our ends. There has to be an underlying reason for the "Club of Phoenix" to adhere so tightly to a concept and belief that is common to each and to all of them. So what is this concept and/or belief?...IT IS ZIONISM!

The information contained on the last few pages is not uniquely known to this writer; it is public information available to all who care to look. It would be naive to even discuss whether such as North or Skousen were aware of the shady history of Abraham. Most assuredly they are aware and they accept him; but far worse, they promote and encourage him knowing full well his despicable and criminal performance. And these are the people who support and are supported by the John Birch Society, Inc.! Are they Zionists? Certainly they are, card carrying or not. Remember the "Duck"! The hypocrisy of the entire gaggle begs description and reason and is akin to the gutless wimp who flits from side to side, from flower to flower, as a butterfly, hoping to be on the winning side when the last shot is fired. NEVER has North (either Gary or Ollie), or Skousen, or McAlvany, or Schultz, or Abraham, or The John Birch Society, Inc. or etc., ever come forth with a definitive statement concerning Zionism and their relative position thereto! I challenge any reader to contact any of these, or others, and ask for a clear cut statement concerning his or their position on the Zionist One World Order Conspiracy. The odds are highly in favor of no reply or, at best, a rotation of meaningless, divisive prattle. Yet, they will all conform to the accepted belief that there is a conspiracy—a Communist Conspiracy. Does that not remind one of the JBS, Inc. philosophy? The iceberg contains fathoms of unseen danger.

INTIMATIONS OF INTRIGUE

The network, the web, of the collusion of intrigue generated within the "sphere of influence" of the Zionist Conspiracy and its lackey agents, of which the John Birch Society, Inc. is one, is more complex than could be easily imagined. The "Club of Phoenix" is but a small minute fraction but it is a completely representative function and example of the Zionist control of one of the major facets of control—Economics!

The tie-ins among the many and various agencies, centralized private media, "news letters", get rich quick ploys and scams is almost limitless. The majority of these are of a like mind set and are in business, firstly, to generate monies for themselves and, secondly, to make certain that they toe the "Party Line" and not deviate from the established "Pied Piper of Hamelin" scenario in leading the Serfs to annihilation. There are a few exceptions to this but they are the rare birds who have the intestinal fortitude to tell the truth. One of these that comes immediately to mind is "Criminal Politics" by Larry Patterson and his fine assembly. [H: Well, let's not get completely carried away. I will say, however, that this group does "believe" itself to be doing right by investors, etc., and certainly recognized the massive imprint of the Zionist Conspiracy—this mostly due to connections with one Eustace Mullins who has done a most impressive job of revealing truth to you blinded citizens.] But let's go back to some individual tie-ins involved in the intrigue of subversion.

It has been well and conclusively proven that there is a direct and purposeful connection between The John Birch Society, Inc. and, as example, one William R. Kennedy, Jr. of the days of Western Monetary Consultants and then later with his direct efforts to aid and abet the Israeli (Zionist) support for the fake Mid-East Iraqi war. That last effort, remember, was his co-chairmanship, along with the notorious Scott Stanley, Jr., of "The Coalition for America at Risk". It was shown that Stanley was an active tool of the Birch deception but the chicanery and dishonesty goes much farther.

ANOTHER WEB

Stanley was not only in direct collusion with Kennedy, but his range of activity also included close association with and support of Abraham and Schultz in the nefarious schemes concocted by that duplicitous daring duo.

In late 1988 another scheme was hatched by Abraham and his associates when they converted a makeshift existing investment firm, named Yorkshire Leveraged Group, Inc., into a new-named entity which they now called Freedom Funding, Inc.! Rather a familiar sounding title; rather reminds one of Freedom, Inc.! Well, it should, but read on. In January 1989 Abraham stated: "Freedom Funding, Inc. is now a multimedia company comprised of various divisions specializing in certain aspects of media development. Among the various media opportunities being pursued by the company are the acquisition or partial ownership of Conservative Digest magazine, American Press, Inc. a new news network company, Second Opinion Productions, Inc., a new-being-formed video production company." The meeting that decided all of this was held on Dec. 13, 1988 in Annapolis, Maryland and among those present at the Annapolis board meeting was a Mr. James Whelan, Ex. V-P and editor-in-chief of Conservative Digest and a Mr. Scott Stanley, Jr., chairman of American Press, Inc.!

Abraham glibly announced that the takeover of the former Yorkshire Group, now known as Freedom Funding, Inc. marked the beginning of our Freedom Inc. move into "...the building of a worldwide media conglomerate..." Shades of, shall we say, NBC, CBS, ABC, Ted Turner and even "Hanoi" Jane Fonda. The mere idea that this newly formed group was going to establish a "worldwide media conglomerate" is, of course, ridiculous; it would be akin to saying that they were going to establish a new international airline that was going to compete with the world's major air carriers. So, there had to be an ulterior, clandestine, subversive motive for setting up Freedom Funding. The motive: to con the unsuspecting public; to get their funds and abscond!

THE METHOD OF FRAUD

One of the first priorities that Larry Abraham put into operation was an immediate association with a small "penny" operation stock brokerage firm. The firm that he chose, or that was chosen for him, was First Eagle, Inc. of Colorado Springs, Colorado. Colorado Springs is not far from Denver, the home of the majority of "penny" firms of the nation and many of the most notorious swindlers in the business. "Good company" to be in but it is in no way a coincidence, to be sure. The tout was on and Abraham heavily implored all of the "investors" of Freedom, Inc. to contact Ozzie Dunker, or one of his brokers, with

First Eagle and immediately invest in Freedom Funding, Inc. When the stock was offered (selling) at $.35 per share Abraham was saying that "we see a strong future in the share price..." Incidentally, this statement alone is a violation of "The Rules of Fair Practice" of the National Association of Securities Dealers; it is termed "price prediction" and is a definite No-No! But Abraham was well aware of this violation in advance; remember, he had been a licensed stock broker until the State of Washington legally revoked his license.

THE CONSERVATIVE DIGEST

The Conservative Digest publication was another carrot that was dangled for the unsuspecting to nibble upon. Abraham glowingly posed and elucidated his plans for the takeover of The Conservative Digest and what this takeover was going to accomplish. He stated: "With Freedom, Inc.'s managerial takeover of our public company, Freedom Funding, Inc., we are now in the process of merging Conservative Digest magazine into the Company. We've compiled our business plan and are ready to launch a very aggressive expansion program....We believe that with a capital expenditure of $900,000 we can, within 3 years, have a publication with a market value of $7-10 million....This would have a dramatic impact on the price of Freedom Funding Inc. stock. By purchasing stock now, investors will be putting money in the corporate coffers (writer's note: this can not be true unless the purchaser was buying Corp. Treasury stock and not open market stock).

On December 26, 1989, Co-publishers Larry Abraham and Harry Schultz announced that Conservative Digest had gone out of business. They also announced that they were sorry that there was no refund money available. Interestingly was the notation that if there should be any inquiries they should be directed to a PO Box in Wauna, Washington. Presumably the Abraham private address. It was most interesting to note that the address for the Conservative Digest had been P.O. Box 84905, Phoenix, Arizona, 85071. Ring a bell?...box 84905 is now tabbed to the "Aden Sisters"!

It would be most revealing to learn the volume of FFI stock that was sold as a result of these various stock "touts". It would be even more interesting to learn of the disposition of the monies involved. Just how many dedicated, lower level Birchers got stung would also be informative. You can bet your spare change that there were many, for there is little question that Zionist Abraham had more than access to the JBS, Inc. rosters!

I understand how terribly hard it is to sort out wheat from chaff—until AFTER the fact. The point becomes, therefore, that you DO get it sorted out lest you become even more confused by the subterfuge about you. It is THE time of false teachers, false leaders and workers of the Adversary. There are many truthbringers who provide the outlay of factual truth. Our only intent is to provide a format for the sharing of the integrated whole for your attention.

May you be given insight and may you always go within into the silence of your wisdom center and then, only then, discern and judge. Discern the possibilities and then JUDGE THE ACTIONS—not the man—and you shall have your answers in Truth. If a thing waddles, quacks and has webbed feet—he may well not be a "duck"; he could be a "goose" with a bad cold. Does this mean that ducks and geese are all bad? Certainly not—it means that you keep your eyes open wide and DISCERN.

Thank you for receiving and thank the author for sharing. We will give you information regarding this author and his works in the very near future.

We are indebted to all who would share with brothers as we make this treacherous crossing. So be it. Salu.

Tidbits Of Happenings

ZIONIST "HOLYDAYS" EVENTS

More than a downed cargo plane is planned for the Israeli holy days. You witnessed a slash at it yesterday with your own stockmarket activities. (Remember who owns the banks and the major businesses—the Elite New World Order now being fought over for status primarily by the Zionists.) The Zionists use the Judaist's special events as guidelines for activities. Yesterday's plunge in the market and then immediate "bring-back" by evening was a good indication because gold rose but a little bit and silver was not even noted in change.

UN TRAINING FORCES ON ALERT

The most important "rumor" is that all the military forces, UN "training troops included", are now placed on "alert" beyond activities of the past weeks and months. The "red" alert to be prepared for full action with probably need for widespread and massive control action is set for the 29th of October. "War Games" now focused on "crowd control, riot suppression and mass citizen hysteria" is how the instructions read, for training purposes. The "action" squads have been training in demolition, strategic area fire use, SWAT team "hot spots" response action, handling of mass dead-body removal, highway and freeway ingress and egress CONTROL of citizen movement in "contaminated" areas and/or disaster areas. Part of the plan of action is coded to have "countdown" revolving around the October "holidays", i.e., Passover, Columbus Day, Allhallows Day, and of course, Election Day in early November. In fact, if things don't change in the election projections, it will all be underway in full measure before "election day".

LITTLE "CAMP" OUTINGS

You can go anywhere in the Mojave Desert these days and find active patrolling and live-ammunition war games under way. Go north from Southern California and you will be able to "hear" the activities. Some locals report that there were war games within easy earshot of their campground at Lake Nacimiento with many, many helicopters (black) in constant surveillance.

Just this past weekend in Seattle there were demonstrations, some against Bo Gritz, with "control" presentation of forces ready for riot control—with heavy mechanized equipment at ready and openly visible to all.

It is also noted that the terrible fire in the Northern California forest was preceded by a MASSIVE "mushroom" cloud which was visible for hundreds of miles before it was obscured by smoke from the fire it started.

REMEMBER THE WARNING FROM BO GRITZ

Let us assume that Col. Gritz is who he claims to be and—being so well recognized as a "patriot" and as a Special Forces officer—that he still has access to inside information (which he most certainly does). Now, let us assume that in having this kind of input—he can be pretty well up on what may be going on—behind the scenes. He has said, especially to groups in California, that it looks like "major disastrous events will probably take place before the November elections." Well, that would indicate to me, if I were a listener, that probably there will be some major disastrous event taking place before the November elections. Watch out—the three top controller-contenders for the fourth most powerful throne in the world are about to get their acts together. Before you can even consider the U.S. Presidency, you have to consider the head of the “300” and the Head (REAL POWER) of the United Nations—which is NOT the U.S.A. You had best pay real close attention to the Crown of Great Britain, the British Israelis, the Banksters under those “crowns” and the major PLAYER in the struggle, THE ZIONIST MOVEMENT. Indeed, they are all part and parcel of the “same” but you can watch old Gorbachev in the “Communist” whirlwind of present uprising and Kissinger Associates’ actions and get a good picture of events.

Do you really think the “criminals” are going to let their actions come before the laundry committee for cleansing if they can prevent it—even if it causes massive Third World Wars? You are in the countdown to finalizing depopulation and Plan 2000.

PEROT

I am urged by a new reader to be preparing the people for a massive defeat of Gritz and get on with telling the readers what to do after the defeat. I don't know how this person expects me to do that more than I have—is it possible that this one should read the JOURNALS and more of the paper? Or, is it possible that magic will appear from the cracks and crevices, gutter or passageways and Perot will win and all will live happily ever afterward?? No, already a swarm of responses come back to us stating that it certainly appears that “.....Perot is simply a stooge for Bush!—just look, sir, at what he is doing!” Chelas, what do you EXPECT? There is NO MAGIC in your fantasy land reality. The Plan is to bring the Ultimate New World Order—One World Government by Force—into full operation by year 2000. This must have action above and beyond the most nightmarish thoughts of ordinary man to accomplish—for you are out of “time”. To depopulate a planet to 550 million bodies by year 2000 means over six BILLION will be exterminated in the next seven years!(!!!!)

WHAT WILL GOD DO TO STOP IT?
WHAT WILL YOU DO TO STOP IT?

GOD HAS SENT US AS HIS MESSENGERS AND WE ARE SHOT AT, REBUKED, DENOUNCED, OUR WORKERS SLAIN AND DENOUNCED, RIDICULED AND SPAT UPON—WHAT WILL “YOU” DO TO STOP IT?

SILVER

Bad news today: it is all but impossible to purchase silver coins, etc. This is a very bad sign. If you have a source I suggest you use it but remember there are limits to amounts you can purchase of any metal or “cash” without being reported to the Feds. Anyone purchasing more than $10,000 from any dealer (ever) must be reported and those “reports” are computerized for a full purchase per person reading. This is, after all, all computerized via the nice theft job of the software from INSLAW! This is a part of THE program for keeping the largest most widespread tabs on individuals in the world today.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

For you who would continue to deny the messengers of Christ-God, who was first, last and always will be—I suggest you harken back to a great messenger who spoke with great wisdom in EVERY LANGUAGE: “HE WHO DENIES ME SO SHALL I DENY HIM BEFORE MY FATHER!” THINK UPON IT!

CRITICISM AND DISCERNMENT

As you face the days of confusion seemingly without letup of enemy forces (anything which pushes or pulls you from balance) assaulting and battering, remember that you are growing—always growing. As you face this circumstance, that insult—remember something most factual about “Criticism” and those who criticize—they must have nothing better to do or they would be doing it and not attending YOU and Criticism never built a house, wrote a play, composed a song, painted a picture, improved family life, reared a child, wrote a book, saved a brother or any other thing of worthy nature. Criticism tears down ONLY—suggestions build, criticism destroys.

It is tough right now in your experience. Life gives you the test very often before you have full chance of studying the lesson—the message is to keep on keeping on, allowing insight to flow, being open for new expression of all types so that discernment learns guidelines and KNOW THAT GOD'S HEART AND WISDOM SEES WHAT IS MOST OFTEN INVISIBLE TO THE HUMAN EYE. Praise is so soothing to the senses but consider this: it never teaches you anything NEW—it only focuses on that which is past. Does this mean you must seek out criticism instead of praise?—yes, if you must seek out either. Criticism allows you to look at yourself—if you are willing—while praise sometimes lulls you into ego trips which trap you into stalling out on your growth.

However, you must learn to always teach through “praise” for the heart blossoms in the light of praise and withers in the presence of criticism. Allow for growth, not withering.

LEAKED FROM GEPHARDT'S OFFICE

We have a message awaiting time and space appropriate for sharing which came out of a “pre”-environmental meeting of the hierarchy planners of the New World Order over a year ago. This in preparation for the big “Earth” meeting of a few months past in Brazil. The purpose was to evaluate status of the New World Order and balance against the plan laid forth by Cecil Rhodes (British/South Africa) long, long ago. The document has been “leaked” out of Representative Richard A. Gephardt's office. Remember, he is the “Majority” Leader, is on the Budget Committee and Committee for Select Intelligence and at the time was a major player in evaluation of the status of the New World Order Plan.

It is pretty awful to behold, chelas. It lays it right out there in front of your eyes—“...depopulation is not running on schedule and nations will be put on mandatory compliance with reduction numbers. This means that foods, medicines and aid will not be allowed to flow and that which does will be intercepted. The population of the globe is to be no more than 550 million people by, or shortly thereafter, year 2000.” I believe in the U.S. the reduction is by 100 million (less) people by year 2000. It is planned to pull more of you out than that because you still get influx of foreign immigrants. Except for selected and “useful” newcomers, the lower “class” (as defined by the Elite) will be wiped out. Disease is being introduced into the water supplies and by other methods such as vaccinations and inoculations, and thus and so.

Do I criticize their plan? [See next story for more on this plan and the UN Conference arranged to nurture it.] Goodness no—it is almost perfection and is working very, very well. The mainliners all know what it is and even those dandy evangelists who are born-again have set their stores in other countries to insure safety as well as preparing places of security—it is just YOU who are going to pay—(THEY THINK!) Most who “THINK” they have the key and the ticket—DO NOT! So, they will continue to tear down TRUTH while they build. Therefore, what could be good about this apparent mess? GOD! GOD WILL BE SHOWN FOR WHAT HE IS! Their lies and very plan of annihilation gives us the conduit for bringing Truth unto Christ-God's people. If this were not happening, you would not listen—you would consider all to be “out there somewhere” and all would move and march to this evil drummer. “They” did not even “buy” your souls—they stole your very heritage and ability to cope, defend or KNOW.

Moreover: it is wondrous that you have ones in the circles WHO DARE TO BRING THESE DOCUMENTS TO LIGHT FROM THE HIDDEN FILES. What do we gain to sit and criticize? We can take that which is now given unto us and confront the evil-doers, present the Truth unto the people and DO SOMETHING. I totally respect my enemies—you should stop the whining about them and do likewise. While you sit and criticize you are incapable of thinking of action to counter that which you can perceive simply by the act of the criticizing. If you are critically "incorrect" it behooves you to shut your mouth and open your mind and allow a little praise to the ones you hit so hard.

STONE THE PROPHET? HALF-BAKED INFORMATION IS DANGEROUS

A statement has been reported to us as coming from "Bo" Gritz. When confronted by a questioner on this past week-end in Washington (state) regarding Command, space guides, etc., he quoted his "Bible" and said: "If a prophet be true, praise and honor him; if he be false, stone him."

Immediately, ones went forth assuming Commander Gritz had suggested "Hatonn be stoned." Why don't we try "honor" instead? If I have sorrow over a beloved brother such as "Bo", it is that there was so little time to balance false teachings against the Truth as it IS and will become evident in the near future. He is caused to travel in circles who smother him with their open call of patriotism and honor; only to be making hay in their own right before the darkness hits. He is quoted as saying there is misinformation in the PHOENIX writings. Indeed he perceives exactly correctly IF one reads NOT CAREFULLY. If one scans and leaves out the "would it not be interesting IF..." or leaves out the "NOT" (even in the above sentence) does it not change the meaning? This is the method I have to reach unto the ones awaiting instructions, confirmations and status. If you don't read the information at all, as for instance, Col. Gritz has not time to do—what would you discern if you were in his shoes? Would you not listen to those ones who travel with you and CLAIM to know all about the PHOENIX material? Dear ones, we are so "right-on" that the very groups around are copying our very names—the economic evangelical group of rip-off artists with their instructive newsletters, etc., are even recognized now as the "Phoenix" Conspiracy OR "Club of Phoenix" (they work out of Phoenix, Arizona.) and we just wrote about that yesterday. This IS the way of the Adversary (CLUE NUMBER ONE). He takes that which is "right" and "holy" and utilizes the term to deceive by placing a different definition to the language—BUT DOESN'T TELL YOU SAME.

One of the most deadly "projects" in the Vietnam era was the "Phoenix" project. Even the symbol of the Phoenix (bird) is now being touted in the seminars going around as a "symbol of Satan". Sorry! No matter how the names are changed to suit the evil-mongers—it changes nothing. We are come, we are represented by the Phoenix, it has always been known that it would be this way—and so it IS.

The speeches against this "Shadow Government" and "Conspiracies of Treason" are well done and it is assumed that the outcry from the information will distract you from seeing the "Conspiracy of Zionism" and the planned destruction of "Christ-God" believers and followers of goodness. LISTEN TO WHAT THEY SAY! They claim to believe totally on the word of "Jesus" and then soil his very image with their human physical limitations of your "Godness". The entire thrust is toward a physical experience—either physical rapture, blood symbols for "salvation" and/or "do these 'things' and it will be fine!" They do not tell you that you must live the "Christ" Laws—in Spiritual intent to actually accomplish these transformations—they vote in or out laws to suit the human expression—but GOD is Spiritual expression—THE TWO ARE NOT THE SAME!

So, you complain: "Are we simply hoodwinked and lied to at EVERY turn?" YES, FOR IT IS KNOWN THAT IN THE ENDING TIMES EVIL WOULD HAVE TOTAL RULE OVER THE PLANET AND THE PHYSICAL FORM(S).

TRUTH IN PROPHECY

It is and was, since the beginning, also KNOWN that God sends His messengers and guides to show you the way in these times of transition from evil into LIGHT. I am sent for this purpose. It is also known, since the beginning, that before the ending God would send the Word of Truth—that all who would see and hear could make choices regarding his own Divinity—be reminded of the laws in Truth and the WORD would be made available for the taking so that MAN could make his Spiritual choices. Ah, and so it IS. It is simply the time of choosing, chelas, that which brings you into Glory in the presence of your higher being or keeps you locked in the human perceptions which are NEVER ENOUGH, always fraught with would-be rulers and deceivers and an environment of deceit and lies.

WE MUST BE DOING SOMETHING RIGHT for the enemy does not rest in his effort to hide us, deny us, assault us and get rid of us. HE CANNOT! THE TIME OF TRUTH IS AT HAND—FOR ALL PEOPLE AND ALL NATIONS, CREEDS AND COLORS. The beast will devour itself—BUT, it will devour you first if you serve that beast for he cannot get you off the planet and into security of any other placement—on or off the globe. WE CAN BUT WE SHALL NOT BRING OUR ENEMIES. THINK UPON THIS! SALU

MARCHING TO ZION THE ULTIMATE WORLD ORDER

(Journal #55)

With the passage of PUBLIC LAW 102-14, March 20, 1991, you made it LAW that you will have a national religion and it will be based on the Zionist Talmud and "Jewish" Torah. This is in direct violation of the Constitution of the United States. But it was passed by voice vote and made PUBLIC LAW on March 20, 1991—and hardly any of you noticed. This is the anti-Christ-God in his determined march toward Zion!

UN Conference On Population Annihilation

10/6/92 #2 HATONN

HAPPINESS IS NOT AN ABSENCE OF PROBLEMS; BUT THE ABILITY TO DEAL WITH THEM. WISDOM IS DEALING WITH THEM PROPERLY. TO ACCOMPLISH THIS REQUIRES FULL KNOWLEDGE OF CIRCUMSTANCES AS FULLY AS POSSIBLE UNDER THOSE CIRCUMSTANCES. IT REQUIRES LIFTING THE HEAD OUT OF THE SAND AND SQUARELY FACING THE FACTS PRESENTED.

The following is going to be very hard to take, but it presents FACTS which must be faced.

This is more important in intake than our planned subject of the actions of one Henry Kissinger. This IS part of the actions of Henry Kissinger but not quite as visible at the moment as are his actions in Serbia, with the POWs in Vietnam and Southeast Asia and/or Iraqi intrigue. Therefore, we will simply give you, as received, the information in point regarding the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development in preparations for the Global meeting in 1992.

I am not going to explain these points to you for they speak for themselves and it is your responsibility to research points as they require questioning. Information is available and we simply have not the time to take each item for each individual who takes exception. What you WANT to believe is not what is FACT. I am not here to argue or sell anything—my purpose is to get facts and truth and share them, as I can, with you. I am the alarm on the clock—NOT THE CLOCK!

As you read the following please keep uppermost in mind: Mr. Gore is THE "environmentalist" candidate and was a "biggie" at the Rio summit in 1992. A lot of publicity, mostly negative, was given to Gore at the time. Then remember, Clinton is a groomed child of the Bilderbergers, selected to be the Presidential "puller-offer" of these New World Order orders. But, Mr. Kissinger said, at the Bilderberger meeting this year: "We know Bush will play ball and we know that Clinton will when necessary."

INITIATIVE FOR ECO-92 EARTH CHARTER

1. THE PRESSING NEED

a. The time is pressing. The Club of Rome was founded in 1968, Limits to Growth was written in 1971, Global 2000 was written in 1979, but insufficient progress has been made in population reduction.

b. Given global instabilities, including those in the former Soviet bloc, the need for firm control of world technology, weaponry, and natural resources is now absolutely mandatory. The immediate reduction of world population, according to the mid-1970's recommendations of the Draper Fund, must be immediately effected.

c. The present vast overpopulation, now far beyond the world carrying capacity, cannot be answered by future reductions in the birth rate due to contraception, sterilization, abortion, but must be met in the present by the reduction in the numbers presently existing. This must be DONE BY WHATEVER MEANS NECESSARY.

d. The issue is falsely debated between a political and a cultural approach to population and resources, when in fact, faced with stubborn obstruction and day-to-day political expediency which make most of the leaders of the most populous poor countries unreliable, the issue is compulsory cooperation.

e. Compulsory cooperation is not debatable with 166 nations, most of whose leaders are irresolute, conditioned by localist "cultures", and lacking appropriate notions of the New World Order. Debate means delay and forfeiture of our goals and purpose.

f. The United Nations' action against Iraq proves conclusively that resolute action on our part can sway other leaders to go along with the necessary program. The Iraq action proves that the aura of power can be projected and sustained and that the wave of history is sweeping forward.

PERILS TO BE HEEDED

There is a twofold opposition which must be eliminated by quick action. There are rumblings among some of the "South" regions, notably Brazil and Malaysia, to thwart the aims of the UNCED Earth Charter and to thwart the international gathering in Brazil in June 1992.

There is also the unfortunate vacillation of our own ranks, an argument that the UNCED leaders have made the agenda "too political" and that the way must first be prepared on a less abrasive cultural basis.

We present only the most recent evidence:

* Gilberto Meilo Mourao, the Brazilian writer, warned in the August 4, Folha de Sao Paulo that at Munich in 1938, "It won't be easy to row against the current of that type of ecological epidemic, unleashed against our country, which threatens the structure of our cultural, spiritual, and political values, and against our very national sovereignty....Messrs. Chamberlain and Daladier, heads of the governments of England and France, calmly offered the Brazilian Amazon to the Fuehrer." Hitler reportedly observed that since the Amazon was in South America, the United States would cite the Monroe Doctrine and reject a German occupation of Brazilian territory.

* The prime minister of Malaysia, Mahathir Mohamad, announced on Aug. 16 that his country may boycott the Earth Summit and stated that if the conference is used to suppress the Third World, it would be better for these nations to hold their own meeting. Speaking to newsmen in Petaling, Java, Mahathir claimed that environmentalists have launched a global assault on Malaysia, while it is the developed nations, not Malaysia, who are polluting the environment.

* Malaysia's Science, Technology, and Environment minister, Law Hieng Ding, announced Aug. 20 according to the New Straits Times of Aug. 23, that Malaysia is preparing a document entitled "Greening the World," urging developed countries to use wealth and technology to turn the deserts green.

* Ahmed Djoglaf, Algeria's delegate to the Aug. 15 meeting of the U.N. Conference for Environment and Development, said Aug. 23 in Geneva, according to the U.N. Inter Press Service, that "We have the old pattern of the North imposing the system and the South having to accept. Non-governmental organizations are saying that the North has hijacked the agenda, and they are right.... They are prepared to let people die but not forests."

* The Malaysian Sunday Times editorial of Aug. 16 said, "Environmentalists make so much of their noble mission in protecting the environment which sustains all of us.... They do not credit Malaysians with much intelligence with a similar concern for the health of the land and themselves. Shades of precious fin de siecle romanticism; visions of the noble savage stalking big game in arboreal groves, in grunting communion with the voices of the land. The same kind of romantic claptrap that got natives all over the world sold down the river into slavery, decimated by smallpox and clap, driven from their land into alcoholism and hopeless helplessness.... Malaysia has had its fill of cultural and intellectual domination...."

* The Brazilian Jornal de Comercio on Aug. 19 reported that Brazilian Foreign Minister Francisco Rezek said that it was "hypocritical to campaign to preserve flora and fauna.... If the human race becomes extinct, there won't be any sense in preserving an exuberant flora and fauna on this planet."

* Brazil's chief of staff of the Amazon military command, Gen. Thaumaturgo Sotero Vaz, stated in an interview in the Aug. 28 Folha de Sao Paulo, that the nation's armed forces will not permit Eco-92 resolutions restricting Brazil's sovereignty over the Amazon or creating "Indian nations" within the region. The general did not rule out the possibility that Brazil could be subjected to "something similar to what happened in the Persian Gulf", and declared that persons like Francois Mitterrand and Ted Kennedy would not be permitted to order reductions in or elimination of Brazil's armed forces. Sotero Vaz said, "If those idiots try to come in here, we're going to give it to them and treat them like guerrillas...." The governor of the Amazon, Gilberto Mestrinho, stated Sept. 8, "The general's position is the product of looking at reality."

* The president of the Industrial Federation of the Brazilian state of Para in the Amazon region, Fernando Flexa Ribiero, was quoted by the press Sept. 14 as stating that environmentalists want to make the Amazon "a sterile preservation". He said Eco-92 could "promote colonialist practices".

* The Brazilian Daily Tribuna de Imprensa quoted Joann Grossi, a spokesperson for the U.S. Agency for International Development, as saying that sterilization is the family planning "method preferred by President George Bush to increase the effectiveness of birth control in the Third World." [H: Now, don't act shocked, chelas, we have been writing about these things and these very people for the past three years!]

* The Italian Catholic weekly Il Sabato published a Sept. 14 article by Prof. Franco Cardini stating: "It must be said with utmost clarity that the plans of the International Monetary Fund for the (former) U.S.S.R. and the eastern countries are infamous... The European Community is in the position to supply not only suggestions, but also capital and technological structures, but all this obstructs the plans of the New World Order, which is strictly hooked to the United States, the country that remains (have we forgotten?) the most indebted country in the world, and is facing a crisis of production exemplified by the crashes of the stock market and the big banks. It is this new frontier that re-emerging liberals would like to propose to the former Soviet Union...." The Article has been much discussed in Poland, as the first frontal criticism of the International Monetary Fund and the free-market model from this quarter.

* India's delegate at the Geneva UNCED negotiations told the Earth Charter organizers, with the support of negotiators from China, the Philippines, Chile, Venezuela, Ethiopia, Ghana, and Malaysia, that "we are not here as supplicants, and we have not come here for aid," but "compensatory financial flows" to underdeveloped nations are required, according to the Sept. 13 Indian press. The delegate, Chandrashekar Dasgupta, also strongly opposed plans to bring environmental matters under the U.N. Security Council, and insisted that "development" be put center stage instead of bracketed next to the environment. He told newsmen that both India and China will have to be satisfied on these questions before they attend the Rio summit, declaring that without the assent of India and China, no charter will be worth the paper it is written on.

* At the Non-Aligned foreign ministers' meeting in Ghana, India's external affairs Representative, Madhavsingh Solanki, called Sept. 11 for a comprehensive and integrated strategy on debt and a development consensus for this decade. The African group at the conference sponsored an urgent call for an international conference on debt.

* The U.N. Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) issued its annual report Sept. 16, declaring, according to BBC, that the liberal free market is not an appropriate model for the developing nations. Finance should serve industry, not the other way around, the government has a key role to play in certain sectors of the economy. Directed credit for special projects is sometimes necessary. Developing nations should look to Germany and Japan rather than the U.S. and Britain as examples. The report deplores the tendency to introduce an "Anglo-Saxon" banking system into developing countries.

WHAT THE WORLDWIDE FUND FOR NATURE IS SAYING

* An official of the World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF) said Sept. 10 that the Geneva UNCED results were "absolutely a serious setback. There will be no convention on forests by June 1992 for Brazil. Nobody wants to say it publicly, but the forests convention is finished. The situation has reached a deadlock. This is the first casualty for the UNCED process. Increasingly, UNCED is being broken down into blocs, with the developing sector in one bloc. We hear the statements of Mahathir, and these can be serious. We hope it is just a tactic to precipitate new negotiations, but it has the potential to set the ball rolling and cause other countries besides Malaysia to withdraw. It is a very difficult situation."

* A senior advisor on ecological affairs to Britain's Prince Philip said Sept. 15 that Eco-92 organizer Maurice Strong had "over-politicized" the issue of environmentalism and had raised "ridiculously messianic expectations" for the Earth Summit. "Strong is mis-focusing attention away from a clear and present danger confronting the entire ecology movement; the general shift in paradigm toward favoring economic growth, in the former communist nations.... We should be avoiding too much overt politicking. We should concentrate on change-of-awareness models, and attack the underlying ethical-moral considerations that motivate people. Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union, that is our biggest challenge. We will have a major problem if they try to achieve the level of economic growth of the advanced Western nations. This is potentially one of our biggest challenges, and Prince Philip is getting more and more involved in dealing with it."

"Strong is somebody who spent too much time at his wife's New Age center; it obviously touched his mind. It all reminds me of the so-called Millerites of the 19th century, who predicted that the world would come to an end at some point in 1844, so they all went into the mountains to prepare. The world didn't come to an end, and the Millerites became the Jehovah's Witnesses. That is what I see happening with the Earth Summit. Just listen to Strong talk about 'the most significant event in human history ever', and 'the last chance to save the planet'. What would be more ridiculous, and guaranteed to create a mess? We see the backlash already, in the reactions of various Third World countries."

WHAT MUST BE DONE

In the face of mounting opposition from Third World elements, certain forces in the Eastern European and Russian regions, and by the Vatican, and certain weak-kneed response within the ecology effort, what really is the purpose of traipsing around America to convince a handful of farmers, unionists, local officials, churchmen, and university environmentalists of the necessity of the Earth Charter? If one truly wished to convert the American public, would it not be necessary to say fully, openly and explicitly what must be done? And that it must be done now?

Do you really imagine that parading some Third Worlders before "hearings" conducted by local celebrities, the Third world will simply quiet down, or that the American press coverage of these events will overwhelm this opposition?

Will you take action now that President Bush has the political momentum or wait until you must convince America to fight a hundred Vietnams simultaneously? This is the time to save the Anglo-Saxon race and its most glorious production, the Anglo-Saxon system of banking, insurance and trade.

We are the living sponsors of the great Cecil Rhodes' will of 1877, in which Rhodes devoted his fortune to: 'the extension of British rule throughout the world... the colonization by British subjects of the entire Continent of Africa, the Holy Land, the Valley of the Euphrates, the islands of Cyprus and Candia, the whole of South America, the islands of the Pacific not heretofore possessed by Great Britain, the whole of the Malay Archipelago, the seaboard of China and Japan, the ultimate recovery of the United States of America as an integral part of the British Empire....'

We stand with Lord Milner's Credo. We too, are "British Race patriots" and our patriotism is "the speech, the tradition, the principles, the aspirations of the British Race". Do you fear to take this stand, at the very last moment when this purpose can be realized? Do you not see that failure now, is to be pulled down by the billions of Lilliputians of lesser race who care little or nothing for the Anglo-Saxon system?

THE FOLLOWING POLICY MUST BE IMPLEMENTED:

A. The Security Council of the U.N., led by the Anglo-Saxon Major Nation powers, will decree that henceforth, the Security Council will inform all nations that its sufferance on population has ended, that all nations have quotas for REDUCTION on a yearly basis, which will be enforced by the Security Council by selective or total embargo of credit, items of trade including food and medicine, OR BY MILITARY FORCE, WHEN REQUIRED. [H: Anyone nervous yet?]

B. The Security Council of the U.N. will inform all nations that outmoded notions of national sovereignty will be discarded and that the Security Council has complete legal, military, and economic jurisdiction in any region in the world and that this will be enforced by the Major Nations of the Security Council.

C. The Security Council of the U.N. will take possession of all natural resources, including the watersheds and great forests, to be used and preserved for the good of the Major Nations of the Security Council.

D. The Security Council of the U.N. will explain that not all races and peoples are equal, nor should they be. Those races proven superior by superior achievements ought to rule the lesser races, caring for them on sufferance that they cooperate with the Security Council. Decision making, including banking, trade, currency rates, and economic development plans, will be made in stewardship by the Major Nations.

E. All of the above constitute the New World Order, in which Order, all nations, regions and races will cooperate with the decisions of the Major Nations of the Security Council.

The purpose of this document is to demonstrate that action delayed could well be fatal. All could be lost if mere opposition by minor races is tolerated and the unfortunate vacillations of our closest comrades is cause for our hesitations. Open declaration of intent followed by decisive force is the final solution. This must be done before any shock hits our financial markets, tarnishing our credibility and perhaps diminishing our force.

Note appended to the document: "NOTE: These pages of Racist, Nazi, World Order, pronouncements were distributed at the 9/22/91 UNCED meetings, presented by the United Nations. Maurice Strong spoke at the meeting.

When Communism and Capitalism collapse, World National Socialism will rise up to replace them. "NAZI" stood for "Nazional" in the word National-Socialism.

END OF QUOTING

I believe that the best thing I can do for you right now is to leave you digesting the foregoing. I don't know how much longer you are going to deny truth—but, you are out of time according to time-keepers of the Ultimate New World Order! I can only suggest you go back and read this several times, get rid of your denial, closed minds, yellow ribbons and rock-throwing—and look around you. If you can't see it happening before your eyes—you are indeed blind OR dead. Remember, the United States has a quota to meet also, of over a hundred million people to be weeded out permanently. Do you actually think there will be allowed a cure for AIDS and other well programmed and orchestrated methods of accomplishing the above? Not only are you going to be depopulated but the evidence of having done so will be used as an example for other nations of "higher" technology. The "inferior" nations will simply have slaughter sessions—such as is happening in Yugoslavia, South Africa, Somalia, etc. The plan is to get a whole big "hump" taken out with earth shifts planned for "soon", and other "natural appearing" disasters and contamination. GOD HELP US ALL IN THE DAYS TO COME. BLESSINGS UPON YOU WHO SEE AND HEAR FOR WITHIN THE LIGHT OF GOD IS THE ONLY PASSAGE OUT OF THE "PLAN".

Hatonn to stand aside.

Today's Watch

10/7/92 #1 HATONN

PEROT

I suggest you HEAR every word Ross Perot is going to show you. He will give you the "state of your mess" more succinctly and clearly than anyone else in the top three. DO NOT get bogged down in the politics of this unseen battle—just garner the facts and "be prepared" on election day because you are still in for some big surprises! Lesser of evils will probably be the way to go this time.

GRITZ

Don't get mired in this program either. There are some things about the Gritz "movement" which are NOT too great. There is still a great hang-up on the part of some of the ones very close to him which are incorrect perceptions and will merit you more disinformation—and this time, it will be regarding your "spiritual" balance. You need this man and his public recognition far more for "later" than for this period of evolved chaos.

Let the river flow! Ones clinging to the "old time religion" and who fail to recognize the TRUTH in spiritual connections as to "how it really is" are going to also "miss the boat".

Constitutionally, the approach of Gritz COULD work—but at this time it would never be "allowed" to work in Washington D.C. and that is where the stage is now structured.

It becomes more and more apparent as the days pass that the worst thing for your nation would be a Clinton/Gore win for that is what the Elite plan to have happen—even to the "fixing" of the election results.

RANDY WEAVER

I have to insert here that there is a lot more information regarding Randy Weaver than is known by one, Bo Gritz. I am not going to jeopardize the already BAD projections for Weaver by revealing anything herein—but when you get a statement that there is misinformation in the LIBERATOR regarding what this man KNOWS—I suggest you WAIT to hang us because what is not openly known even by "insiders" is more intriguing than most of you can handle and continue to read this paper. I, after all, (check your notes) did NOT say that Randy Weaver had served IN Cambodia or Laos or Vietnam or, or, with Gritz. I said, "could it be?" and "wouldn't it be interesting if?" I also referred to "a team". BUT, I DID state that Paul Harvey was tangled to his eyes and was personally involved with the whole affair WITH GRITZ. Not "with" as in "agreeing" only WITH as in "knowledge of" and "accompanying", etc. He certainly was NOT "with" Gritz in divulging truth of the Golden Triangle intrigue.

I believe you will find that Weaver knows far more damaging "stuff" to the government hoods regarding the U.S. than any Golden Triangle mess half a world away. Everyone must stop thinking in just your own little tiny world of experience when you consider these matters of clandestine Special Forces activities.

FOR INSTANCE & CONFIRMATION

We have a hot tip right from "Horse's mouth" from sources who have experienced IN, and know all about, underground cities and activities. This person worked within these installations and would be "out of touch" without warning, simply "disappearing" for months at a time.

There ARE "space aliens" in some of those installations—seen by this person. There is confirmation that Tehachapi is exactly what I have told you it is. And, a full confirmation comes regarding Edwards Air Force Base installations as well as the interconnecting facilities.

It is reported, also, that there is a tremendously large "city" in the Gulf of Mexico, south of Galveston, as well as a very large underwater city in the area of the Kwajalein Islands, west of Hawaii and this is also home to a very large ballistic missile base.

The relationship to the Rockefeller-Falklands-Georgia Island operations is stated as being impossible to miss.

Is all this TRUE? Well, if you want confirmations you are going to have to take all the pieces offered and see how the puzzle pieces fit. You have to realize that we are "set-up" constantly in order to later make a statement that "we trapped old Hatonn". I hope I am a better "sly old fox" than that, chelas. Even a "set-up" is going to be "mostly" correct, i.e., flypaper has to have "some" sticky on it or it won't catch anything! This is just a thought and, certainly, I am not denouncing this one who shares information. I simply want you to know that I do not trap easily and it is time for your own confirmations regarding these things. Check out the lists we have given you and recognize the other locations given you—and you will have pretty good insight.

I say this because just yesterday we received the most obvious letter of "gotcha" that I have seen but so crudely done as to think it came from an "intelligence" source. This was regarding the "PLEIADES CONNECTION" series and so carefully worded as to have missed NOTHING in the accusations and yet with obvious presentation that the writer had not even seen part of the JOURNALS in point nor read any of them in full. It is embarrassing to see how crudely ones make fools of selves at the hands of the master traitors.

YOU are "stuck" with the world as it is, friends, and therefore you are going to have to get those eyes open and SEE—really see—what is going on around you—then, act accordingly.

POUND STERLING DROP

The real cause of the crisis of confidence in the British currency came, not because of simple currency change timing and a "falling out of bed" but more like a "falling out". Will you find it interesting to know that the day before the pound sterling crashed into the basement, Ukraine's foreign minister arrived in London for talks (and bank withdrawals) with his British counterparts. Kiev's emissary reminded them of his country's claim that the Bank of England has on its books a LARGE Ukrainian deposit—AND KIEV WANTED TO MAKE A LIKEWISE LARGE WITHDRAWAL. With calculations of "interest" but not including service charges (for handling of a large amount of gold) the account is WORTH 16-TRILLION pounds. That is worth some $41-trillion Canadian (this comes through one of Canada's banks). This little sum measures out to about $770,000 for every Ukrainian man, woman and child. AND WHO WILL HAVE THE LAST LAUGH? The deposit was made in 1724 and it is certainly obvious that Britain never in their wildest dreams thought it would be remembered much less withdrawn.

And what of the Bank of England? Oh, they say they are still "looking" but can't seem to find authorization of this account, although there is record of "A" gold deposit at the time indicated.

So, chelas, let us move on today to an interesting focus on our old buddy, Henry Kissinger and a few of his antics. As with the wonders of the "Soap Opera" we must update constantly or the players get lost. Thank you.

Henry Kissinger Associates: Crooks For All Seasons

10/7/92 #1 HATONN

What with the International Monetary Fund now focusing on the good old U.S.A. after destroying, according to plans, the developing nations, the planned riots in Germany, the now terrible plague of Typhus to add to the misery in Sarajevo, it seems almost redundant to talk on the subject of one Henry Kissinger. On the other hand, when you realize that it is Henry "Kissinger Associates" that "advise" and set-up the situations in all those scenarios, it seems there is NO WAY to speak of him quite often enough!

RICHARD SECORD'S NEW BOOK

By the way, for you who rush out to buy Richard Secord's book to find all the dirt piled under the carpet—you won't find much more than dingy carpeting. You have to read between the lines so hard that most will miss the connections. However, it must make you see and understand how fully the actions are "within the law" as perpetrated by the ones involved. The "fine line" between truth and lie is well studied by the involved participants and the "law" is studied most carefully and anything not "legal" is made legal because it's "nice to be the King!" There IS more to Gen. Secord, however, than meets the eye so it is wise to read and wait. You have to remember, for instance, that if "one" production of "Bush" says "...and I was not in Paris"—literally the mouth speaks "truth". This is where "doubles" and "replicas" do their handiest fill-in roles—it also allows easy fooling of all sensitive apparatus to measure lie against truth. It is only you-the-people who get trapped by such devices.

But, on with Kissinger and "October Revelations" as presented here and there. Since "surgical" depopulation efforts were shown in Iraq I suppose we have to start there and then we will move on to POWs and the miserable show and tell at subcommittee hearings.

SUCKERING OF SADDAM

Did Saddam actually get "suckered" or is there more to the story? Well, if you deal with what led up to the "Gulf" incident and measure that which was "said" by your government and the U.N. about Kuwait (poor Kuwait—has anyone paid attention to the last few days' free elections in Kuwait?) one has to realize that still "more than meets the eye" goes on and on and on - - -

Guess what! Henry Kissinger and his associates are shown and proven to have had a direct hand in the suckering of Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein or, at the least, his seeming cooperation in the whole plan. Saddam is not too nice a human person in justice and LIGHT so it remains to be seen how "suckered" he actually WAS.

First, Kissinger et al. arranged the flow of money to allow the build up of Iraq's war machine and then maneuvered him into moving into Kuwait right on cue.

I remind you—some of the world's foremost foreign governments regard Kissinger Associates as being THE U.S. "shadow government" and which served as the lead "policy counsel" to every one of the participants in the Iraq conflict.

It is KNOWN that one Alan Stoga, a vice president of Kissinger Associates, was in Iraq on many occasions for private meetings with the top leaders for months (up to a couple of years) prior to the Kuwait precipitating crisis.

I do hope you have time to get to more accurate "surgical hearings" regarding the events than you had success with your "surgical bombing" in the fray as are being suggested in the U.S. I would remind you, however, that the bombings had THE intended effect—measured depopulation by force as we spoke of on the yesterday. The message is far more easily seen by ones "in charge" of the "PLAN" than by you who still think the world is basically "good".

What are listed as the two things Bush Republicans seem to fear most by questioning?

1. Was last year's devastating Gulf War the outcome of a secret scheme to "set up and entice" Iraqi strongman Saddam Hussein into choosing a military solution to his dispute with Kuwait, as new evidence being presented in a federal court now suggests? Even if this question is directed—the answer will not be sufficient for it allows the side-stepping of the liars as to the REAL CAUSE, and;

2. Did Henry Kissinger and his swarm of weapons bearers play the key role in this whole "play"? If so, as findings indicate, why do they still have such dominant influence over U.S. foreign policy? Do you think you will get a simple answer to THAT one?

AVOIDED ISSUES

The stir to somehow confront these "untouchable" issues has been powered by discoveries by your beloved Rep. Henry Gonzalez, chairman of the House Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs, who decided to pursue the money trail behind the war against Iraq, no matter where it would lead.

One of the cash conduits traced by Gonzalez led, crookedly, to the Atlanta branch office of Italy's huge government owned bank, Banca Nazionale del Lavoro, known generally as BNL—not to even mention the branch of this same bank tucked away in Chicago. Some $5 billion (known) in loans went to Iraq during the late 1980s from just the Atlanta office of BNL. Of course, the effort has been to set-up a "lone gunman" in the form of Christopher Drogoul, the BNL branch manager who signed off on most of the transactions. Now, it is too difficult for even the Congress to cover up the probability that "others might have been involved". Shades of Ollie North?

Drogoul did plead guilty to having approved vast cash transactions and said he did so without obtaining the permission of BNL's head office in Italy—undoubtedly affixed firmly to a Kissinger Associates branch office! He probably will get to change his plea in light of lack of carry-through on his promised "protection" which didn't protect but actually "set-up" his conviction.

Drogoul took a fall for others and could not possibly have engineered such a complex and widespread operation all by himself any more than could one Oliver North in his scenario. You will note, however, that in the end—it worked out swimmingly well for little "Ollie" while a man like Randy Weaver rots in prison without even being allowed "bail" for a quarter-inch too short shotgun charge. Oh yes, I do forget—he now is charged with assault on a Federal Agent and some kind of "conspiracy" with Kevin Harris to bring damage to another.

You have to remember something else about the BNL-Drogoul case—it "officially" got closed after "bagging" Drogoul.

However, when the ensnared executive, Drogoul, was in Federal Court in Atlanta Sept. 14 for his "routine" sentencing, there was a nice new defense attorney at his side: Bobby Lee Cook, 65, one of America's top trial lawyers, who had "somehow" become "interested" in the affair. Where are these "interested" attorneys for Randy Weaver and Kevin Harris? Where, after all, did Mr. Spence go? The attorneys now listed as being Weaver's are NOT any of the ones named in any of the news releases—by Paul Harvey or Gritz, if you can trust any of the current information from Randy Weaver himself. Behind the scenes? Who knows but Randy—the case comes to trial very, very shortly—perhaps the shortest time before a major trial of any in the recent United States judicial history!

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER: GET ON THIS CASE (WEAVER/HARRIS)—NOW! NEXT WEEK WILL BE TOO LATE. A whole bunch of "stuff" is being "stuffed".

ORCHESTRATED SCHEME

Far from having been the sole swindler behind the BNL scandal, Drogoul had been nicely set up, the victim of a scheme orchestrated at the highest levels of the U.S. government. His case was manipulated by very high-ups in order to hide the wrongdoing and blunders of Washington bureaucrats and Wall Street financiers.

During Drogoul's sentencing hearing, his second-in-command, Franz Von Wedel, who had never before been heard from, said it was an utter lie that Drogoul acted alone in a rogue operation. Von Wedel said Drogoul acted ON THE ADVICE OF THE BANK'S CONSULTANTS, KISSINGER ASSOCIATES, whose suggestions Drogoul also discussed on a special line with the bank's chairman in Rome, with whom he spoke daily. This has cast a whole new light on the case, with the judge dismissing the government case as having been aimed at proving a rogue operation only.

In reality the money trail of the huge "cover and deception" operation known as "Iraqgate" leads (again) right to the White House, Washington and Wall Street. But it, as usual, goes right to the rat-hole hidden linchpin between the two above; Kissinger Associates, the high-priced New York based consulting and deal-making firm those nice foreign leaders regard as YOUR "shadow government".

PRINCIPALS

Right from the mouth of a Congressional "investigator" comes the following paraphrased statement: Take a look at the principal players in this setup. There is BNL, one of the world's leading banks, owned by the Italian government; there are some huge U.S. corporations, such as the Bechtel Co., the largest worldwide construction and logistics conglomerate. There are other financial interests, such as LBS Bank, an arm of the Serbian Communists, set up in the United States by Lawrence Eagleburger, now the acting Secretary of State (a Kissinger associate, remember) and Brent Scowcroft, the top Presidential adviser and then, there is the White House, and finally—there is Saddam Hussein, Iraq's leader.

It would be certainly obvious that these disparate power centers all followed the guidance of the SAME adviser on their collision course, would it not?

Saddam Hussein granted only a single audience to U.S. Ambassador April Glaspie during the two years she spent in Baghdad—and that was immediately before the outbreak of the war itself. Now this comes from Michael Saba who is a corporate consultant who visited Iraq frequently during the same period of time in question. He preferred to deal with Kissinger and his envoys—but it may end up being his "fatal mistake".

We shall see—for as the players in the One World Government-Ultimate World Order take off the gloves and go at it in this election farce, some interesting things may very well evolve into the light. It means, however, that to keep the lid on—some very devastating things must come down on you SHORTLY to allow for absolute control of you-the-citizens.

SO WHAT OF POWs?

Hopefully, you witnessed the outright foolish appearing denials of this "mouth" of Kissinger—at work. As profoundly good a liar as is this "poor excuse" for a human man, he simply couldn't pull it off and good old Larry King (Live?) couldn't smooth it over except to you poor people who missed the show in action at the hearings.

So, despite the outraged denials by this former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger in testimony before Congress, it is obviously clear he and Richard Nixon BOTH knew American servicemen were deliberately being left behind during the pull-out from Southeast Asia. They both lied and continued to lie about it to all of you while continuing with business as usual with your enemy who incarcerated those beloved ones betrayed.

So what is being presented here? The same factual evidence as is coming through

(now) elsewhere. Evidence is traced which proves abandonment of some minimum 350 American prisoners of war—left behind in Laos at the conclusion of U.S. combat participation in the Vietnam War in 1973—leads directly to the President's oval office and Kissinger's twinkle-toes.

It has now been uncovered in several recordings, made in the Oval Office between March 21 and April 1, 1973, documenting that the 350 victims were knowingly abandoned to the Communists as American combat troops were being withdrawn from Southeast Asia.

Moreover, it has been learned that Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, then chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, sent a top-secret directive to his field commanders in Southeast Asia to halt the withdrawal of U.S. troops, as agreed upon under the Paris Peace Accords signed by U.S. and North Vietnamese negotiators, on January 27, 1973.

KNEW OF BETRAYAL

Moorer was aware the Communists were not upholding their end of the agreement to release all American POWs.

However, three days later, under orders from the White House, Moorer rescinded his order, and the withdrawal of U.S. combat troops continued.

Nixon then decided to override Moorer which is fully detailed and outlaid to the Senate Select Committee, in the secret White House tapes.

It was Nixon's penchant for tape recording the conversations that took place in the Oval Office, ironically, that led to the ultimate downfall of his administration in the Watergate scandal.

Select Committee investigators have found that on March 21 U.S. Ambassador McMurtrie Godley, the American proconsul in Vientiane, the capital of Laos, called on the chief emissary of the Communist Pathet Lao forces to immediately turn over THE 350 American POWs. His demand was ignored by the Communists.

Then, three days later, on March 24, Ambassador Godley again contacted the Pathet Lao emissary and demanded the release of all Americans, but again he was ignored.

You have to remember, chelas, THIS only accounts for some 350 men in Laos. There were another 425, at least, left in Hanoi as evacuation took place leaving no room nor time for their safe evacuation.

POW STRATEGY SESSION

On March 28, the day before the last U.S. troops were withdrawn, the subject of the POWs was discussed at the White House by President Nixon, Dr. Henry Kissinger, the President's national secu- ity adviser, and deputy Secretary of Defense William Clements, at which time it was decided to close the book on the captive Americans.

A high-ranking Nixon administration official said of the event that it made him "...feel a little sick. It was astonishing. Only the president could have gotten Tom Moorer to do that (reverse his decision to halt the withdrawal of U.S. troops until the POWs were returned)."

It was then determined within the Oval Office, as it turns out, that if the POWs were determined to be alive it would be necessary to halt the withdrawal of American troops, which would lead to renewed war; and, the United States also would be burdened with the task of trying to compel North Vietnam to get its Laotian allies to release them.

The Nixon administration had little means of pressuring Hanoi beyond a threat to start the war again, at the time in point. The White House seemed well aware this would never receive the support of Congress.

ADMITS LYING

Kissinger, in a September 22 appearance before the Senate Select Committee, heatedly rejected assertions the Nixon Administration knowingly "jettisoned" POWs in Laos, Vietnam or anywhere else. Kissinger did say reports of live prisoners had crossed his desk, but that these could not be confirmed. Kissinger went on to blame an "evil" Communist government in Hanoi and a Congress that refused to assist in obtaining the release of remaining U.S. servicemen held prisoner.

Kissinger's testimony represented an admission he had lied nearly 20 years ago when he and other U.S. officials publicly asserted no Americans were still being held hostage in Southeast Asia.

Kissinger then attempted to shift the guilt by accusing former Defense Secretaries Melvin Laird and James Schlesinger of spreading misinformation when they told Congress on September 21 American POWs probably had not been returned by the Communists. Kissinger claimed the two men did not raise the POW issue in 1973, so they could not have any basis for their latest assertions.

COVER-UP BEGINS

On April 6, 1973 Godley had wired Washington: "We have to assume that all the American POWs left in Laos are dead."

He clearly knew better and is believed to have been acting upon direct orders from the President.

Shortly thereafter, Clements told his deputy, Dr. Roger Shields: "All American POWs are dead."

Shields, who also knew better and has since been interviewed by the Senate Select Committee, was appalled.

"We can't say that," he protested to Clements.

"You didn't hear me," Clements said, according to Shield's deposition, "I said they're all dead."

Then-Deputy Secretary of Defense Lawrence Eagleburger (now acting Secretary of State) had only days prior to this exchange advised his boss, Secretary of Defense Elliott Richardson, that the 350 men were still unaccounted for in Laos, and even went so far as to urge the Communists be bombed to drive home the point that the United States wanted the men back.

In turn, Richardson advised Kissinger of the remaining POWs.

Thus, the cover-up of the fate of American POWs left behind during the war has continued for nearly two decades, with the successive administrations of Presidents Gerald Ford, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan and George Bush perpetuating the hideous crime of knowingly leaving American servicemen behind to suffer and die in enemy hands.

Now that the cover-up has been exposed for all America to see (if you looked), the last remaining act will be to account for those who may still be alive. What odds do you give of this happening, in actuality?

Well, let me remind you of some very devastatingly painful points in your political structure THIS DAY.

BAD NEWS!

Bush is NOT IN CONTROL OF YOUR GOVERNMENT! Remember, the key code sheets and "hot-boxes" (football) were taken from Bush. Kissinger, through Eagleburger, Scowcroft and others, is basically running your government RIGHT NOW. Bush knows that he is "out" and

"Clinton is the chosen one" to fit the needs of these "Associates" and it is hard times in the old home town tonight! There is so much with which to blackmail the Bushes that there is little fear of Bush "telling". We, of the Command, even offered the poor sucker a way off this place and out of the mess and he (one of him) refused. If he can't pull something off with Perot—it is "all she wrote", brothers.

Most of what Bush himself actually "hands-on" did, is carefully orchestrated as to be "legal" according to the "laws set up to protect the guilty"—so it's a hard bind in which your nation finds itself this day.

By the way—yesterday was the day of KOL NEDRI (Vow of all vows) which means that in the "Zionists/Jewish" tradition on the first day of Holy Days of Passover, a vow is made negating all vows taken in the upcoming year. It's a real handy device for insured lying and protection from being caught cheating and lying. If you vowed to break all subsequent vows through the year and update that every year—my, my, how handy and all comes within the "rights" and "rites" of RELIGION—you know, THAT religion that was made law by PUBLIC LAW 102-14. Have a nice day!

Hatonn to clear. Salu. I suggest you go take your Crystal Life drops, your Hydrogen peroxide drops (very sparingly), eat your algae and TRY to survive long enough to find the Truth so you can change this nightmare! May the "Force be with you"! Good day. Over and out!

Slippery News

UP THE ANTE?

Can you not see it? The Feds are getting ready to railroad Randy Weaver and Kevin Harris—AND BO GRITZ! You have a situation where a trial of people and unallowed bail release is going to take place in mere weeks when it usually takes years to bring this type of case to hearing—AND, you find the trial set at the ending of October with only a week to elections—wherein Bo Gritz is a witness and a candidate. Still think you aren't manipulated??

You won't find CNN talking about either!

SPEAKING OF CNN

Can you not see THIS one? The CIA has lied and presented false documents to both the Congress AND the court in Atlanta.

Gates (Director of CIA) has promised a "look into it". CNN, on both news channels this day with such a "breaking" story, simply shows one, Drogoul, being granted a "rehearing" while all this breaks in the courtroom—BUT NOT VERY MUCH IN THE MEDIA, AT LEAST NOT ON CNN. WHY?? It is so bad this day that the story covers the fact that this is a "major Italian bank", it indicates that the problem is "somewhere" in the U.S. and it states that billions of dollars were funnelled into Iraq and that Drogoul "may not turn out to be the only involved figure".

The report DID NOT GIVE THE BANK NAME (BNL), nor did it say the case is IN ATLANTA and COVERS UP COMPLETELY ANY OTHER "PARTICIPANTS" AS WELL AS NOT SAYING "WHAT" THE CIA COVERED!

Interesting point is that CNN is in Atlanta. Ted Turner got "loads" of funding for his "media networks", comes to all state dinners at the White House with little "Jane" and sits with Gorbachev and Kissinger. NEWSBLACKOUT? Oh, I think if you can stir up some interest in "tracking" you are going to find a rat's nest to end them all! It's up to YOU!

CNN has an ongoing blackout on any mention of Bo Gritz—EVEN HIS NAME.

SYRIAN, SERBIAN—ALL THE SAME?

Also, was it a "slip" perchance? This very morning during the reporting of the news in "old" Yugoslavia, where the fighting has been between Serbians and Moslems—what slip of the lip and printed sheet caused the announcer, without note or embarrassment or—to say "...Syrian forces..." throughout two presentations of CNN's Headline News.

"SHIPS SHALL FALL FROM THE SKY IN THOSE DAYS"

Remember our outline of the final days before THE war AS LAND MASSES ARE CHANGED and other things such as hurricanes, tornadoes, earthquakes and winds of 150 miles/hr, would sweep the lands? We also said that the ships would sink in the oceans and the ships would fall from the sky.

It is happening daily—tit for tat (not even hidden in "response"). A cargo plane is dumped on people there and one is dumped on people here. Open up your eyes, chelas, or you will miss the clues. A little old jet liner drops its engines one day and another drops its engines the next!

A bank indiscretion is caught in political corruption one day and Gorbachev is cast out of his "Foundation" center the next! "Foundation?"—"Think-tank Foundation" it's called and YOU help support it through donations gathered by Gorbachev in the U.S.—ah, but WHO really owns that "Think-tank"? That's right: Kissinger Associates!

Since you have the same players in BCCI as in BNL AND LBS banks—you know, massive turnover of money directed by Kissinger, Scowcroft, Eagleburger and various and sundry governments (your own AND all your supposed enemies) what do you think is going to happen when you get to BANKAMERICA? CITIBANK? You already know the Rockefeller-Rothschild (Committee of 300) ownership of CHASE and the FEDERAL RESERVE. But, you say, what about the Japanese? What about them—their market is about to collapse and one after another the leaders are falling to scandals—every day. THE JAPANESE ELITE ARE MEMBERS OF THE TRI-LATERAL COMMISSION WHICH IS OWNED AND CONTROLLED BY "THE COMMITTEE OF 300—CLUB OF ROME".

MOST DANGEROUS TIME

This period of time in America may well be the most seriously critical time for you in history as "seeming" enemies vie for the power "role". It is easy to see that things are "controlled" but how can that control be maintained? DISASTER AND FORCE!

I hope you ones will go back and read the planned scenario for getting Bush "pardoned" and the inclusion of Perot into the picture, etc. I can't rerun everything but you are seeing "A" plan in the working. Don't be too concerned over who is doing what to whom—remember: the goals are THE SAME: NEW WORLD ORDER—ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT, DEPOPULATION OF THE GLOBE TO NOT MORE THAN 550 MILLION PEOPLE (PER GEORGE BUSH) AND TOTAL SUBMISSION OF ALL REMAINING PEOPLE.

CONFIRMATIONS: UNDERGROUND/WATER INSTALLATIONS

More valid confirmations have come in that indeed, there are the underground cities and bases as we have presented—only there are apparently MORE than we presented. Well, nobody is "perfect" short of GOD.

ENVIRONMENTAL HOAX: SHEEP HAD "PINKEYE"

Remember the big to-do about the sheep going blind in southern Patagonia—from THAT ultraviolet light slipping through the ozone hole? This was an Al Gore "victory" speech on environmental disasters and included in his infamous book on the environment??? OOPS! NOT SO! AND WORSE, EVEN "GREENPEACE" HAD TO MAKE A STATEMENT REGARDING SAME.

In the investigation into the story of this wild claim of blindness resulting from exposure in several places where the "...ozone layer has holes", it has been found that the "sheep" and "some" people were infected with "PINKEYE" (a viral infection which is airborne). Most of the story made it to a production in San Francisco (channel KGO-TV, I am told). In going to Argentina with Greenpeace, the man who broke the story correction was present so this is "first party", not Hatonnese or hearsay. The alleged sheep blinded by the ozone hole is a farce and fully planned in advance. In fact, the parties involved were efforting to "prove the story correct", so eyeballs were brought back for analysis at a university medical center. The verdict is that "the sheep suffered from conjunctivitis, or pink eye, a highly infectious inflammation of the membrane covering the inside of eyelids and front of the eyeball."

NEW ZEALAND INFORMATION

I have so many requests to present the information from New Zealand—not the least of which come FROM New Zealand, that I will plan to do so within the next few issues of the LIBERATOR. First, however, I must give you an outlay of how the orders have come down through Farmers Home Administration to "clear more farmers off the land". This is being done through FmHA debt settlement programs. This has become a nightmare in practice—a ship of no return if you have any connections with the FmHA and are more than 30 days late in making payments to that lending agency.

The best disclosure comes from ACRES, USA but relatively few of you would ever see this article so we find it imperative to offer it to you. You who think this organization (FmHA) only lends against farms, etc., think again. It is into "building", projects, etc. Anything that possibly relates to the "land", Agriculture, businesses related to agriculture, housing, etc. It has been an absolute gold-mine for some industries and from those industries have flowed marvelous benefits—BUT, it is designed to take out the farmers and clear them off their own lands. So, you have one more plan identical to the RTC to get control into the hands of the Elite Banksters and inside money-changers, ALL OF THE PROPERTY OF THE CITIZENRY.

LIBERATOR JUGGLING SPACE

Even if you have to exclude some of my writing, or that of any other, such as Soltec, there must be room allowed for the running of REGULAR insertion of corporation information. We cannot offer insight and give possible aids during this time of evolution without giving practical running information on how to manage that which you DO. We also must arrange for space wherein we can write on the subject of life crystalline substance and "food grade" hydrogen peroxide. These are the substances which can give protection, better health balance in wellness "feelings" and are totally without the realms of "medicine", "drugs" or other restrictive limitations IF used as a simple supplement in moderation, i.e., as would be aspirin.

The substances, however, are being touted as "cures" for this and that and the government is efforting to remove all from the shelves and get it out of your hands even, if necessary, by confiscation. The enemy is AMONG YOU, and you cannot seem to see it! The scoundrels get their hands on the goodly things and spoil the benefits for all by greed, corruption and rip-off claims which do naught save bring in the government "shut-down" teams.

We have ones willing to do the labor and handle the misery of such product for your convenience and instructions—but I am unwilling to do more than simply tell you a bit about these things as possibilities for countering bad water and physical assaults. I do not practice medicine, law or any other thing as your society presents—however, I cannot speak of these things, have such simple and available counteractors of the insulting cause of assault, without offering some manner of solution.

THE GOVERNMENTS are moving into "higher and higher forms of killing" and I have no intention of jeopardizing my people. You may do that which you will with information and we will help you get information but therein must end interaction. Please be in understanding of your fellow-man who risks for you every day and honor these ones who are willing to serve, but only simply and within all laws as presented by regulations. Thank you.

Government Helps Farmers Off Of Their Land

10/8/92 #2 HATONN

ASSIGNMENT FOR FmHA: CLEAR MORE FARMERS OFF THE LAND

Why? Because "big daddy" plans to own ALL property, starve you-the-people and render you totally helpless and enslaved. Face it now or perish later—it is up to YOU.

QUOTING: Acres, U.S.A. as presented by William S. Williams, October, 1992.

An invitation to set sail aboard the cruise liner NO HOPE again has been advertised. It leaves the dock within 60 days of the date of the receipt of the itinerary. You can come aboard by selling, signing and apply for debt relief via the purchase of a ticket to oblivion. This is done by jumping on board the Farmers Home Administration's ship of no return and accepting its invitation to provide FmHA borrowers several options for those who are more than 30 days late in making payments to that lending agency.

What actually is happening is another attempt to bring on board those who were not ticketed on the first disastrous voyage when the ship hit rocky bottom in uncharted waters. Four years ago Congress concluded that only the rich and famous were to benefit from the various FmHA debt settlement programs set up via the 1987 Farm Act. A chronology of that event is available in Night Came to the Farms of the Great Plains, which now must be considered a survival manual, not legal deck furniture that becomes expendable as the water rises. The ship has been dry-docked, repaired and is now ready to set sail again. In general, a delinquent borrower under the new schemes is privileged to adjust his debt so that he:

1. Can continue farming, enabling FmHA a "better recovery" scenario, or
2. The farmer can deed his farm to FmHA with a leaseback and option to buy back his own land.

Nothing is really new. The dry-dock patching was cemented with old chewing gum. In either of these situations the "confessions" made by the delinquent farmer will pitch him overboard into a lifeboat without a paddle or create a whirlpool into which goes his family farm.

The confessions extrapolated by way of the various forms made part of the debt settlement programs amount to nothing more than an extension of granting authority by the farmer to all of his privacy rights as well as to the ownership of his land and most of his personal property to unforgiving strangers under the pretext of debt forgiveness.

[H: Where some of you may slip away from us here is that you will ask "...and how is this different from doing business with a bank?" Ah so, it isn't, only more tenacious because the government FmHA, FHA, etc., simply borrows from the bank and both the agency AND the bank then have to make usury (interest) gain on the money "loaned". It is a total "catch 22" but unnoticed because the rules are more lenient for the loans than from a "bank" and limitations of "amounts" are far, far more flexible when you move into associated industrial situations (which, by the way, are feasible funding sources for projects which are going to be necessary and desperately needed.)]

More important, and, in a shocking acknowledgement of the real intent behind the program, "Whoever, in any matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or Agency of the United States should falsify, conceal or covers up pertinent information shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than five years." What gives here? Bankers, at most, simply deny a shaky refinance deal...but, fine and imprisonment?

In the rush to gain write-downs of debt, the farmer gives up by contract not only his freedoms, but all the privileges granted to him by not only the U.S. Constitution but also his right of foreclosure granted him pursuant to his various loan agreements which, in turn, are protected by state statute. The farmer, then, also forgives his lawyers, his financial advisors, the courts as well as the FmHA for all of their wrongs, liabilities and misdeeds. Failing all of this, our government can now reposition the hapless producer so he can go to jail. Some already have.

This is pretty serious stuff. How can a criminal interpretation be made by our own benefactors, the FmHA and various United States agencies or departments, which come to do good but, instead, do very well? The various settlement programs for delinquent farm borrowers consist of an Application for FmHA Services (Form FmHA 410-1) which contains requirements for the borrower to reveal cash income, cash expenses, operating expenses, family living expenses, crop production expenses, livestock production expenses, capital disclosures, refinance costs, loan fees and other cash-flow projections. FmHA 410-1 also makes the borrower confess to any involvement with planting, growing, producing, harvesting or storing of a controlled substance, i.e. drugs. Truly, all FmHA borrowers are invited aboard a romantic sunset sail.

The financial statement—as of the date of his "application"—amounts to nothing more than a guessing game in which any mistake can be interpreted at the option of the FmHA as a falsification, concealment or a cover-up of a material fact, a fictitious or fraudulent statement or simply a misrepresentation leading to the $10,000 fine or five years in the crowbar hotel. What a voyage the farmer can take by being a mere volunteer.

You then might ask, "How can I be refinanced or get any kind of debt relief without making some kind of a confession?" The answer is best contained in another question: "Why make confessions when the chance of error is disproportionately exorbitant to the benefits hopefully gained?" Furthermore, you may want to ask, "Why give strangers my property with a willing and written approval without consideration let alone due process of law? Why, furthermore, self impose unilaterally a criminal possibility leading to substantial fines and imprisonment beyond my control?" Even private bankers are not so crass!

The Farm and Home Plan (FmHA 431-2) is also enclosed in the application package for the luckless producer who again seeks relief. The borrower must make still another confession of the same kind of repeat information. Why again? Must such a rearrangement of the factual data be set forth for the benefit of the FmHA, or is it pure harassment just to trip up the borrower? Crops, feed on hand, livestock to be sold, growing crops, acreage estimates, costs per acres, supplies, prepaid expenses, all must be reiterated. Woe unto the borrower if he does not regurgitate the data on Form FmHA 431-2 identical to that exposed by him on said Form 410-1. To confirm, whether or not the borrower, indeed, is disclosing the truth, and nothing but the truth, in writing and certified, the borrower confesses to a debt repayment plan which, in turn, is verified by a Request for Statement of Debts and Collateral (Form FmHA 440-32), to which his creditors, without consideration, must respond. And, if all that is not enough to create grounds for mistakes, errors or inappropriate confessions, the borrower must then file an Application for Settlement of Indebtedness (FmHA 1956-1) which goes through the same exercise in futility. FmHA 1956-1, of course, is set up in a different format but still seeks to know the borrower's private affairs, his living expenses, indebtedness to government and other financial disclosures, this time all combined into still another form of balance sheet. We now have cross forms which set forth current farm assets, intermediate and long term farm liabilities. Again, the borrower must sign a statement he did not lie, cheat, steal, transfer or pillage his own property, yet alone falsify any of the paperwork. If the borrower should get a write-off from the FmHA, the borrower by virtue of his own honesty permits the FmHA to report any written-off indebtedness as income to the IRS, bankruptcy provisions notwithstanding.

You would think the graciousness and gratuity of the "promise" of any writedown would be just that. But, there is none. Nothing. When it comes to making farmers confess, the government knows no bounds. Not only does the Settlement of Indebtedness set the borrower up for an IRS audit but it ends up rewriting old loan obligations (without the release of indebtedness incurred by them). Yet more commitments, more promissory notes and more paper to make more repayments in accordance to new installment schedules are guaranteed by this form to be generated by the government's industrious and greedy lawyers. The mysterious and dangerous part of this commitment for such a nebulous promise is the inability of the producer to examine beforehand any of the sale and leaseback papers, promissory notes and lien obligations to be mush-roomed forthwith. If noncompliance to any of the terms and conditions of FmHA 1956-1 by the applicant should occur at any time, a rollover of his property to FmHA is committed and all without guarantees on the part of FmHA to give the borrower a write-down.

You may think, "Enough is enough!" But, alas, no! Along comes a Financial and Production Farm Analysis Summary (Form FmHA 1960-12) which requires reiteration of the prior confessions only this time by loan types. Worst of all, up pops a revelation of "other" borrowers who may have been involved in various farm loans of yours. The problem is, none of the statements which are made by these creditors are certified. The payments made to them, the income received and other factors, any one of which can be used to incriminate the borrower who, indeed, has certified the veracities of the numbers.

Form FmHA 1960-12 finally sets forth a confessional recapping a five year production and yield analysis which data already exists in a local county extension office. You better beware your analysis matches the "correct and authorized" one at the county office. Otherwise allegations of a cover-up will certainly be lodged against you. At best, your "application" can be then denied. When that happens, which is always the case (except for the rich and famous) the borrower has set sail, volunteered a plea bargain via a pointless confession to gain nothing but walk the plank for a dunking of his lifetime, and a keel-hauling to boot.

The Notice of the Availability of Loan Service and Debt Settlement Programs for Delinquent Farm Borrowers proved to be just that. As noted above, the Notice did operate to make a confessor out of each borrower, but, surprisingly, did not contract away the ownership of the farm. The old FmHA programs did just that at the application stages. The new FmHA program reserves any takeovers until and after FmHA causes another anticipated default. The FmHA reluctantly leaves that little gem of discouragement for you when it might approve your request for debt relief. The escape clause for the Feds is still an optional feature for FmHA. The confessionals by the farmer to this point permit the Feds to determine whether or not you have sufficient equity or net worth making it worthwhile for them to steal, pillage or confiscate your land without the obstacle of foreclosure action.

In other words, the "application" has amounted to nothing more than establishing a certifiable and documented confessional to determine whether or not you are worth saving for future plucking or if you have enough assets now to make it worthwhile for them to salt you away. Only via your confessions under certified contractual arrangements can such a determination be firmly established. Time limitations are therefore imposed upon all the delinquent borrowers to assure a speeding up of the deep-six procedure.

PURPOSES

As set forth in the "purposes" behind the primary and preservation loan service and debt settlement programs, a presumption is raised that you do not, as a borrower, own your farm. No producer who holds a deed to his land should be led to believe he is not the owner of his land even though there may exist various liens or encumbrances clouding his title. The farmer, the rancher, the fruit grower is still the owner. Neither the FmHA, FCA and/or any other lender owns the land. Those entities cannot acquire such title until you sign it away via a bonafide deed. Yet, when you apply for the aforesaid servicing you are led to believe the FmHA is your blessed benefactor and you, without being given one penny of consideration, must forego your statutory rights to foreclosure by completing the "application" and be willing to submit a deed to the FmHA to gain debt servicing benefits when the loan is consummated.

[H: Please don't get bogged down in the "above" for it too is erroneous in concept. IF YOU CAN HAVE YOUR PROPERTY "TAKEN" BY TAX LIABILITIES AND OR ANY OTHER METHOD "OUTSIDE" YOUR CONTROL—YOU DO NOT "OWN" ANYTHING. Further, you will find the same TYPE of limitations and requirements on ANY "loans" offered by the government—free or low-interest, etc. It is purely and simply a basic set-up also followed by the Resolution Trust Corporation to confiscate commercial and housing properties FOR THE BANKS AND BANKSTERS!]

Just what have you really accomplished by going through the various stages of this confessional:

1. The Application (FmHA Form 410-1) is not set up as an application for any services, even though it is captioned as one. As stated above the form is arranged to make you show what property you own, what your sex is, your nationality, and disclose if you have a criminal background. The form is rife with warnings to you when and if you should lie, steal or cheat and provides for your voluntary participation in the government's monitoring of your actions. This is a right the Feds never had over you before you entered into this contract. Nowhere in the application is there a solicitation for any assistance whatso-

ver. [H: Further, it is set up and structured so that the government can lie, cheat, steal and misrepresent until hell freezes and there is not so much as notary seal required on their part!]

2. Further, you release to strangers pursuant to "Statement Required by the Privacy Act (Form FmHA 410-9)" your Social Security Account or Federal Identification Number and other personal matters obtainable by any law enforcement agencies, employers, businesses, landlords, creditors, their credit reporting agencies and any other party or entity the FmHA decides you may be worthy of inspection. These interested parties can be, of course, your business competitors, or even the general public as a whole.

3. Further, your Farm and Home Plan (FmHA 431-2) commits the borrower to discuss with the FmHA any important changes that may become necessary and again reemphasizes that it is a federal crime to make a false statement. Your imagination can run wild thinking about the potentialities of FmHA employee collusions or otherwise to gain access to your property rights and privacy information. (Have you ever had a verbal dispute with your County Supervisor?) Yet, to this point, no proposed borrower has even applied for any relief for assistance (as he may believe he has) but, has only confessed his net worth, the way and with whom he lives and, otherwise, gives outright strangers access to everything he should hold dear.

4. Further, the Request for Statement of Debts and Collateral (Form FmHA 440-32) amounts to a release by the borrower to the FmHA the extent of any debts outstanding to any creditor, payment history and the amount of security encumbering the borrower's real and/or personal property. A certification as to its privileges to invade a borrower's rights is printed on FmHA 440-32 but is worthless because there is no provision for any government agent to sign it. You indeed make a commitment, under oath. Why cannot you hold the government to the same criteria?

5. Further, the Request for Verification of Employment (Form FmHA 1910-5) goes deeper into the borrower's privacy than a simple request for verification implies. If the borrower does not permit his salary and other past or present data be disclosed to a nameless and faceless FmHA, a basis for loan settlement rejection can be established.

6. Finally, and not until an actual Application for Settlement of Indebtedness (Form FmHA 1956-1) is offered, has the borrower made any overture for assistance. The borrower then commits to pay FmHA a specified sum of money as his consideration for consideration of settlement, but the FmHA commits to nothing. The "application" is unilateral and moot. It is nothing more than a confessional to undercut the privacy of the borrower. It simply sets up the groundwork to evade the borrower's rights to foreclosure. It stages the foundation to deprive the borrower of his ownership rights in his own real and personal property. It identifies that property. The proposed borrower comprises everything, the FmHA comprises nothing.

In the remote chance a delinquent borrower wins approval of any debt settlement (however, only the rich and famous get such debt relief) the new promissory notes, deeds, assignments and bills of sale securing the ownership positions of the FmHA will surely separate the borrower from his property. The new paperwork will leave the debtor in a worse financial position than if he simply went through the statutory rights granted to him via the foreclosure laws. The borrower also retains his rights to sue lawyers, the FmHA and the others who sold him out during the previous years of "assistance", by not seeking this debt settlement scheme.

FORECLOSURE

Foreclosure was devised by our various legislatures to protect the vested equity of borrowers from theft by lenders. Foreclosure statutes were mandated to assure the borrower retains certain rights alluding to that equity and other interests to stop organized assaults and willing surrenders by unknowing borrowers, without due process of law. Assets of such borrowers must not be rearranged to be picked off like ripe plums in the summer's sunshine!

Borrowers, beware! Do not mediate, sell, sign or abandon your property and your personal rights. You state: "What now? I want to believe FmHA and my government allow me good and real privileges to reorganize my affairs to enable me to begin to adjust my debt."

The solutions proposed by FmHA are not that. They simply amount to confessions by you setting up your property for confiscation by people who did not earn it, till it, repair it or simply maintain it. Your preparation of these "application" papers give the FmHA an open sesame to all of your property, including your appreciation interests and hard-earned equity.

Your course of action is to recognize the problem for what it is—the manipulation by nonowners of your ability to freely and openly market your production without trade restrictions benefiting nonowners and obstructing your access via unfair price structuring of your own production. Worst of all, your indebtedness was magnified by your inability to control your lender's ability to interfere with your cash-flow via its strength to control your interest rates, your repayment schedules and its right to call in your demand notes for little or no reason. This permits a lender a license to collapse your operations when the regulated price of your commodities unfairly cannot meet your production costs, including interest payments.

Such "confiscatory-pricing" privileges put any borrower at a severe disadvantage. The programs of the various Farm Acts promulgated by FmHA do not even attempt to address the inequities of the situations foisted upon the borrowers.

The ship No Hope does continue to ply various ports of call to take aboard all who purchase fares on counsel of lawyers, accountants and other hand-holding advisors (PrairieFire, various farm unity coalitions and ecumenical ministries), all of which are undisciplined. The FmHA sunset cruise does sail through uncharted and troubled waters. You need not buy passage to save the family farm via such waybills as presented in the settlement programs enumerated above.

Until FmHA quits acting as a collection agent for banks via the devious schemes proposed above, which are nothing more than "sting" operations, the mass emptying of our countryside will continue. Huge grants of land will also disappear from our tax rolls, further deepening the cash flow crunch for counties, state and federal coffers. Only when the FmHA starts to really assist its borrowers by promoting programs which can permit them to approach meeting their costs of production by way of a fair and protected parity pricing structure can the true and honest function of the various farm acts be realized.

END OF QUOTING

I get the feeling that you possibly may have misunderstood my statement as to the ability of "businesses" to gain goodly funding, especially for start-up, if related to farm or home products. As you noted in the article above—there are so many FORMS and BRANCHES of this operation that sorting is all but impossible for the novice. The above is written by an insightful Business Management Counselor, in Boise, Idaho. P.O. Box 3455. Zip: 83703-0455. Telephone 208-343-2763 (For you who may wish to thank him or blast him for we get used to either.)

Next we have a simultaneously run article from Acres U.S.A. regarding the subject just covered.

QUOTING:

Four years ago, Acres U.S.A. told farmers not to complete the forms FmHA sent to borrowers of record shortly after the election and before Christmas. [H: Shades of rerun?]

There were about 300 farm publications in the U.S. at the time. These ranged from large monthly magazines to quarterly news sheets. Almost all echoed FmHA's advice in favor of the farmer completing the forms—if they touched the subject at all. Many of the quarterly news sheets could not take a stand because their next publication date was too far away. Only one farm publication came out against completing the forms. This was Acres U.S.A. Here the editor analyzed the forms and concluded that the government was asking the farmer to sign away all of his legal and constitutional rights in and out of court in favor of FmHA. A quiet claim deed was cleverly hidden in the packet, and this document conveyed title to the farmer's property. Many farmers failed to see the legal significance of this document until it was too late. The Acres U.S.A. editor recommended that the farmers not fill out the forms and instead take their chances in and out of court.

This brought FmHA and the groups it had suckered into supporting the agency up fighting from their chairs. Acres U.S.A. and its editor were both denounced, many of these denouncements being orchestrated by FmHA and by private groups that should have known better. Farmers' Legal Action Group of St. Paul, Minnesota lashed out at Charles Walters with a news release circulated to the farm press, radio and TV stations, and metro dailies. It told how "nationally recognized lawyers", meaning Jim Massey and Dale Reesman, had denounced as "false" and "misleading" the advice offered to financially distressed farmers by Acres U.S.A. Massey urged farmers to ignore Walters and bring legal action against him based on having followed the journal's advice to their detriment. On the other hand, Family Farmers Foreclosure Legal Assistance Program (FFFLAP) ran a survey of foreclosed farmers. In cases involving lending institutions, large corporations, or the government, fully 98% of the individuals lost. At least 97% of those who engaged legal talent, opined that they had been betrayed by their lawyer and handled unfairly and illegally by the courts.

Some religious leaders were appalled that Acres U.S.A. would challenge the government. Some name-calling resulted. Nevertheless, Congressional Research Service revealed that FmHA had packages with the names of some 83,000 farmers on them. The agency had no intention of rewriting more than 16,000 borrowers. This meant that 67,000 farmers were to be administratively foreclosed and put out of business and off of their property. This may be the largest and saddest foreclosure ever in the history of the world. And only one farm paper and one editor foresaw and warned against this danger. [H: Chelas, why must the ones who serve the greatest be the ones to be put down, insulted, abused and efforted at destruction? Could it be because the "anti-Christ" is at work in all of these massive coverings? It is time to stop joining the ranks of "rock slingers" and get on with reading the fine print of your execution papers.]

As soon as FmHA made its announcement, various private groups joined the yammering on where farmers could get the forms filled out. The forms were complicated beyond any reason. Over 70 documents were involved. They appear to have been designed to obfuscate the scheme that the government was hatching.

Almost on signal, various boiler rooms opened to help farmers "comply". Many charged as much as $2,500 to fill out the complicated forms. Farmers who were skinned by these shysters were already impoverished due to the collapse of the farm economy. Now they were fleeced out of what little they had in order to "comply" with the government's request.

Some of these boiler operations even staged public signing events, which the press covered like fleas on a dog. Farmers who signed and returned the forms were made out to look like they had twice the mentality of Albert Einstein. In actuality they signed away their farm operations, which could now be foreclosed administratively.

The 1992 foreclosure scenario features a modified agenda because the enclosure is supported by the likes of Senator Paul David Wellstone of Minnesota, who should know better. Farm producers are again buried in misinformation and will certainly—by willing transfer—give up their life investments.

Half of the notice proposal is made up of details explaining loan servicing intentions, application procedures and what forms are included in the package. The rest of the package consists of the forms which require the farmer to divulge what he has earned, will earn and what he presently owns. The disclosures are required so as to enable the FmHA (and others who will profit by the proposed transfers) to know exactly the assets of the farmer. None of the forms this time create the transfers. Such transfers are presumably reserved for the "lucky" farmers who do get their refinancing packages approved. At that time the hapless victim gets his debt "adjusted" so he can continue to farm and "the FmHA will receive a better recovery on the money" or that "victim" who may lose his land to FmHA gets his farmland and/or his home "back" "through an option to buy". The farmer only gets a choice of the weight of the millstone being tied to his ankle.

[H: Or the size of the noose around his neck! The reason I take the time and space to run this is because once again you are at the same identical set of circumstances as four years ago—right to the "timing" and elections. Moreover, there has been an assault against farmers with everything from flooding, drought, contamination and, of course, fruit flies and white flies and on and on and on—which will require help if the "farm is to be saved".

The same "benefits" of losing everything are built into all programs of the government these days—and you MUST HAVE A RIGHT TO KNOW. I CAN ONLY OFFER INFORMATION, YOU MUST BE AWARE AND MAKE YOUR OWN DECISIONS AS THESE OFFERS OF HELP ARE GOING TO POUR ALL OVER YOU UNWARY ONES CAUGHT IN TROUBLES BEYOND YOUR CONTROL. PONDER IT MOST CAREFULLY, PLEASE.]

END OF QUOTING

May you be given into the seeing and may you accept the hand offered in order to help sustain you in goodness and freedom—may GOD walk this road with you. Hatonn to clear—Salu.

Slips Of Insight On The News Scene

10/9/92 #1 HATONN

COINCIDENCE OR CONFIRMATION?

In the area of Long Beach (Wilmington, Los Angeles, California) at about 8:45 P.M. last evening came an explosion in a Texaco oil refinery that was felt intensely for some ten miles and notable for over 20 miles distant. THIS is not the important part of the story, however, for we don't even need go into what caused the blast or what this incident indicates. It is that which would only be heard on the airwaves ONCE, which is important.

ON LOCAL RADIO: SAFETY PERSONNEL

A couple of hours after the blast a "safety engineer" who "floats" and has a high position in Texaco "finally" got through on the phone lines to a local channel covering the explosion. He gave his name (I won't because he has enough problems today I would guess) and he said this was "...an accident ready to happen". There had been several small explosions in the complex which "blew" and, at least, personnel were on alert and it could only be hoped that the warnings had paid off. The man said he and his safety crew had hounded Texaco to do something and invest the money to secure the installation. They had refused to do so on the basis that "it was expected that there would be a massive earthquake or some kind of major disaster in the area BY DECEMBER, PROBABLY BY MID OCTOBER and therefore repairs and shoring-up NOW would simply be negated within weeks."

The man was questioned graciously and then had to be released so that the "station" could go to live copter scenes. He was asked if he would speak again—and agreed; he did not, however, have a repeat opportunity. When queried by other callers they were told that "time limitations" prevented any follow-up of individual callers.

I suggest you think about this VERY CAREFULLY for projections have come from several sources (not me) that the 12th would be SABO (San Andreas Big One).

You will also note that the price of oil on the market, went UP due to the "explosion". This is as if one fire in one part of one refinery would affect the entire world fuel supply! Pay attention and perhaps you will make it through.

SECOND THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

In all the hoopla nonsense about the Clinton/Moscow trip and Bush's lips moving again—did you HEAR WHAT HE SAID? (Clinton was a college youngster taking a mid-season break vacation. I have no comment about the trip for that is not what is in point here.) Bush went on about "supporting" the enemy by visiting and somehow taking part in anti-war demonstrations, "...our enemy. ... and when I think about those prisoners of WAR (ours) sitting in a prison camp—I am appalled and cannot accept this man as Commander-in-Chief of the United States military command!" "OUR PRISONERS OF WAR?? WHAT PRISONERS OF WAR, MR. PRESIDENT?? YOU JUST MOVED YOUR LIPS AGAIN AND I THINK PERCHANCE TRUTH ERUPTED! EVIL WILL ALWAYS "WEAR A CLUE" AND TRUTH "WILL ALWAYS OUT" FOR THE "SLIP IS ALWAYS JUST BEYOND THE LIPS"!

EARTHQUAKES

By the way, at about the same time last evening as the Texaco refinery blast occurred—the whole of California gave a "shudder" from one end to the other. It was not noted on the news but is worthy of your attention.

BANCA NAZIONALE DEL LAVORO

Not a good week? It isn't for a lot of people from here to Rome. The Italians do not like being blamed for the indiscretions of the Mafia and the U.S. Administration. The Italians are, right now, starting an in-depth investigation of the BNL scandal. I wouldn't hold my breath if I were you because the Italian nation is far worse off than is the crime-ridden U.S. but it has stirred the pot and it looks like Henry (Gonzalez) will find other fodder for his fire. It is now noted on "both shores" that the culprits are predominantly from Kissinger Associates.

This comes on pretty good information: Dr. Giuanearlo Voltri. Dr. Voltri is an Italian court auditor who is in the United States specifically to look into the BNL scandal. I would guess that if he finds anything too amiss, the Mafia with its reputation of daring deeds, will not allow too much to hit the public in its untampered form. So be it.

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER ENTERS WEAVER/HARRIS DEFENSE

The Constitutional Law Center is entering the case of Weaver/Harris (The "Idaho Standoff" Incident). Contacts with legal counsel have been made and action plans are getting under way. There will need to be a lot of public support and do be sure and continue contact with Weaver and Harris. I am sure this will be welcome information for them—unfortunately they don't get much information from inside.

The attorneys' for the two are ecstatic over the entry of the CLC because "...there is no such thing as 'common law' or Constitutional consideration given in Idaho—anywhere—and under no circumstances can WE change it but maybe you can open a few eyes and ears." They are very grateful for the help because it is obvious that this was and is a total "railroad job" from start on the mountain to the courtroom. All is being done to get Gritz tied up in this mess and keep him occupied while the final election "fixes" are put to bed. You will have to make an even louder outcry than in Idaho if you wish to see a change.

Also, The Constitutional Law Center is being asked to see what they can do to get Gritz into the "presidential debates" starting in San Diego. What odds do YOU give? Salu.

Reminder From Soltec: The Adversary Is A Sneaky Dude

10/10/92 SOLTEC

Soltec present in the light of Holy God. I come in service unto and with the Host of Heaven.

There is much concern on the part of many regarding the upcoming weekend and especially Monday, October 12, 1992, also observed as your Columbus Day. What will occur? Your guess is as good as ours; however, I would guess that it shall come and go and you shall not note anything. This will not mean that nothing has taken place. Remember, just because you see it not or hear it not does not mean that it has not occurred, as your communications networks are totally controlled. This does not mean that on the 13th or 15th nothing will take place. One of the tricks of the Adversary is to allow something to "leak" out, such as a date, to divert the attention and when that time comes and passes everyone breathes a sigh of relief and becomes complacent again and says, "well, I guess Hatonn or Soltec didn't know what they were talking about." Then a few days later, boom; there you go, just when you had become comfortable again and you are caught with your pants down! Do not forget that they will discredit the Truth at every opportunity, even if it means they must change their plans!

You can also bet on the fact that if a fully televised "alien invasion" takes place and dominates the news that something even more dastardly is taking place behind the scenes and the staged "invasion" is to divert your attention. Do not be fooled by what the eyes are given to see.

Last week Kilauea in Hawaii erupted again, signaling renewed activity of that volatile Pacific Plate. Yes, Kilauea erupts somewhat regularly and this is nothing new. However, just after its eruption of last week, a mild earth tremor was felt in Arizona! Most people would not have even noticed this little shuddering, but it did occur. This should be an indication to you of just how much energy is released from within your Earth. Is this a normal thing? That all depends upon your perception of normal. For the stage your Earth is in, it is quite normal, taking into consideration all that is presently happening and all that has happened in the past. Just how much abuse and assaulting and messing with "Mother Nature" can the planet endure? Planets are pretty tough entities, but even the tough have their limits and Earth is just about to reach hers. Are your bungies in place, Chelas?

Did you know, for instance, that in Sedona, Arizona, in the Boynton Canyon area that some very interesting things have just recently occurred? All the areas to the south of Boynton have now been closed to public access. About the only accessible area is the resort at Boynton, which is of course a cover for the underground activities which take place. This closure is not for the purpose that you have been told; that being "to preserve the pristine wilderness." It is to keep you-the-citizens out so that all the dark forces can come and go at will without detection. It is really a sadness to see what has happened to that absolute beautiful place of red rocks. The Native Americans mourn over the desecration of one of their most sacred places.

Earth changes are going to take place due to activities both manmade and natural. Man will get the ball rolling, so to speak, and then allow Nature to take its course. He has messed with everything from your atmospheric conditions to the electromagnetic grid, not to mention the constant pulsing on your fault lines. As we have stated over and over again, the closer to your year 2000 you get, the more accelerated the activities will become. I suggest you hold on tightly, because you are in for a rough ride. However, if you intend to get beyond these things it is necessary to go through them. Will it be unpleasant? Yes, indeed. But, will you grow from the experiences? Absolutely! That is the reason most of you are here right now. Growth on your level seldom comes without pain in one form or another. It is usually through unpleasant experiences that the greatest lessons are learned. This is not meant to be harsh—it is given only as a reminder.

In Iowa, for example, there has now been so much rain that the crops are rotting in the fields because it is too wet to go in and harvest the corn. You may sit back now and think that this is in Iowa and you live in New Jersey, so it doesn't affect you. Oh, is that so? Your silos are empty now, precious ones, and they will not be filled this harvest season. That is going to create shortages and even higher prices in the supermarkets come 1993. So do not be so ill informed to think that because it takes place 2,000 miles away from you that it shall not touch you. Your world is a very small place and what takes place in South Africa on the other side of the globe will have an effect upon you in Montana. Remember, Mr. Bush has "globalized" you and your surpluses have been shipped to Russia, leaving you without.

You are also about to lose commercial sources for natural herbs and homeopathic remedies. The purpose in this is two-fold. One, people have, in recent years, been rediscovering the value of such treatments and the pharmaceutical companies are whining about getting their "fair share". So, once again, they lobbied and convinced your government that uncontrolled use of these wonders of nature are harming the people and should be controlled and dispensed only by practicing physicians. The real reason is there is big money to be made by these pharmaceutical companies from the natural remedies. The second reason, and even more heinous, is to get them out of the hands of the people because these remedies actually work! Remember, they are trying to keep you ill and by utilizing these natural methods people are becoming and remaining in good health.

Fortunately, many of these plants can be found growing in the wild and can be utilized, providing you know what you are doing. I would suggest that you do as this scribe has been guided to do and purchase as much printed material on the subject as you can put your hands on while it is still available and begin educating yourselves. (Yes, this means even more reading and learning!) It also means taking responsibility for selves. You need this information desperately. If it becomes controlled by the bureaucrats, there will be nothing "natural" about the concoctions. They will be replaced with chemical man-made compounds designed to kill you off. So, while you believe that you are taking something that is good for you, you will actually be swallowing poison. This planet was equipped with everything needed by its inhabitants, out most of the useful knowledge has been withheld from you. Dear God, you live in a nasty world!

Know that you can survive all that is in store, providing that is what you choose. If you did not have the ability, you would not be here in this experience. The choice you make is strictly between you and God. We cannot and will not make the choice for you, and no one else is able to either. Our hope is that you do survive, for our goal is to bring the family back together again. We want to see the fulfillment and completion of the mission and your participation in it.

At the risk of sounding redundant, I can only urge you to be informed and become as knowledgeable as is possible, and educate your children, for they are the hope of your future. These precious ones that are entering the world now need you more than ever before. It is your responsibility to teach them the truth and help them to know the true God. If you do not teach them Truth, your world will see to it that they are taught lies. They are enlightened little souls, but they do need guidance in order to discover their own light. Teach them well and the reward shall be great!

We shall close this writing. Take the time to go within and find your own strength and peace in these troubled times. You need your wits about you and you need all the strength you can get, physically, mentally and spiritually as you move on into yet another planned assault. I leave you with the blessings of God and of the Host. You are held ever dear.

Soltec to clear. Salu.

Nevada Corporations

ARE YOU PROTECTED FROM YOUR BUSINESS?

Today, owning a business under any structure other than a Corporation is risky. This lawsuit-crazy country has gone mad. The increase in lawsuits has caused insurance premiums to go through the roof and has pushed the prices of all consumer goods higher. It is the reason for the boom in the field of Safety Engineering, and the reason for the extended "transition" packages that companies are giving to their newly laid-off employees. It is likewise a big part of the reason that health care costs have become outrageous and the average American can't afford routine medical care. Will we see a drop in lawsuits in the future? Let's see: as college students begin their senior year, they take a look out into the job market. What they find is that jobs are getting more and more scarce. So these students, being young yet prematurely conservative toward risk, decide that it is best to stay within those safe confines of the higher education institutions. Many of those clever young individuals jump right into three years of Law School. Upon graduation, these new attorneys, having passed the Bar Exam, are added to the growing plethora of lawyers in this country. In the depression that this country is currently facing, these new lawyers have to find work and, more often than not, create it. Convincing people to sue one another seems to be an easy target for work. The judges, protecting their own fraternity, allow these crazy suits to be heard and allow huge awards to be handed down.

One lawsuit today can be enough to take a profitable business and send it into bankruptcy. These same suits, against your business, can go right through to you as an individual if your business is not incorporated. Your personal assets can be taken in order to cover whatever your business could not. A corporation stops suits against your business before they get to you. If your business is incorporated, your personal liability is usually zero, especially in Nevada where the courts want to develop pro-corporate case law to attract new business to their state.

So, why would any business not incorporate? As usual, many misconceptions exist about incorporating that steer people from the intelligent path. Accountants often still believe that a business has to have a certain level of income before it should consider incorporating. Then there are those who believe that you should not incorporate because of double taxation (this is where the profit of the corporation is taxed and then the income paid from a corporation to the individual is taxed). This is easily done away with by taking out all corporate profits as personal income. In this case there would be no corporate tax due.

The reasons people have for not incorporating a business go on and on and don't make a lot of sense. Why anyone would risk taking on personal liability for their business, when they can never be sure where that next lawsuit will come from, is quite mysterious. In this country, where hanging on to what you have is becoming more and more challenging, people need to do all they can to keep themselves protected. Remember: your Corporation is a separate, legal entity that cannot be attached to you personally if you set it up correctly.

How To Praise God, The Infinite One

9/29/92 LORD MICHAEL, SANANDA
AND GERMAIN

Greetings, We are Lord Michael, Sananda and Germain. We have come to this scribe, Druthea, in service to Our Holy Father, God/Aton. This scribe asks many questions which many of you ones ask. We have come this day to bring solace unto you ones who ask for God's deliverance within your heart/soul place and who know not why you are worthy.

This one suffers in her own sadness wondering WHY she continues with her work when, in her consciousness, she believes she dislikes humanity. It is not HUMANITY you dislike, precious one, it is EVIL, and really, IGNORANCE, which allows evil to flourish, which you find abhorrent. It is difficult to face one's feelings of inadequacy when you feel so very tiny and powerless to truly bring the light of balanced example to others. This is why, precious ones, you must begin within self to face your own ignorance and immaturity—and then rise above them KNOWING that, WITH GOD IN YOUR HEART, HE WILL SHOW YOU HOW TO BE HIS EXAMPLE, THAT YOUR PRESENCE MAY PRAISE HIM IN GLORY AND BALANCE.

If you pray for peace and goodwill toward men, then what do you do in example of accomplishing peace and goodwill? If one presents as your "enemy" and denounces you, do you wish to destroy him? Can you love this "enemy" as you would your own child? Can you recognize WHY he would be threatened by you? What might he be afraid of? If you pray for UNITY, and your "enemy" prays for the same, how will you become the example if you cannot break down the wall of fear and distrust between you?

You ones, of God's Chosen messengers and keepers of the flame of Light and Truth, have accepted a tremendous responsibility that you will rise above human ignorance and evil projection and BE an example of one who walks the CHRISTED PATH. For if you refuse to do so, because it is your choice not to grow into maturity, then WHO will do it? HOW will you expect to awaken God's lost sheep when you do not allow presentation of HIS light through you?

We tell you precious students of life: you must gather the goodness which you recognize from all experience and accept the lessons which allow you the opportunity to test YOUR knowledge of God's Kingdom within you.

It is time for each representative of God, howsoever he or she presents self in religious format, to seek UNITY and BROTHERHOOD of the human species. For God has sent messengers to reach every one of HIS people the world over, and each one is sent to awaken certain ones who are ready to enter into Glory and Knowledge, and it is often that the messengers in human format are humbled for they find that they really KNOW so very little about THE DIVINE FATHER WITHIN.

God asks you not to turn away from those you disagree with in dogma and religious interpretation. YOU ARE ALL INTERPRETING WITH A FINITE MIND. And many are now receiving beyond finite mind directly from Creator. You ALL have this capability; most refuse to accept the possibility at this time. Perhaps it is through YOU that God will offer others a chance to grow beyond belief and into Knowledge.

Do you search for the differences in another? Most of you do so that you find reason to reject them. What do you have in common with one another? WE ask you ones who label selves Christian, Mormon, Muslim, Judaist, Buddhist, Native American, what have you in common? Are you willing to find out? Have you learned about the doctrines of these others and can you rise above the differences in dogma and practice and join hands with one another as children of GOD?

If you cannot become one in focus of brotherhood and equality under your Constitution very soon, then your TRUE enemy, the god of ignorance and confusion, will devour your world and those who become stuck to it in material illusion.

This is simple fact. You in America, as well as many other parts of the world, have become an amalgamation of many cultures, races and religions. Can you, by your efforts in this country, unite AMERICANS to reclaim your Constitution which allows you all freedom to worship and believe in or even KNOW GOD. You are even allowed to be an Atheist if you so choose. Can you not agree upon a nation, a world under GOD, under His laws of balanced living, which all souled beings are born knowing, whether or not they know or remember God within?

Each one of you has the opportunity to praise God daily. When you ask how to sustain in His service, He always shows you His way. You always make your choice. His messengers, of which there are many, human and in spirit form, each have a mission, not to CHANGE YOU OR THE WORLD, but to give you opportunity to change and adjust self in accordance with God's will working through you. And through each one will the world be transformed and humanity be reborn into knowing and living in cooperation, unity and balance. YOU each make that choice. Those who choose to honor one another will be honored. Those who seek unity and brotherhood and cooperation from heart intent, will live to experience this way of life.

It is the time of joining of the Mother and Father aspects of self, aspects of Father Creator and Mother Earth into cohesive unity and complement to each other. You who are mated in male/female sharing are responsible for sharing and finding balance with one another. You must honor each other and BE an example of cooperation, for when your two now separate sexes join together in common focus, YOU WILL SUCCEED in conquering adopted evil projection, instead of attempting to conquer one another.

It is time to complement, not conquer, and you who do so will witness miracles in your own comprehension.

We will close this document for now. Thank you precious, Dru, for sitting with us. Be patient, little one, the veil must not be lifted before you are ready, nor can we jeopardize our work together by releasing your memory before maturity of your understanding. You agreed, precious, to work in physical blindness of our presence for a time. Be not selfish for the work comes first and you are working in perfection of that which you agreed. A little willful, well, yes; simply temper your need, for Our Father's work must be fulfilled, and the trust and "faith" contained within. Verification is given you and you admit it is just not quite "enough." Soon it will be more than enough; this we promise you. So be it.

We are Lord (Archangel) Michael, Sananda and Germain. We have come in service to our Holy Lighted Creator, Our Divine ONE. Thank you for attending this document. May you find the peace in your hearts that only giving can bring you. Good day and Salu.

fourthly, as usual, Columbus didn't kill ANYBODY. Why in the world take exception to that which is a stupid "celebration" reached for by the elusive world thieves while ignoring anything that could change the nation into a worthwhile "free" state? You innocent lambs play into the hands and plans for distraction and subversion at every opportunity! These actions will cost you dearly during the next few years—IF there ARE a "next few years".

EARTHQUAKE IN CAIRO?

You do realize don't you, that the great pyramids are in full sight of Cairo? This quake was also described as "...the worst quake to ever hit the area". (??) Moreover, it was not a big quake unless they change the numbers.

PRESIDENTIAL DEBATE

This is the most important thing to watch—not the debates but the response to the debates.

Immediately after last evening's debate Clinton had a walk-away according to the networks. However, today on CNN you will note that Perot was given a great deal of top billing and it was "rather decided" that maybe Perot "won". Note the next observation as presented by the announcers: "...it appeared that Perot backed Bush more than he did Clinton in his "off the cuff responses", even though it was obvious he was "efforting to keep off either side". Oh? Could it be that the top bananas know the danger of the Clinton camp with the backing of the WORLD MANIPULATORS who would fall into line on the top row front of a Clinton "win"? This is going to turn into a very interesting turn of events—so keep posted and by all means go back and read the description of early-on plans for just such an "emergency"!

GET READY

Within the past 24 hours a Delta rocket with satellite was launched from Cape Canaveral and simultaneously came the announcement that the "Communications Grid" for extraterrestrial search is going to be activated to coincide with Columbus' discovery of America and other hogwash.

They are simply getting ready with equipment, and YOU ready to accept, that which will be coming down in the next few weeks. The "authorities" state that it is expected that full communications from extraterrestrials will "...come in on a very narrow 'artificial' frequency!" What in the world is an "artificial" frequency? That is exactly like saying you are "just a little bit pregnant". You are either pregnant or you are not! You either have a "frequency" or you do not! Artificial? Well, whatever the traffic will allow!

We are heard loud and clear in as many languages as there are people using a language. YOU are the dupes and my, how they do laugh at you—to the point they don't even bother to give you good stories—they deliberately feed you total B.S. to see how much they can get away with and play their games and tricks on you. These get sillier and more "far-out" because you will take ANYTHING they dish out without a whimper or a notice.

DISCOVER AMERICA

What, also, is the foolishness over Christopher Columbus discovering America? He didn't, in the first place; in the second place, it was not in the area of the U.S.; and thirdly, he is now given credit by the Native Americans as having murdered "thousands of Indians". Well they aren't "Indians", they are "Humans" and represent the native population of the Americas; and

CALLED TO SERVE

BY JAMES "BO" GRITZ

This is the definitive account of a nation betrayed. A spider web of "patriots for profit," operating from the highest positions of special trust and confidence, have successfully circumvented our Constitutional system in pursuit of a New World Order. They have infused America with drugs in order to fund covert operations while sealing the fate of our servicemen left in Communist prisons.

At the very least this book represents a factual, true-life adventure that will take you on a riveting journey from the White House, down a heroin highway, to Burma's Golden Triangle where you will meet General Khun Sa - undisputed drug overlord. You will infiltrate the jungles of Communist Asia to rescue U.S. POWs, and in turn be pursued. You'll be taken behind the veil of U.S. covert operations to view deceit and betrayal. At best, this will produce a crack in the facade of 20th-century American government, through which concerned citizens can view the looming peril and act in time to reserve our course while God gives us time.

"It's not just the title of my book, it's the purpose of my life." -Bo Gritz of the "debates" fully expect lawsuits over not even giving mention to other candidates of other parties or independents—but "...we can tie it up in court until after the fact of election—so go ahead and sue!" The cost of the TV time is being paid by the brewers, Anheuser Busch, a Khazarian One Worlder brewery. They won't even talk to the Law Center about it, stating that "... they don't have anything to do with speakers—WE JUST PAY THE BILLS!"

If this is not a "free public debate", then does this not represent massive political "contributions" to "special interest politics"? Was this not billed as a forum for "informing the public"? Well, this is NOT what youze gets. You got orchestrated political action committee "sell-out-buy-out". There were a lot of things about the debates that you were not told perhaps? Ponder it.

DEATH AND DYING: COURTESY OF NAVAL INTELLIGENCE

You are watching depopulation in action in many nations around the globe now. Typhus which seems to be "unresponsive to any drug" is sweeping across nation after nation, as is Hepatitis B.

NOW, LET'S LOOK AT THE U.S. NAVY STATED GOAL: THE AIDS VIRUS IS TO INFECT 75% OF THE WORLD'S POPULATION BY 1995! Why the Navy? Because U.S. Naval Intelligence is THE crown jewel of the

One World Order. The facts are that the Naval Intelligence group is THE way that your Ft. Knox gold was shipped out of the United States and into the Banksters' banks and vaults and as payment to dear little Israel! Its time you open your eyes and ears, put down the stones and get off your assets!

Inoculation for Hepatitis will soon become mandatory and THAT is how the introduction of AIDS into the American population started in the first place—through laced vaccine.

Another thing that you ARE NOT TOLD, is that HIV I, one form of "AIDS", has been airborne in Southeast Asia for a great number of years!

Will you continue to fiddle while the world burns? We shall see.

Randy Weaver Thank You Letter

Kissinger's Trap For Weaver And Gritz

10/10/92-T HATONN

(Editor's note: The following discussion was transcribed from a meeting audio tape and is appropriate preamble to a warm note THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR recently received from Randy Weaver.)

I want to express appreciation for everyone, to everyone who has supported and corresponded with Randy Weaver and Kevin Harris in Idaho. Rick has a letter from him. My prayer would be to Father that all of you listen to it very carefully. Doesn't matter what you call God. When given in the expression of intent to reach God, you reach Him. And there's a great appreciation for Randy and great appreciation from him. But before Rick reads the letter, I feel compelled to say some other things in reference to the incident in Idaho.

You'll all note that over the past few days I've hit Henry Kissinger just about as hard and as persistently as I can. You're going to find that the order to take Randy Weaver, hold your breath, came directly from Henry Kissinger.

They had the man under surveillance, the family under surveillance for over 18 months with nothing happening except just the irritation of being surrounded. Ones came and went from Randy's place with supplies and to visit. Was no really big problem. And I'm having a little trouble with the Bo Gritz organization because they do not perceive all that I can perceive. And so, some of this is truly in error, in their vision. It is not in error. Bo Gritz was getting some attention, not the least of which was coming from our Command.

And Bush is not in charge of the government, not even as the President of your United States. Not even in that capacity. All power was taken from him. The Kissinger group is running your government. Now what do you do with somebody who is becoming a very big leech and thorn in your side? What do you do to get rid of him? You have to have an incident wherein you know that one will respond. Patriotically the man would respond, they knew that. There's also, in that location, some very incredibly important installations, both patriot and simple underground facilities set forth by your governments. And I said, governments.

You don't have a free world. In the early 80s, Kissinger and Associates, Brzezinski, were in the process of taking over all the operations and governmental instructions for the United Nations control of places like New Zealand and Australia. You can look these up. Look up Anzus [Australia-New Zealand-United States coalition]. I don't want to go into these things again, I've written on them. But I need to remind you of them. That you've had a full decade of Kissinger Associates commanding the advisory capacity to every nation. And they did exactly what would be required to pull Bo Gritz into that area so that, literally, as it got tighter and tighter, it was suggested to Randy that maybe he better get in touch with Bo Gritz. Randy did that, a couple of months before the incident, and he said, "I'm afraid, brother, I'm being set-up; could you come and help me?" Bo didn't go, he was busy. Well, when it got really bad on that mountain, Bo has spent a lot of hours in total remorse. So when the contact was made between he and McLamb, Bo says, "If I go, will you go with me?" "But of course," was McLamb's reply. "So we'll both go." But the trip itself was precipitated by the FBI calling Bo wondering if there was something he could do. Now where do you think that came from?

The full intent was to be able to create an incident of some kind that would allow them to take out both Randy and Bo. Because Randy holds other kinds of information. I gave you a senario that said, "What would it be if..." Remember Bo's trips into Southeast Asia? Mr. Kissinger was going to get hit very, very hard at the Congressional investigation, and did.

Kissinger lied through his teeth and he didn't do a very good job and Larry King didn't truly help him covering it up. Oh, Larry tried. But if you watched Mr. Kissinger in the Congressional interrogation, it wasn't anything like Larry King presented it. Mr. Kissinger sat there and lied over and over again, and they knew it. By the time it got spread and prattled out to the public, through something like Larry King's interview that evening, it was presented as having gone very well...except for one of the Senator Kerrys. That didn't go well at all. Henry was caught openly lying. But you see, it doesn't matter does it? There is that kind of power that it doesn't matter.

You're going to find that all of the bank incidents are completely orchestrated and run by Kissinger and Associates. It IS the global One World Order. And it's all but done. They had to back off; they didn't dare touch Bo Gritz. I won't go into all of that. But yes, I was there. I had quite a lot of say about it. And quite a lot of messages were carried back and forth. I want all of you to understand something: I don't care what you don't know about me, and/or Bo Gritz, and/or our relationship, or if we have none. I am not going to tell the world everything that I know and jeopardize the very people who will lead you into either freedom or help you get on the right path so that we can meet somewhere.

There is a massive problem within the Bo Gritz organization. I take exception to quite a few of the things they do, but I'm not running his organization. I'm not running anything. But when the Adversary is going to deliberately take out one of my people and it's going to come down very heavily on my speaker, I won't sit still for it. And when they break the rules of the agreements of performance that we have made with the various administrations around your nations, I certainly will not sit still for it.

You ones go about touting God according to whatever you think you believe. Always that will be what you have been told. Once again, I'm not going to argue with anyone as to what you call This Being. Doesn't matter what you call Him. But you better make sure you do call Him. And you better remember, this is the Christed Creator. And I don't care what any man on the face of your globe tells you, you're going to follow those rules in intent or you're not going to go anywhere except down. I will not have permission just to take you up because you wanted one last fling and you wanted to go out with a smile on your face. You better go out with a smile and a prayer in your heart because you're getting damn close.

Will it come to a confrontation between me and Kissinger? It already has! This is a farce of a man. And you ones accepted this beast as an authority, an expert. He's nothing. But he is of the ones that plan to make a Master Race. And that means, get rid of all of you. Now isn't he a prime example of what you would like your master race to be like?! [Roar of Laughter]

They've now arranged to begin to have the hearings for Randy Weaver. Now, how long has it taken Dharma and Oberli, and they still have not had a hearing on their property...going on five years. And yet, Randy Weaver is coming up for trial on the 26th of October! It's only his life. It also takes Bo Gritz out of circulation at least through the time of the election, doesn't it? They would have done it sooner but they couldn't quite so blatantly break all the rules.

Well how much time does this give our group to work? And I refer to "our group" as the Constitutional Law Center. We do need some more paralegal help. But we also have to function with what we have. It's a time of hardship for everyone, and it's going to get harder. I don't care how many debates they have and how much they lie to you. We've got several Constitutional Law Center cases under consideration right now that don't have anything to do even with your contaminated water here in Tehachapi. They're trying to depopulate this world! So part of today is going to be spent in catching up with some things that may entice you to ask some questions, or just simply answer some. You don't need me, a voice from outer space somewhere.

You're going to find that Randy Weaver uses the term Yahweh for God. Well, what's so interesting about that? Dr. Bart uses the same term. Doesn't that make God a lesser God? No, it doesn't, but neither does it make every word in that Bible truth. It may be somebody's truth but it's not God's instructions. I don't care if you spend the rest of your life with blinders on with your head buried in that book. Please understand me, that is your privilege. It is not my privilege wherein it comes to the forefront and it's incorrect. Why is it that you will read that book and yet, when I speak of it, the lid comes down and the ears plug up. Because you are told not to question it! You are told from the time you are a child, if you are reared in the various churches. If you drifted away and suddenly you come back to be "reborn" in the evangelical movement, you adopt that information. Do you realize that you take it without question? Where better for the clever Adversary to feed you than where you take everything without question?!

Well, how can you know? Well, I tell you, you cannot read one LIBERATOR every third week and know what's going on. How can you know, for instance, that the infamous Pat Robertson is NOT on your team...unless you are on the Khazarian One World team? You can know because he set CNN's Ted Turner into business. He also just bought a major network from Ted Turner. Ted Turner has said, "Don't count on God and don't ask God, he ain't and he won't help you." And Mr. Turner didn't like the ten commandments and he wrote his own, the Turner Ten. Before they're done with the networks, Mr. Turner will run them all and you won't have noticed.

Pat Robertson is a fine speaker. The mere fact that he ran for President, being an evangelist, says that he had political intent. I didn't say patriotic intent. There was never any patriotism ever mentioned as his overall platform. Does this mean that you can't watch the 700 Club? Of course not, there's going to be some marvelous information come forth. This man is enlightened, in that inner circle, enough that he's going to give you bits and pieces that'll blow your socks off.

But he has done the same thing that Jerry Falwell did. He has gotten up on his platform and said, "I am a Zionist and I am proud to say that I am!" The Zionist movement is the Anti-Christ movement and I am sick and tired of God's own children claiming to be Christians and will not even take a stand for Christ. When you are called an anti-semite and a bigot and all you've done is say, "I don't believe in homosexuality, I believe in equal rights of at least the white brother to be able to go into college or get a job on the basis of skill and quality rather than just because I'm not black." Does that make you a hate-monger? This is the purpose of their lessons, to make you ashamed to be anything. Well I'm getting a little bit ashamed. For goodness sakes, they brow-beat you, they insult you. Isn't that Anti-Christ? You can't even be a Christian anymore if you don't be a born again, blood-covered "Christian" marching to Zion! Well Zion is NOT the City of God. Zion is a human, physical expression of a place where there will be global rule and you will practice the Laws of the fake Jews.

When Bo Gritz goes forth and he says "Christ," he's a white supremacist. And just the term sounds filthy. And then they send out the white supremacist groups to give you a real show and tell of what they're talking about. Do you think Christ ever acted like that in his entire experience, ever, on any plane? You don't have to go out and bear a cross up Calvary's mountain, but you're going to have to take a stand for goodness sakes. And that Bible, that everybody wants to quote to me, tells you that the messengers will come before the end...and I'm here. And I'm going to keep right on talking. Enough of you will hear.

Rick, please read us the letter that Randy wrote to you.

9/30/92

Dear Rick,

I have not counted them, but have received many, many letters of support (beautiful letters) from LIBERATOR subscribers. I thank you very much. Every day I get further behind in answering mail, but I'm not complaining.

Yahweh controls this whole situation. He set my family on a special path starting about 10 years ago. I know now why we see through a glass darkly. I know that Sam & Vicki [Randy's 13-year-old son, shot in the back, and Randy's wife, unarmed, shot in the head while holding their infant daughter, during The Idaho Standoff] would not have changed Yahweh's plans even if they could have. It sure would have been tempting for Kevin, the girls and myself though.

Sam & Vicki have yearned for a spiritual awakening in this country. Perhaps their passing will help to perpetuate such an awakening.

I've had a couple samples of your paper to read, very enlightening. I salute you in your endeavors.

Yahweh blesses you all.

'our Brother in the struggle,

Randy Weaver

Telephone Hotline Buckling Under Load

Dear readers,

When we first set up the PHOENIX LIBERATOR Hotline, we really didn't know what to expect as far as what the response would be from our readers and other friends. But it became apparent right quickly that the response was overwhelming as the poor little machine was always running!

Yes, we know that there are ones setting their alarm clocks to stumble out of bed at all hours of the night to dial...just one more time...to simply "get through" and also that there are ones coming down with acute fingeritis from pushing their redial button all the time.

Well, the two little squirrels running at full speed in our little answering machine are also worn to a frazzle. At this point, we would like very much to upgrade our equipment and add several phone lines. But alas, we have finally pulled the last available rabbit out of our hat just to get to this point in service to you.

We at THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR are barely keeping our heads above water, financially, and we simply do not have the resources to expand our Hotline Service at this time.

Our overworked little answering machine, with its stretched tapes and rapidly-wearing-out mechanism, was never designed to handle the load that is currently knocking on its door. We fully expect the thing to up and die of premature old age before much longer!

We have had many requests and suggestions as to how we can improve the Hotline Service. But, naturally, these all require substantial amounts of money. Meanwhile, the idea of using a 900 number simply does not appeal to us any way we look at the matter.

Our mission is to get the word out to the very best of our ability. We are doing all that we can while our resources have already been pushed well beyond any reasonable limits of performance. If the Hotline Service is going to be improved, this expansion will have to come from the kind resources of those, like you, who want it to happen.

Finally, we thank you for your humor, patience, comments, compliments, complaints and other assorted and often colorful suggestions as they enable us to better serve.

NORA'S RESEARCH CORNER

More Lessons In Words And Languages

Part IV And End Of Series

HEBREW/AKKADIAN

The following material has been gathered from numerous sources, most of them already mentioned, although none have organized it in this way before, as far as I know.

One of the problems I had, as a lay person, in reading, studying and understanding reports of archaeological finds as well as ancient writings, is the different spellings of words. It is hard to know who the people were who left the writing or artifacts, even after the scholar has set forth his/her research. One of the reasons for this ambiguity is that the original writers, as well as later scholars/authors, appear to have a choice of how they translate and/or interpret a word. Why is that? Part of it is that ancient people were mostly illiterate, making it necessary for the scholar to interpret. Another part is that various usages developed among the sister-tongues, which increased the problems. You will understand when you realize how often people were moved around and mixed together over our globe and especially in the Near East.

It was learned in the Tell El-Amarna digs that the Akkadian language (Northern Babylonian) was the lingua franca of the day. That means the "Hebrews" also spoke or wrote at least some version of Akkadian, and so did "Abraham"—although again—there were various usages (at least spoken) among the different sister tongues.

Further, it was learned that Akkadian is a code language, just as Hebrew is a code language. The consonants are written and the translator fills in the vowels! This is why there are so many versions of one name.

In addition, various consonants are interchangeable in the different languages, as well as being pronounced the same or differently. The letters Y, I and E appear to be interchangeable in many Hebrew words, the B and P, as well as T and D and others. I will identify them as we go.

In addition, the Hebrews, in particular, use the prefix Ha to indicate the words "the", "of" or "from". Therefore, for example, "Ha-Nasi" means "the Prince" (from the Ashkenazi/Babylonian Talmudic Jews), and "Ha-Levi" indicates a leader associated with the Old Testament, Jerusalem Talmud, or the tribe of Levi. A problem with such a lack of precision in the written language is that, at times, translators have thought the H was a prefix perhaps when it was not and left it off in their translations—so—one has to be aware of these things. The Assyrian Texts use Ne as a prefix. An example of this is Ne-Essu, which means "the Lion"! It also appears that C, CH, KH, etc. are interchangeable in many languages. You will find KHAPIRU as the Akkadian 'HAPIRU'. Also, for instance, the word Khazars may be spelled as Kazars, Chazars, etc. Just be prepared for this sort of thing.

The Hebrew/Akkadian Consonant Words chart [on next page] gives some examples of written words using consonants only as in Hebrew or Akkadian, with various vowel usages. I think you will find the exercise interesting. The consonants are in capital letters, the vowels in small letters and the words have been arranged in columns.

The Arabic word for Eden is Adn, according to The Jewish Encyclopedia. Some scholars have thought the place of Aden in Africa to be the original "garden of Eden", but there appears to be as much opposition to this as to other suggested locations.

My purpose in sharing this chart is to show the multitude of possibilities and the many actual usages, as well as some possible alternate meanings and spellings of various words. There are, of course, many other words that could be analyzed in this way.

Always remember when analyzing a word that has been translated from ancient writings that there were few, if any, pronunciation marks or definitives to help the translators decide what they were dealing with. Given this scenario, it is easy to see how much the translators, editors, scribes, scholars, and their benefactors have had a part in affecting our lives and thinking, merely through a choice of vowels! A "Heberite" or a "Habiru" may become a "Hebrew" just by one translator's choice of vowels, and "God" can be Aton, or the Garden of Eden!

A loose-end to tie-up regarding the Gauls (AKA French and/or West Saxons): Some of you may recall the actor, Richard Burton (who was from Wales, a small country of Great Britain on the West Coast of England), saying on Dick Cavett's talk show that the Welsh language was "almost pure Hebrew." [I am indebted to a Mr. Bokos for reminding me of Mr. Burton's statement.] The Welsh language is one of the dialects of the Gallic language, as is Manx (Scots), Irish (Gaelic), Cornish and Briton (AKA Bryton). Further, if the word exercise is taken to a logical conclusion regarding the HBR consonant word and the Gallic connections, you have the following:

HeB Rides Scottish Isles
Hi BeRnia Ireland

A good thing to remember again here is that Hebrew and Akkadian are both code languages, and both (or some version thereof) go back to Babylon. Therefore—it is not surprising to learn that some of the language usages would still be with us—for—the "cradle of civilization" is said to have been Babylon. I don't agree necessarily with that theory, but Babylon was certainly the beginning of most of our Western civilization today.

Another loose end needing further attention is that regarding the "wisdom literature" found throughout the Near East from ancient times, per Barbara Mertz in her book Temples, Tombs and Hieroglyphs. She gives a further comparison of a "Hebrew" translation from the Old Testament, and it's borrowings from Egypt. I will show the King James Version of the Bible, Proverbs 22: 21,22 translated from Hebrew, and the argument on the side of the Egyptian translation as given by Ms. Mertz from Adolf Erman, an Egyptologist and a teacher of a generation of archaeologists--British, American and German:

(Quote:)

Have I not written unto thee excellent things, in counsel and knowledge.

That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer

the words of truth to them that send unto thee?

The words, "excellent things" was marked with a question. The Hebrew had shilshom, "formerly", which is obviously an error; the original editors had suggested shalishim, "officers", which is hardly an improvement...."Erman, of course, was familiar with the Amenemopet Text, and he had found a passage which in many ways seemed to resemble the two verses of Proverbs. But the Egyptian text reads: "See thou these thirty chapters; they entertain, they instruct. They are the foremost of all books; they make the ignorant man to know. As Erman studied the text he was struck by the recollection that the Hebrew word for "thirty" is sheloshim — a word which involves only a small change in pointing (pronunciation marks) and makes better sense of the Hebrew rendering. The Egyptian text contains precisely thirty passages. The Hebrew text is not so divided, but it does contain thirty different precepts. Erman's discovery not only settled the question of borrowing between the two sources, but made the direction of borrowing pretty sure, for the use of the word "thirty" is more logical in the Egyptian. (End Quote.)

Please note: The only differences between the words shilshom, shalishim and sheloshim are the vowels.

Also, there were recent hieroglyphs found at Karnak, in Egypt, which the scholar, Frank J. Yurco claims are a reference to a group of nomadic people, dressed as the Canaanites in robes, and called "Ysr3L"—Israel. The hieroglyphs depict battles between King Merenptah of Egypt against the Hittite Army (including the sea-peoples from Ashkelon and Gezer) under their leader, Muwatallis. The battles were fought between 1212 and 1202 B.C., all in the land of Canaan. This would put the time at approximately 150 years after Akhenaton and is claimed to be the earliest material yet discovered regarding "Israel".

The Hittites were people from north of Syria, an area today called Turkey. They were, from Biblical accounts descendants of Japheth or Ham. The Hieroglyphs referring to the "Israelites" had been previously overlooked (according to Mr.
Yurco). The article about the "find" is in the magazine, Biblical Archaeological Review, the September/October 1990 issue.

I found some problems with the material presented in the article regarding the translation of "Ysr3L". I am not an Egyptologist, but have some books showing the Egyptian hieroglyphic language.
There is no letter L in their alphabet!
There are the letters Y, R, A, I. There is no numeral 3 — but this (or reversed capital E) must be a typographical error in any event.

Also, it appears the hieroglyph as represented in the article is backwards, the bird is facing to the right instead of the left, as all birds do without exception in Egyptian Hieroglyphic.

In order to overcome the problem of no letter L in the language, the Egyptians used a word-form to depict a "lion" for

HEBREW/AKKADIAN-CONSONANT WORDS

[I.]

Words in Consonants	Variant possible Spellings	Explanations/ Comments
H B R	HeBeR	The Heberites were from Heber.
	HeB Ru	(AKA Hebrew).
	HaBiRu	The warlike Nomadic Tribe.
	KHaBiRu	Akkadian for Habiru.

P is used interchangeably with
B in the translations from the Akkadian forms:

H P R	KHaPiRu	Akkadian variant.
	HaPiRi	Another variant of Habiru.
	HaPaRi	Another variant.

Or drop the H as has been done. The rule for this appears to be that it (the H) is used as a prefix:

eBeR	Shem was the father of all these (Gen.10:21).
aBaRi	Cyril Aldred's translation.
iBeRians	Ancient name of Spanish People. (Hiber in Latin)

[II.]

Words in Consonants	Known Spellings	Explanations/ Comments
T N	aToN	Akhenaton's God.
	aTeN	A much used version of Aton.
	eToN	A version of Aten given by scholar, Anthony S. Mercatante.

D is used interchangeably with
T in examples provided by Mercatante:

D N	aDoN	A version of "Aten" given by Mercatante.
	aD N	Arabic meaning Eden, as in "Garden of Eden"
	aDoNai	A name for God in the Bible.
	eDeN	The Biblical name of the Garden of "Eden".

example, instead of spelling "lion" as one would otherwise do. The lettering in the case of "lion" starts with a form of R because it can best picture the head of the lion. It does not mean that R is interchangeable with L—there is no letter L in Egyptian Hieroglyphs. (See Her-Bak, Egyptian Initiate, by Isha Schwaller De Lubicz, Pub. Inner Traditions, N.Y., 1967; and The Egyptian Book of the Dead, by E.A. Wallis Budge, Pub. Dover, N.Y. 1967.) So—what Mr. Yurco found, although printed backwards in the magazine, if it were reversed could be translated as "Ysrair". The definitive shown by Mr. Yurco identifies the people as nomadic, or as not being connected to a city-state, as were the people from Ashkelon, etc. Mr. Yurco's article was titled, "3,200 Year-Old-Picture of Israelites Found in Egypt." Whether Mr. Yurco's discovery actually refers to the people of "Israel" I cannot say. Whoever the "Ysrair" were, the hieroglyph tells us, according to Mr. Yurco, they were a nomadic, fighting group under the leadership of a Hittite, not an "Israeli".

It is fairly obvious that the true sources of what we like to think of as the "Christian Bible" or "Hebrew Bible", etc., have not been made known to us, much less the original words. When you consider that the "Habiru" were a mixed nomadic and dependent group—dependent on an aristocratic or ruling class for their maintenance; and when you start wondering how a "nomadic group" could have carried forward a culture or written language—you begin to question "who did write the Bible"?

In a definitive statement issued 5/19/92 Hatonn said: [Quote] This is the bloodline of one of Noah's sons, Sem (or Shem) of which came Joseph, the husband of Mary the mother of Immanuel/Jesus. The Semites are a bloodline which began with Semjasa, the heavenly son and guardian angel of God who is the "father" of the white human race. Do not get "crazy" here at this information, it makes NO difference whatsoever. All souled humans are GOD's children, even those who project evil. Most importantly, GOD IS LIGHT—NOT "WHITE". [End Quote.]

All of the historical details and facts of the above have not yet been discovered. Nevertheless, an outline is forming which makes it ever more clear. Consider—if one dispenses with all the variant uses of HBR and just takes one of them, "Eber", then Sem (AKA Shem) was the father of them all—including the Hebrews, Habiru, English, French, Irish, Scotch, Welsh, Spanish, etc.!

Further—at another time—Hatonn has also said that the white race are not only all "Semites", they are also "Jews".

Part II of this series [8/4/92 LIBERATOR Vol. 20 #3] showed the Etymology of the word "Jew" — please refer to it again. Hatonn said also, [on 5/19/92] regarding the Jews, [Quote] It is the one who fails to KNOW the Truth of it, most especially the misled within the very recognized group calling themselves "Jews", that shall and do suffer the most painful of persecution—from the ones who claim same heritage. Actually you will find the heritage due the beloved of God are the ones who have been most persecuted in every manner and have had that heritage stolen and warped. The ones who have "stolen" and "warped" the heritage of the "Jews" are the "Khazars", the "Zionist Elite of the Committee of 300", a "Warlike, phallic-worshipping group of people from Russia of Nordic, Mongolian and Turkish bloodlines. They ruled a portion of lower Russia, between the Black and Caspian Seas, for several hundred years and were at the "peak" of their power from the seventh to the tenth centuries. They adopted and merged with the Judaists of Judea in the year 740 AD. Most ones who call themselves "Jewish" actually are from the Russian Khazarian line, also called the false 13th tribe and they are NOT SEMITES. [End Quote.]

To support what Hatonn has said above I refer you to some of the older maps, generally found in Biblical Concordances, showing where the various people, descendants of Noah's sons, lived. The area between the Caspian and Black seas was occupied by Ashkenaz and other sons of Japheth. It is the "Ashkenazi Jews" who comprise the greater percentage of the population in the new state of Israel today, per both the Encyclopedia Judaica and the Jewish Encyclopedia. Their "book" is the Babylonian Talmud for the most part.

I have my own "Aton Hymn" to share with you in closing this series. Consider it my "choice" of vowels and interchangeable letters in translating what could have been some "original" words of Biblical fame:

In the beginning God created the Heaven and the Earth.

And God, Who's name is Aton, saw everything that He had made, and, behold it was very good....

God placed men and women Humans, all his children, on the earth to care for it—a most beautiful garden, full of life and everything needful.....

And the first Humans called this beautiful earth, "The Garden of Aton."
