“Evil Empire” Finally Pulls Down PHOENIX LIBERATOR

3/22/93 #1 HATONN

HOTLINE

Because we are so short of time I can only give “guidelines” about the hotline information. But I WANT TO START TODAY—WITH THE DREGS AND TEARS!!

THIS TUESDAY WILL BE THE LAST LIBERATOR. THIS DECISION WAS MADE OVER A MONTH AGO BECAUSE OF SUCH SHORTAGE OF FUNDS AND THE DAMAGE DONE TO THE INSTITUTE BY GEORGE GREEN. NO FURTHER FUNDING CAN BE DRAINED FROM THE INSTITUTE UNTIL THE CORPORATION CAN SETTLE THE DEMANDS LEGALLY OF THE “INVADERS”. THEREFORE, THE SUPPORT TO THE PAPER AND JOURNALS MUST STOP UNTIL LEGAL PROBLEMS CAN BE SETTLED. THE EKKERS CANNOT UTILIZE THE PROPERTY ANY FURTHER AS AN ASSET FOR THE RTC WON THE BATTLE.

ALL WE CAN HOPE FOR NOW IS THAT THE “LAWSUIT” CAN BE SOLD TO THE ENTITY WHO LOANED THEM THE MONEY, PERSONALLY, AGAINST THE PROPERTY—

TO FIGHT FOR THE PROPERTY. THIS WILL COVER THE SUIT AS AN ASSET AGAINST THE BANKRUPTCY WHICH THEY ARE NOW AGAIN “IN” AND ALLOW SECURITY OF THE LENDER. FURTHER, THE ORIGINAL LAW-FIRM UTILIZED BY EKKERS IS NOW COMING BACK FOR OVER $50,000 IN “EARNED” LEGAL FEES PLUS INTEREST. OH, INDEED, MR. GREEN AND THE LEGAL EAGLES HAVE BEEN BUSY, BUSY, BUSY! IS THIS GODLY? I ASK THIS OF YOU PEOPLE WHO HAVE DENOUNCED ME, MY PEOPLE AND OUR WORK—IN FAVOR OF THE CORRUPT, LYING BASTARDS OF DECEIT SENT FORTH TO PULL YOU INTO DESTRUCTION.

DO I CONSIDER THIS LOSS? NO, I CONSIDER IT “CHALLENGE” AND WE HAVE ALL THE ANSWERS TO THESE PROBLEMS BUT IT MEANS EGOS GO TO HELL WHERE THEY BELONG INSTEAD OF “YOU” AND FULL UNDERSTANDING OF THE SYSTEM AND HOW TO UTILIZE IT.

WE HAVE ONES WORKING WITH US SO THAT THE MESSAGES MAY CONTINUE TO FLOW TO SOME EXTENT AND IF ALL ARRANGEMENTS CAN WORK “PER-PECTLY” THEN THE INFORMATION WILL CONTINUE TO FLOW UNINTERRUPTED. THE PRESENTATION (PAPER) UNDER MOST TIMELY CONSIDERATION WILL BE CALLED “CONTACT” The Phoenix Project. The corporation in point has no assets EITHER which is worse than bad—but if we pool subscription dues—we see that together we can keep the information flowing in some manner for a while longer.

We will be given rights of control of information and basically allowed to utilize our LIBERATOR format and volunteer crew to allow for meeting of costs. We shall simply do that which we can—and trust you readers to receive the information and keep up as changes are required. At this point we ask that you experience at least one issue of CONTACT before you cancel subscriptions—WE BELIEVE WE HAVE MATURED AND THAT EVEN MORE AND IMPORTANT INFORMATION WILL COME INTO THE SHARING.

Hearts here are bleeding and hurt—but there is no way we who have nothing in assets, having lost everything and having

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR

Now Forced To Shut Down!

3/19/93 #1 HATONN

WHEN YOU THINK YOU CANT
GO FARTHER,
YOU CAN!

I, Hatonn, come in the Light of Radiance with my brethren from those realms to which all might aspire and flourish—to serve God of Holy Light and Perfection in Creation.

I leave the "heading" above from Tuesday's writings for in the interim the burdens have quadrupled upon the head of my scribe and our local crew.

Disappointments?? Oh indeed, it goes beyond disappointments in events and in persons to whom were entrusted their very lives and all property.

What shall we do now? Well, I suppose many of you are going to feel "failure" is the response—for a journey and birthed entities to which we have given 100% of our work and time. But there are no "failures"—even "failure", if you are convinced of failing—is success! Ponder it. Do you take your wounds and steal away into the night, into some corner wherein you may lick your wounds and hibernate until "it's over"? Well, if you have no home left, five years and 67 JOURNALS taken from you in all aspects and new lawsuits piling up at two a day—only to find that even your attorney was working secretly with your closest and deadliest enemy—it is hard to not consider some alternatives—like, at the least, quitting and taking a vacation. Oh well, sorry chela, NO VACATION—alternatives? YES. Work gone? NO. Burial of that which is no longer feasible with which to struggle—YES. Weeping? NO!! Is the cup half empty or half full??

WAKINI

In translation, chela, "wakini" is a Lakota word meaning "new life, a life of peace and happiness". To achieve such status requires understanding self, direction, purpose and coming to peace with all of that which comes flowing (or dumped) in your laps to attend. Happiness is that which is a state of being which requires nothing save the peace and joy within as new challenges arise. If the "goal" is never lost, then the way shall be found to continue in service—and, in this way shall freedom again be found and our gifts not stopped in the flowing.

A river diverted—is yet the same flowing water—either stilled and deepened, or flowing in a different course unto the same great body as prior to the diversion.

What do I mean? How can I seemingly take so lightly that which SEEMS insurmountable? Easy—for I can see the other end of that river and we have trained well and I come to show you the way—as "pathfinder" and "scout" for my people. If you be seemingly caught in the tangled web of the spider—how do you get free? You find an Eagle to feed upon the spider and break away the webbing. I am the Eagle—the spiders shall not prevail! So be it.

WHAT OF THIS MESSAGE?

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR
IS SILENCED

To you readers, this is a most wearisome tale of harassment and seemingly "personal" and uninteresting dialogue. Think not of it in that manner—for this is ABOUT YOU! Because of the assaults, the beams of Lighted Truth are being shut off daily one after another—THIS ONE ALSO! THAT'S RIGHT—THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR IS SILENCED! MY PEOPLE CANNOT LONGER STAND AGAINST THE ASSAULTS AND DELIBERATE "SELL-OUTS" OF THOSE WHO CLAIMED TO BE CO-WORKERS AND RAYS OF LIGHTED BROTHERHOOD.

The LIBERATOR has only about 1,400 subscribers—the income does not pay more than the postage and a part of the printing costs. It now has a suit against it in amounts of millions of dollars in "damages" to the University of Science and Philosophy—that's right, Dr. Russell's group who so claim to honor this man.

They now claim that all of the information offered in the LIBERATOR, especially the information regarding the surveillance and threats to my scribe, are all lies and they have "never placed surveillance, etc." So, they now claim massive and "overwhelming" damage to their "Foundation" and work and damage to sales of their materials into the millions of dollars. Funny—we have never seen one cent of anything from all that work! Neither has the LIBERATOR!

It does, however, cause our team to wonder a bit at the unfolding of actual fact—the people doing the surveillance above referred to said they worked for the University of Science and Philosophy. We were, further, told by ones involved with the US&P (like the threatening attorneys involved) that there was over $215,000,000 set aside to "kill" our business and bury our writings (or, preferably, burn the books to make sure the work is totally destroyed!).

But, they claim that our pronouncements are not truth and the damages so great to them that they will not even "accept" retraction. So be it. I wasn't going to offer retraction at any rate.

GEORGE GREEN

This friend does keep popping up into the conversation, does he not? Well, he is "ready to negotiate". What terms? Oh, not much—just that he keep all the gold and then, he will pay for outstanding printing costs (I thought a publisher was supposed to pay those costs AND pay the authors something for their offering—not TAKE IT ALL AS YOUR OWN—ESPECIALLY WITH AN OUTSTANDING BILL OF NOW OVER $175,000 TO THE INSTITUTE). He also offers to pay (undoubtedly out of the gold which he has hocked for his own purposes already) a couple of his friends who assisted early in the "work". AND, GET THIS—HE WILL AGREE TO PAY THE $45,000 TO THE UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND PHILOSOPHY! Did everybody get that?? Could this be why the attorney would believe that he somehow had cause to ask for some of those impounded JOURNALS sitting in the Federal Court—BUT, WITHOUT ANY MENTION OF SAME TO THE EKKERS—WHO ARE "THE ONES" HELD RESPONSIBLE IN THE COURT—MR. GREEN HAVING AVOIDED EVEN ATTENDING A COURT APPEARANCE. DOES ANYTHING SOUND STRANGE AND SLIGHTLY "INCORRECT AND UNETHICAL" IN THIS MANEUVER??

Now, the US&P has come full circle and is after Tehachapi Distributing (a corporation in no way whatsoever involved with either THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR or Ekkers). Well, the case has already "broken" Mr. Martin and Tehachapi Distributing and forced him into TOTAL loss of everything, books included. He, further, has outstanding due and owing of over $12,000 from America West—and yet, a bill from America West for over $87,000 for his "cooperation" with the Greens.

So now the US&P, with undoubted "coaching" from Mr. Green, has turned to the LIBERATOR. Mr. Green must have a VERY BAD MEMORY—for when he was THE honcho of the earlier EXPRESS and then LIBERATOR—he went in the hole every issue. When he left and moved to Nevada—he took with him the subscription money and over $29,000 was NEVER returned for the publishing of the paper. In addition, the promise of funds against the sales of books—WAS NEVER HONORED. The Institute and volunteers continued from that point of being behind to continuing in publication of one of the finest papers in America—or the world—today! It still does not make its way and yet, with all the other assaults and expenses, it simply cannot continue in operation—SO IT WILL SHUT ITS DOORS AND CLOSE ITS CORPORATION. THE ADVERSARY HAS WON! OR HAS HE?? WE SHALL SEE, WON'T WE?

OFFERS

We have been contacted recently by two journalistic entities offering to take our work. They could not make it on their own either—and would take part of the burden just to keep the information in some manner of flow.

I consider this a great comfort—but not a solution—unless we can get more subscribers for that paper—for the need for closure is inability to pay expenses and maintain facilities. Certainly, there IS NO FUNDING FOR PAYING ATTORNEYS THAT WHICH THEY DEMAND TO EVEN CONSIDER TAKING ON A CASE—ESPECIALLY AGAINST ADVERSARIES WITH UNLIMITED FUNDING FOR JUST SUCH CAUSE.

FEEDBACK

The staff here at the LIBERATOR are devastated and yet desire to do that which serves the greater cause. The Chief Editor gave up a magnificent career in the worldly and academic sector to take on the publication of this paper. He is being offered total Editorial control over the alternate paper in consideration. The staff is even being offered the rights to remain in their location and homes (which doesn't mean much to the Ekkers since the RTC sold their home right out from under them)—but, as with THE PHOENIX LIBERA-

TOR, salaries are nil at best and moving, just to pick up new harassment, is hardly worthy of great and overjoyful consideration.

NO FURTHER MENTION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND PHILOSOPHY

My promise and commitment, should we accept this alternative offer, is that I shall never again refer to the US&P as I have in the past—in any such manner unless factually documented in EVERY way including the perpetrators on the end of the string in front of their "palace". Yes indeed, I speak here of Swananoa Palace in Virginia where they hold their seminars unto the existence of humanistic god. I do apologize for any derogatory remarks I might have made about the organization for I HONOR WALTER RUSSELL BEYOND ALMOST ANY MAN TO WALK YOUR EARTH PLANE. I promise, however, never to mention his name, either—EXCEPT IN THE CONTEXT OF PURE SCIENTIFIC MENTION. You see, I CAN separate philosophy I feel totally WRONG—from the SCIENCE I feel is totally CORRECT and is PUBLIC DOMAIN BY ITS SCIENTIFIC, MATHEMATICAL AND FACTUAL TRUTH.

WHAT HAVE I TO OFFER ANOTHER PAPER?

Well, quite a bit. I offer to rewrite all the PLEIADES CONNECTION banned JOURNALS WITHOUT MENTION OR NOTATION OF UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND PHILOSOPHY AND/OR WALTER RUSSELL. I will leave the FOUR JOURNALS under remaining ban—untouched and unoffered in any way—at this time. The information contained within those volumes is flowing in Earth stream from North Africa as we write here and, moreover, Germain has a good memory—plus, we have no interest in any of the philosophical manipulations of US&P and the proof of the scientific material is for all to see already. As is, the material in the books in point mostly holds almost no reference to Russell anyway. In the "AIDS" volume, there is only reference to healing or treating with light as Dr. Russell could validate. However, the actual work was done by Rife and Prioré. I would have long ago updated those volumes anyway as they are old and all of the disease processes have treatment now—if you will.

IN NEGOTIATIONS

I find our new sponsors to be most congenial and would continue the paper format almost "as is", with "Nora's Research" segments, Soltec's geophysical sharings and any "insider-outsider" information we would be willing to share. They would even "buy" our "logo", but, we have no objection to the sharing of the Phoenix—it is not ours to have and hold—we even have thought of utilizing it UPSIDE DOWN as a show of "trouble" as with the symbol of your flag flown upside down being a sign of distress. We shall have to consider how the Phoenix pyramid will look teetering on its point. I think it quite suitable and amusing—remember: humor comes from God ALSO!

SUBSCRIBERS

The obvious next question will be: "What about us subscribers and our dues already paid?" Well, since the paper runs behind financially, return of funds will be given to all extent possible if you request same. However, the better solution, if you wish, would be to turn over the subscriber's unfinished account to the new paper and the issues would not even be interrupted for more than a week or so at most.

WILL THE PAPER COUNTERSUE?

That has not been under discussion. It apparently is assumed by ones "out there somewhere" and as represented by Mr. Green that there is GREAT VALUE in the LIBERATOR and as well, in Tehachapi Distributing. Obviously Mr. Green knows something no one at this location knows and that is why there is such interest and value placed in the JOURNALS when he claims sales are almost zilch! Perhaps there is an attorney out there somewhere who would consider these possibilities, knowing, of course, that there is no large funding to pay upfront fees—but certainly reward would be most abundantly shared in the event of taking and completing such action. There is nothing to be gleaned here but there obviously is much to be gleaned THERE! I am confident there must be at least one attorney in this club of same, that could recognize such possibilities.

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER

Boy, it is a week of heartbreak as misdeeds are uncovered and damages assessed. We may also have to reduce the Law Center to the cases under-way as so much has been skived off by and through (apparently) actions of ones we shall leave unnamed for protection of our people here, that to continue to support the Law Center through the Institute in the face of only a handful of contributors, is ludicrous. There are some cases which would allow financing independently for the Center—but the funds are not yet available for expending. We shall simply have to keep you all posted.

STABILITY OF INSTITUTE

Indeed, the Institute is sound barring a "run"—which, will not be, by legal means, allowed. The price of gold is less than at the time of ANY collateral purchase so bankruptcy would be forced if such mass removal of funds would be accomplished. All funds are safe and secure against notes and qualified banking facilities so, disappointing to our enemies, no further expenditures will be allowed until this is resolved. Bare minimum maintenance of operations will be allowed until phased out and all institutional business is perfected.

I believe it will become clear to all of you that you are in good hands with God, and it is through God that we have structured our business activities in total integrity which can stand the scrutiny of even the Federal Government. This does not mean that the unjudicial system won't effort to search and destroy—it does mean that to do so they will have to take great risks against their OWN RULES AND REGULATIONS!

ATON VS. HATONN

Since it seems to be this entity "Hatonn/Hatton" which annoys everyone so much in this inspirational assault—perhaps I shall be forced to also give up writing—as Hatonn, and take one of my other labels—like "Aton". I shall find it suitable either way. If Dharma wishes, we can call her by another label also—how about "Wakini"? Sounds good to me—"new", "new life", etc. Or, we can go with Ceres which can identify both myself and Commander Soltec whose label is Ceres Anthonious (Toniose) Soltec. That way Doris is the only one left out to dry—and since she has never gotten anything save headaches and finger callouses at any rate—she is ready, willing and able to serve. I think it sounds pretty good to me, Ceres Aton and Wakini—Hatonn and Dharma soon to be but a memory—which by fact, already IS.

LITTLE CROW

I would petition Little Crow that perhaps he might "fill in" some of the writings to get us through this time of transition—if that is the route chosen in action. You must understand, readers, THAT OUR PEOPLE ARE WEARY AND TRULY HAVE SERVED LONG ENOUGH AGAINST ALL ODDS. I FIND, HOWEVER, THAT THEY ARE WILLING AND EAGER TO DO WHATEVER CAN KEEP THE WORD FLOWING—AND SINCE THEY HAVE NOTHING LEFT OF PROPERTY, TO LOSE—THE UNANIMOUS OFFER IS TO MOVE FORWARD IF AT ALL POSSIBLE AND IF MY SCRIBE BE WILLING.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

By necessity and through relocation (but still coming out of Las Vegas, Nevada, for that is where both offering papers are located already) phones, post boxes and all such will have to be changed, probably. The staff is checking to see if numbers can be maintained even though the business in point is dead and gone. It matters not, you readers surely can be flexible enough to find new listings if necessary. When I speak of "maintained numbers", I specifically refer to the "Hotline" because it is already on an operational system but surely it would have to be separated out from the LIBERATOR as such. It is not a great "expense" to the paper [thanks to the generosity of those kind readers who supplied the funds for its machinery] but represents the most inconvenience to the reader if changed.

For this interim time period, information will be carried on that line as decisions are made and the paper is shut-down. Staff is taking collections to continue that service until finalization of closure is worked out. We will simply be in great appreciation for patience on your part for our staff must now go forth and seek employment and see their own dreams slip away and dissolved. Will God allow this work to die? More important, readers, WILL YOU?? If we can retrieve the JOURNALS—will you support them—purchase them? For, if you do not—why go to the pain and expense of retrieving them at all? We WILL drop the price below the $10.00 charged through the years so that more can have the volumes, but without the paper and facilities—the books will have to be handled out of another Distributor-Publisher at any rate. This is already established for new writings so is not a problem save the expense of getting the material from America West's impounding and shipping them, warehousing and staffing. If YOU are not interested, please allow us to know as much, for our people are willing to go "all the way" to keep you informed and the work available—BUT NOT IF YOU DON'T WANT IT—THEY HAVE PAID ENOUGH!

WELL, IS THE MATERIAL REALLY VALID?

If ones on your human plane will go to all these efforts to STOP the flow, break our people, deny my presence and that of the Hosts—I WOULD GUESS, OFF HAND, THAT IT IS MOST VALID INDEED. If the CIA, Government Boys, Elite Planners, ADL, WZO, etc., will, and are, doing everything in their power to silence us (success to you, sirs) then it would seem what we write must have validity. If the churches of orthodox religions, especially Christianity, effort to silence us through measures such as threatening to bomb vehicles, etc.—something we are saying MUST BE VALID. Dharma says, "We must be insane to even consider going on with this," but Wakini says, "Hey, let's go for it, brothers! I don't have anything left to lose except my life—and I'm too numb, especially between the ears, to give a damn." Each, of course, will have ample opportunity to make individual participation decisions.

The main problem with such change is that the mailing team of volunteers and workers who give, every week, hours and hours of time, are here—not in Nevada. We would need to see if mailing could continue as is, etc. There is simply too much at hand and the load of closure too great to focus on the change prior to meeting these other needs. You will be kept posted in advance. I do not, however, see more than one additional printing as the LIBERATOR. This is because the legal documents demand response and legal expenses in early April. We have yet to consider counter-measures but are open to all suggestions! Thank you, precious friends.

CAN THEY SILENCE THE HOSTS?

CAN YOU SILENCE GOD? So be it!

I do note that Dharma only has a couple of demands if we decide to go with "change": We use the "logo" somewhere on the other paper, even if at the bottom of the ending page, and, a new slogan will be: YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH AND THE TRUTH WILL MAKE YOU MAD! I believe we might well indulge either or both, the request seems small enough in payment for six years of serving in Hell. The only wondrously fun thing about it is that so many of you have walked right there along side with only the offer to "do more". But when you chelas sit to ponder these trials and joys in your meditations and within your heart—ask yourselves some most important questions:

"Why am I so special? Because I have things that no one else can ever have. I am unique in this world and no warrior, chief or common man can ever lay claim to the things I have. I alone have my thoughts and hopes! I alone have my beating heart, my stamina, and my love of life—my direction or my fulfillment. Can anyone else lay claim to MY dreams? Can anyone else love exactly like ME? Is there anyone who sees EXACTLY the same color as I see? Does anyone other than me HEAR the same tonal pitches in exactly the same sound as do I? Will anyone ever be able to duplicate my deeds and actions? Exactly? NO, I KNOW THESE THINGS ARE MINE AND MINE ALONE! And, so be it—may you walk in joy and peace in thine own individual perfection, each of you blessed friends for each of you—is THE most special thing ever created. God smiles on His perfection for each of you is indeed rare and beautiful—a treasure cherished.

AM I TRYING TO "BUOY" YOU UP?

INDEED! FOR I CAN ONLY SEE GLORY AND LESSONS SHARED AND ACCOMPLISHED! WE ENTER INTO NEW PHASES OF ACTION AND MORE PERFECT UNDERSTANDING—AH INDEED! BE BUOYED UP UNTO THE VERY STARS FOR WHEN YE ARE GUIDED BY THE HAND OF GOD—YE SHALL NOT—YEA, CANNOT—FALL. SALU. Little Wakini, Ceres Aton to clear, please.

New Survival Facilities For The Very Tough Times Ahead

3/15/93 #1 HATONN

THE WORLD IS NOW MOVED INTO AN ERA OF INTENSIFIED CLOSING OF THE NOOSE ON ALL FREEDOM AS YOU MOVE INTO AND UNDER THE POWER OF THE ONE WORLD ELITE POWER. I LOOK TO ALTERNATIVES AND SEE NO WAY THAT YOU IN THE UNITED STATES CAN UNDO THAT WHICH IS DONE—FINISHED. IF YOU RISE UP IN OPEN "GUN" BATTLE WITH THE ADVERSARY IN POWER YOU WILL GET SMASHED AND THE BEST OF YOUR LEADERSHIP WILL BE KILLED OUTRIGHT. YOUR HOPE FOR SURVIVAL AND SOME GOOD QUALITY OF LIFE—WILL REST UPON HOW WELL YOU CAN FUNCTION IN "KNOWLEDGE" WITHIN THE SYSTEM AS STRUCTURED. This approach may well allow you to go pretty much unnoticed until the next major distraction to the very adversary hits THEM. That will be an open war, chelas, but you are going to be pretty destitute as a nation by that time so much of the battle will rage on lands across the seas. However, you will not go unscathed so survival facilities become your most important focus. The U.S. government is now focusing on absolute upgrading of facilities for survival—RIGHT NOW—they are "making their lists and checking them twice". You will not get help from the government for your own needs except in small and isolated "look how hard we are trying" spurts for "show-and-tell".

BUILDING TECHNOLOGY

I am going to use some "Subtech Inc." information which has been sent to us from Florida. It is published in a Journal called American Survival Guide—in the April 1993 issue, so you can see that it is certainly current. I am not going to go into "building codes" and plans at this particular moment except to say that the corporation in point uses steel, concrete, wood and fiberglass construction which keeps expenses to a minimum, for almost all of the structure is actually fiberglass. In this instance, these particular shelters are called ES10 DISASTER SHELTERS, by SUBTECH, INC. [Contacting information appears later in the quoted article.] As our Advanced Building Technology fabrication gets under way, that can be changed to fabricated panels of honeycomb filler and light cement compounds and fabricated "furnishings" as well, cutting out almost all need for wood or petroleum-based products. Until that is available, however, we note the value of getting "something" done, and done as inexpensively, yet durably, as is possible. You can also, in farm areas or "good digging" property, sink fiberglass tanks to use as storage facilities as in a "root cellar" arrangement. The point now, however, is to discuss the need for such facilities as war approaches—AND as storms worsen.

You will note that the only things shown to you on television is massive destruction—they do NOT show you the domed buildings that undergo the same battering and come through totally perfect and untouched from anything thrown at them. If those people living in such buildings had a nice independent emergency generator and extra fuel tank—life would go forth totally unchanged. If, further, these same buildings had equal "underground" facilities with emergency supplies as recommended—weeks of good quality living would not only be possible but downright comfortable—and represent a good vacation rest period.

I suggest you have extendable air vents for areas where you can get so much snow as to bury a home entirely and in areas where sand can also bury a dwelling.

SO, WHAT ABOUT WAR?

EXCERPTS QUOTED FROM ARTICLE IN AMERICAN SURVIVAL GUIDE:

Walton McCarthy, president of Subterranean Technologies Inc. (Subtech), is a mechanical engineer and serves on a technical advisory board for The American Civil Defense Association. He is the author of The Nuclear Shelterist and Principles of Protection (POP), The U.S. Handbook of NBC Weapon Fundamentals and Shelter Engineering Standards. McCarthy has designed and built over 200 shelters using steel, concrete, wood and fiberglass. Subtech has just finished retooling for its ES10 Disaster Shelter, which is constructed almost entirely of fiberglass. — The editors.

WHO NEEDS A SHELTER ANYWAY? by Walton McCarthy

Dismantled nuclear weapons in combination with displaced nuclear weapons experts from the former Soviet Union resulted in a much greater availability of nuclear weapons to terrorists who are able to pay.

The reduction of the nuclear arsenal of the U.S. and Russia and the reduced threat of a massive nuclear confrontation is leading to even stronger, more dispersed enemies, such as Iran, Iraq, Syria, Libya, Algeria and North Korea.

The CIA estimates that over 20 countries will have long-range ballistic missile capability by the year 2000.

The fact is that neither S.T.A.R.T. (Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty) nor the recent Washington-Moscow agreements on reduction of nuclear weapons requires the United States or Russia to destroy their nuclear warheads, just disassemble the warhead whole or store the various parts in warehouses.

When nuclear warheads are dismantled, tons of plutonium and high-enriched uranium (HEU) are placed into circulation; thus the emergence of the "Nuclear Black Market."

How much HEU and plutonium would be required to make a small atomic bomb? It takes only 15 kg (33 lbs) of HEU and 6 kg (13 lbs) of plutonium to make a small atomic bomb. In terms of volume, 15 kg is a little larger than a softball of HEU, and 6 kg (13 lbs) is approximately the size of a softball. The estimated material in the Russian arsenal which is estimated to be released in just the next few years is 300,000 kg of plutonium. This is enough to make 10,000+ atomic weapons.

There are numerous problems in storing weapons compounds. The first is that it takes a very special storage facility to warehouse nuclear warheads and/or nuclear components.

In June of 1991 Boris Yeltsin asked the U.S. for $300,000,000 to build a nuclear warehouse near Tomsk in Siberia to store more than 100,000 nuclear weapon components. The U.S. approved $15,000,000 to research such a project. Even if the U.S. were to grant such an expenditure, it will take years of study, years of engineering and when all this is finished, it would take at least five years to build.

Until adequate funding is approved, much of the nuclear fuel will have to remain intact in the warheads.

Secondly, it takes extremely sophisticated security measures to guard the weapon components which requires large and continuous financial burdens.

The third problem is that no inventory of Russian warheads has yet been drawn up and some may be missing already.

The fourth problem is finding other uses for plutonium which few nuclear reactors can use, and reprocessing it is not economical.

The fifth problem is that there is not enough storage space or funding to dismantle the nuclear weapons in the ground today.

In theory 6,000 warheads are to be removed under the 1991 S.T.A.R.T. An additional 8,200 U.S. and Russian warheads are due to be removed by 2003 based on the June Washington agreement by George Bush and Russian President Boris Yeltsin. Russia could possibly dismantle up to 2,500 warheads per year if they had the funding. Even at this pace it would take 10 to 20 years to dismantle or properly dispose of all the strategic and tactical nuclear weapons that Russia spent decades building.

There are numerous disputes on the Russian side with the Washington agreements and the Russians are not able to shoulder any of the financial burden for destroying missile silos.

U.S. intelligence analysts reported that guards at a Russian missile base abandoned their posts to try and get food. In another situation, guards left their post to go fishing because they were out of food.

Col. Gen. Mikhail Kolesnikov, Chief of Staff of Russian ground forces, warned that disintegration of the armed forces could lead to "catastrophic consequences...not unlinked to the possibility of losing control of nuclear weaponry."

During the failed August coup, control of the launch codes for strategic nuclear weapons were in the hands of the plotters for 78 hours. Although the Russians have gone to great pains to reassure the West that nuclear command and control systems remain stable and safe, the main concern is control over its tactical nuclear weapons.

In the midst of "confused current circumstances when Russian ground forces pull back or redeploy from republics, tactical warheads could fall into the wrong hands", said retired Lt. Gen. William Odon, former head of the National Security Agency. Some 3,000 tactical nuclear weapons are stationed in republics other than Russia.

In early 1991, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Colin Powell stressed to Congress that civil war in Russia represents a major threat to the United States. Gen. Powell stated, "Whatever the future state may look like, the land of the Czars and Commissars, after all is said and done, will still possess by far the strongest military force on the Eurasian land mass. The Soviet Union, now and in the future will remain the one country capable of destroying the United States in less than 30 minutes."

With the downfall of the Soviet Union, many small countries are becoming major nuclear powers.

Keep in mind that it does not require long-range missiles to attack an enemy with a nuclear weapon. In fact, it doesn't require a missile at all. A small nuclear weapon can be carried and delivered in a child's day pack and left to be remotely detonated.

NUCLEAR BLACK MARKET

In 1991, detectives in Budapest picked up a satchel filled with metal pellets they had found hidden in the pendulums of some small grandfather clocks in a Hungarian village near the Rumanian border.

The Hungarian detectives, breaking up what they thought was a routine smuggling ring, had discovered enriched uranium pellets stolen from a Rumanian nuclear reactor. Uranium pellets from the same reactor were found in Italy a few months after the Hungarian incident. This time the pellets were sold by another group of Hungarians.

In March of 1992, two Russians were arrested in Munich for trying to sell $1.1 million worth of enriched uranium. The enriched uranium was shielded in lead casing in the trunk of their Mercedes.

In April 1992, a shipment of hafnium was seized by Hungarian customs officials who halted a small truck from Russia. Hafnium is a material used in the nuclear industry to absorb nuclear radiation. The amount of hafnium seized was enough to supply a nuclear industry or a nuclear weapons program for several years.

In June 1992, Vienna police arrested four Hungarians, three Czechoslovakians and an Austrian as they were about to sell three pounds of weapons-grade plutonium to an Austrian middleman. The next day, a smuggling ring of people employed in the nuclear industry was smashed by Rumanian police.

Western specialists believe that 20 to 30 percent of the former Soviet Union nuclear weapon scientists are accepting positions in nuclear weapon production facilities. "Over the next decade or two we almost inevitably expect some of them to disappear to undesired locations," said Harold Muller, a German nonproliferation specialist and director of studies at the Peace Research Institute in Frankfurt.

More than 60 scientists and engineers with nuclear weapon experience and expertise in the former Soviet Union have vanished into the third world. India, Pakistan, Iraq, Iran, and Brazil have made job offers to unemployed nuclear and chemical weapon experts at salaries from $36,000 to $75,000 per year plus free housing and servants.

With the dismantling of thousands of nuclear warheads over the next few years, nuclear weapon products and materials will become even more available. Russia has yet to develop an accounting system for nuclear materials that is even close to Western standards.

SHELTERS

In view of all the chaos, it doesn't take a rocket scientist to realize that today's surplus warheads may just show up on some other missiles aimed at the U.S. or West.

The political representatives who have purchased Subtech ES10 Disaster Shelters (as mentioned up front in this article) were concerned about a number of threats which I am not able to talk about, but one dominant concern was the extreme hatred of Middle Eastern people toward Americans coupled with the "probability", not possibility, of nuclear terrorism.

Then there are the additional concerns of natural and man-made disasters, including nuclear accidents or terrorism, and civil disorders.

This year for the first time, police departments are using ES10 shelters for "remote tactical bases" in the event a police station is damaged or destroyed, as was the case during the Los Angeles riots.

ES10 customers in the Middle East and Europe have demanded some new shelter design considerations which have now been made standard.

The market has demanded a redeployable shelter that is more difficult to detect and target by aircraft using radar, photo reconnaissance, and ground intelligence and the shelter should be able to supply life support for up to one year.

To meet this need, the ES10 now has an all fiberglass entrance way with a bullet resistant steel cap on the top of the entrance way at ground level which floats to allow movement from heavy military traffic and ground movement.

The hatch at ground level now has absolutely no projections such as hinges, air manifolds, latches, etc. It looks just like a flat piece of steel 32 inches in diameter flush with the ground surface.

The entrance way, or command station, is now all structural fiberglass. Even the 90-degree angled entrance way is seamless structural fiberglass.

The traditional method of keeping shelters/tanks in the ground by using tiedowns has also been superseded by "cusps". These cusps negate the need for connecting the ES10 to concrete deadmen or blocks which transmit very concentrated loads to the shelter during heavy ground shock because they move differently under ground than the shelter. These cusps allow the shelter to remain in the ground when the shelter is located in areas where the water table reaches the ground surface. The bottom of the command station now also has a dish to hold the entrance way and one side of the shelter in place. The result is that the ES10 can be installed in maximum water table conditions from start to finish in 10 hours.

The HEPA filter is now a vertical unit inside the command station which can hold over 25 pounds of particulate. This was necessary to allow the shelter to function during desert storms where a very heavy quantity of sand is taken into the HEPA filter which must retain the particulates while allowing fresh filtered air into the shelter.

In a situation where there is heavy debris on the ground from a tornado or blast, an emergency escape may be necessary. However, if there is enough debris to block one entrance way, there is probably enough to block two, so a secondary exit is not considered safe practice. Instead, for an emergency escape, the ES10 has abandoned the hydraulic jack theory in place of a 1.5 -inch diameter stainless steel acme threaded screw jack which attaches to the hatch cover from inside the command station and can lift 6 tons of debris resting on the entrance way hatch cover. An 18-inch long monster wrench is included to turn the large nut which produces the upward force. There is not much to malfunction on this emergency escape system.

LONG-TERM SHELTERING

The ES10 shelter now has an optional Long-Term-Package consisting of a fiberglass grain bin which holds one ton of grain/legumes and a stove/oven with an internal methanol tank to cook all the contents of the grain bin. Subtech Inc. loans a nitrogen cylinder to nitrogen-pack all the food in the grain bin. This grain bin can also be used in a basement and is a much more efficient vapor barrier than the PVC used in 5 and 6 gallon buckets.

There are also more sophisticated radio options in the optional NBC (nuclear, biological, chemical) Package including a 196,000 frequency 12-volt scanner protected by a military EMP fuse.

This radio covers communications for AM stations, FM stations, aircraft, air traffic control, CB, civil air patrol, TV, federal agencies, police, fire, highway, emergency, maritime services, weather, taxis, civil defense, and military communications.

The only problem which users of the ES10 have experienced was due to the water filter used inside the shelter in some Middle Eastern countries. Some water filters became clogged, which required numerous lab tests to figure out why. As it turned out, some of the places where the shelters were installed were filling the 600-gallon water tank in the ES10 from watering holes where camels were allowed to be near or walk through. Lab tests revealed that the water filter was clogged from camel hair and camel manure. I really felt that I had thought of every incident which a person could possibly face in every shelter situation but I missed this one! The new ES10 Owner's Manual will now state, "Keep the damn camels out of the drinking water!" The new water filter was increased 300 percent in size with an absolute micron rating of .65.

Sometime during the spring of 1993 a few military surplus ES10s may be available for sale. The only stipulation is that they not be resold outside of the continental United States.

You may request literature on the ES10 by sending $5.00 (shipping is included) to Subtech Inc., 1381 Blakes Hill Road, Northwood, NH 03261. The 65-page ES10 Owner's Manual is available through Subtech for $30. The fifth edition of PRINCIPLES OF PROTECTION, the U.S. Handbook of NBC Weapon Fundamentals and Shelter Engineering Standards is available for $35 from The American Civil Defense Association, P.O. Box 910, Starke, Florida 32091; phone 904-964-5397. [H: Be sure and tell them where you got the information (from the PHOENIX LIBERATOR) and surprise everyone!]

Even if nuclear, chemical, and biological weapons did not exist, there are still many disasters each year such as tornadoes, power failures, earthquakes, and riots requiring shelter protection. During Hurricane Andrew some families lived out of ES10s. During Hurricane Hugo, one family fed five other families for over four weeks while virtually all the other people had to go days without food and water and then had to wait on food and supply lines. As dangerous as the world situation is now, it could get much worse. However, it is great to see people helping each other during disasters. Some people are at their best in the worst situations. I wish this side of human nature could come out in everyday life. Because if it did, there would be no weapons.

[H: Editors, please include the 4 pictures even though of very poor quality—all you need is an "idea". In fact there could be ways of "planting" several pods in a given location for several families, and/or larger facilities for comfort and convenience, privacy and storage. This entire "compound" could even be covered over with a gentle slope sided "round" dome (flat on top) and planted with grass for more privacy and total non-detection from air photographs. There is much to be done along these lines to allow the passage through these hard times, if you put your efforts toward that instead of either "giving up" OR "going to war". These "tanks" or "tubes" can also be placed lengthwise as elongated facilities which would house a family nicely. The partitioning dividers could be strengthened to give the necessary additional support to the ceiling. These are flexible structures which should give you many ideas regarding the possibilities.]

END OF ARTICLE.

It appears that the war possibilities are becoming more and more a probability in the not too distant future and we need to remind ones that "survival" is not only POSSIBLE but PROBABLE with some measure of preparation.

It is obvious that in cities with no usable space property this is not worthy of note—but even with a small area of yard attached to a house, this is a possible solution. I don't PUSH anything but when I see probabilities looming out there, I shall speak on these matters. I am asked about these things over and over again.

Now, to you who also write and ask for "answers" when you have no funds, no space, no help—I have no answers. Perhaps if you attend your community gatherings you can cause the groups to offer solutions, etc. I can only offer that which is—I CANNOT DO IT "FOR" YOU NOR CREATE MAGIC TO MAKE ALL THE DISAGREEABLE "STUFF" TO "GO-AWAY".

Do I think you have a "little while"? I can't know—but it would appear that things will heat up a lot more before the "big one" in the madman's hands happens. The "natural"-type disasters are already upon you but man will usually sleep through the first several years of these. I simply suggest that you begin to turn your attention to these things instead of "fighting" a system already beyond your control. You can make great impact on even the government as it is structured if you will continue to press for Constitutional function and LEARN how best to cause actions still possible to come about. You can gain massive protection from the system as established if you will stop complaining and learn HOW. The best way to LEARN HOW? Get the back JOURNALS! We have covered everything from survival facilities and gear to Nevada incorporation for sheltering of "stuff". We offer it, we can do no more. Thank you.

Let us close please,
Hatonn to clear.

More On George Green's Slippery Legal Madness

3/16/93 #1 HATONN

WHEN YOU THINK YOU CANT
GO FARTHER, YOU CAN!

*As you walk through the valley of the shadows, yea
even the shadow of death, fear not for I am with thee!*
— Thus sayeth the Lord thy God.

I write first for Gene Dixon of the Constitutional Law Center—for all the world to hear. Faint hearts do not save a Constitution or Truth. The blackmailers shall have to destroy themselves to cause any black marks upon your being. Hold the course and allow us to work this new revelation through to conclusion.

Advice is being given to your immediate enemy by George Green who is manipulating corporations and covering assets of every variety. If you (we) give in to such threats and violations of all honor and integrity—the soul shall never have self-esteem enough to rebuild from the rubble. We shall have to simply consider closing that office of the Constitutional Law Center. Please realize that to uncover any tiny violations of activities against reclaiming of a license to practice non-law is cause to uncover ALL activities of illegal activities by many inclusive. If George Green, Gary Anderson and Sylvia Koons are stupid enough to take this to the point of confrontation in blackmail—then I suggest we "let-'er-rip"!

George's petition to you, Gene, on the yesterday to "arbitrate" is interesting—but, GOD does not "arbitrate" or plea bargain. The laws of man AND GOD have been broken and many, many who have trusted and faithfully served and shared depend upon US, OF ALL, TO DECEIVE THEM NOT—AND THUS, SHALL WE CONTINUE IN TRUTH. George's lies and manipulations have now even put a Nevada Judge in jeopardy as well as Dave Horton, George's attorney. To go into a court of law and commit perjury and fraud is not even acceptable to the injustice system when openly affronted.

The matter of the JOURNAL inventory was already established before the court hearing of yesterday. That was obvious and for George to claim, UNDER OATH, that he has nothing to do with America

West Distributors and further, that America West Distributors OWNS ALL THE INVENTORY is ludicrous. Further, George claimed that the "notes" in point with the Institute were simply paper-work to protect from the University of Science and Philosophy. How interesting since ALL were made long before any contact from the US&P. Further—arbitration??? when now come new charges against Tehachapi Distributing (Rick Martin) and other parties such as the LIBERATOR for "defamation" and other outrageous claims as suggested to them by Mr. Green. If you have not had enough lessons from this criminal element—what more do you need to get your attention?

I continue to ask you readers to refrain from purchasing ANY volumes of our work from America West—Publishers or Distributors. I do not wish our work associated with such blatant liars and thieves. They "think" they are in some little brawl with "the Ekkers"—NO, THEY ARE IN VIOLATION OF TRUTH AND THE WORD OF GOD. GOD DOES NOT COMPROMISE OR ARBITRATE SETTLEMENTS ON A CRIMINAL "WORK-OUT" BASIS.

If necessary, the Law Center shall be closed. The work can continue as is from any office location and perhaps it is time to move it under the sheltering care of my Hosts who accompany me on this mission. When the lessons are learned—then and only then—can the work be accomplished as needed.

Can you not see that if no book is ever again released from America West—we shall not be silenced? As funding is provided ALL can be republished at much lower cost and scattered throughout the lands. We have patience for the house-cleaning—so too must YOU ONES. I, too, am most saddened by Desiree's participation in this heinous activity—but then, man is known by his works and with whom he places his trust and his association. To claim that Desiree Stevens owns all our inventory is giving her no escape from the same fraudulent activity—because no permission was EVER given to do anything with America West Distributors—that was George's business arrangement. Moreover, to sign notes against inventory not his—IS FRAUD! I AM SURE THE COMPUTERS ARE BUSILY SHOWING ALL SORTS OF CUTE DOCUMENTS—BUT IT IS GOING TO BE HARD BEYOND BELIEF WITH ALL THE WIT-NESSES—TO SHOW THAT DESIREE STEVENS GREEN PAID THE PUBLISHER FOR ALL THOSE THOUSANDS OF BOOKS WITH HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS IN GOLD BURIED IN THE YARD AND STASHED IN THE GARAGE. WHAT, TOO, OF THE CLAIM THAT THE JOURNALS DO NOT SELL "HARDLY AT ALL"? WOULD IT NOT SEEM GOOD TO GET RID OF THEM IN EXCHANGE FOR A NOTE TO THE INSTITUTE?? IS THERE SOMETHING WRONG HERE??

So, an aside to Gene—fear not, we shall walk with you right through this valley for you have great gifts yet to give and to receive. Do that which is necessary and allow us to assist wherein we have need. We work always within the Laws of God AND within the laws of the Land.

BY THE WAY—IF THE CORPORATIONS COMMISSION IN NEVADA FINDS FRAUD AND CRIMINAL "APPOINTMENTS" AND RECORDS VIOLATIONS—YOU AIN'T SEEN "NUTTIN' YET" FOR THESE PLAYERS IN THE GAME OF LAW BREAKING DECEIT. THE LAWS OF NEVADA ARE STRUCTURED TO "PROTECT" CORPORATIONS AND INCORPORATORS—NOT DELIBERATELY ALLOW FOR BREAKING OF THE LAWS. THEY ARE MUCH MORE SUBTLE IN THEIR OWN CRIMINAL COVER-UPS THAN TO RISK SUCH MASSIVE DISCLOSURE FROM TWO-BIT CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES. THESE PEOPLE ARE ACCUSTOMED TO THE VERY HIGHEST LEVEL CRIMINALS WITH BILLIONS TO HANDLE—NOT ILLEGAL GUN SELLERS AND SKIVE-OFF ARTISTS.

Please notify Scott that he is also being set-up for problems and "blackmail". He may "think" "they" have nothing with which to use against him—they do! Failure to notify you, Ekkers, of legal correspondence and silent efforting to get release of impounded books FOR GEORGE in secret—constitute ethics violations on the part of an attorney. There are some other things, also, but I would suggest that Scott realize that I SHALL TELL WHATEVER THEY WOULD USE AS BLACKMAIL—TO THE WORLD—IN HIS PROTECTION AGAINST THE ASSAULT. WHEN ONES FIGHT WITH BLACKMAIL AND CRIMINAL ASSAULT UPON ASSAULT DEPENDING UPON THE ZIONIST/KHAZARIAN COURTS TO PROTECT THEM—THE GAME IS UNWORTHY OF THE HONEST PARTICIPANTS. MY PROMISE IS THAT NONE OF OUR PEOPLE SHALL LOSE A THING SAVE DISHONOR FROM THE INDICTMENTS FROM THE MOUTHS AND ACTIONS OF THE ADVERSARY—NOT EVEN A FARTHING WHEN THE "CHIPS ARE PLACED".

Remember, we are NOT in this game to SAVE THE WORLD! We are come to bring the WORD, sort of God's property and creations and bring all into safety who would come. We do not "fight" with swords or lies, we do not battle in the courts of injustice to overturn the system—the citizens of your nations must overturn these vile and wretched systems—for it is the citizens who have allowed such treason. It IS ours to uncover these activities of evil—in TRUTH AND LIGHT where and when we can do so. There are things which must be released unto God and Hosts for final perfecting, however, and then one step at a time, one day at a time will serve its purpose.

Did these people set out in the beginning to commit these criminal activities?

That is not for my projection and it matters not. We are grateful for any good which was given unto us in help and appreciate the lessons given and received. There are great disappointments all along the journey—they must always strengthen and not pull-down the participants.

Mankind is "proving" himself, chelas, through the sorting and purification. If "man" requires that we cease and desist with his passage home into safety and security—then we have no choices save to take the few who see and hear and leave the others to their choices. If this seems harsh, be at peace—it is JUST and wondrously perfect in concept and action. He who plants seeds of truth and righteousness—shall reap a just reward at harvest—he who plants the winds shall reap of the whirlwinds. If a man pulls down his brother through deceit and treachery, so too shall he reap the fall and the treason upon himself.

Consider carefully that which needs doing and DO IT.

APPRECIATION

I am again indebted for input to Tim Burns who shares again with us. The word needs no explanation so we shall just move right along. Please!! Keep in mind that this following projection is one man's studied opinion and does not necessarily represent MINE. However, please KNOW that we would not share with you if it were not fairly accurate in some of the perceptions. T.B. does not pretend to hold all the answers—he only shares that which he has gleaned through years of study and observation—by putting the pieces of the puzzle together. It does not mean that all projections and opinions are totally accurate. Please do not be as the sheep and jump off the cliff because someone thought he knew all the answers and dove off in front of you. It is for you to find the pieces which offer truth and only then, in the final version, shall you have knowing and truth of journey.

REFERENCE REVELATION 13

QUOTING: (cover letter)

Dear Sir:

My work on Revelation Chapter 13 represents many years of reflection and thought. Also find enclosed a single page "flier" I made up. This information needs to get out to every Christian Church in America and world-wide so that when the times become even more critical the people will know how to identify the enemy easily. I would hope that copies could be sent by you to your international bureaus for translation and distribution to churches and patriotic associations in those foreign countries.

I am sorry to say that since the destruction of the Teutonic-European tribal systems by the Romans about 400 A.D., appeals to intelligence, patriotism, self interest, security, or self respect do not, except rarely, seem to have much effect on those Christian people. But they do seem to fight to the death for religious principles when the enemy is well defined and obvious. Witness the Christians in the Roman Empire, the Crusades of the Middle Ages, or the Reformation in Europe.

You are welcome to reprint, edit, and use the enclosed material in any way or at any time you wish. I only hope to do my small part in this gigantic struggle. If the idea should catch on, the flier can be copied for 5 cents each by people everywhere, and voluntarily distributed anonymously, neighbor to neighbor, the same way the word was spread hundreds of years ago.

I would also like to say something about aid to Israel. It is my understanding that the population there is about 5 million people and that annually the U.S. automatically gives Israel about 3 billion dollars. That works out to about $600 for every man, woman, and child. Regarding the proposed $10 billion loan guarantees, should Israel at a later date be forgiven that debt, due to the excuse of war or some other emergency, then that would work out in one year to $13 billion or about $2,700 for every man, woman, and child. If a foreign country should give the U.S. a similar aid package, in one year, it would work out to about $676 billion. Or, if we had given the former Soviet Union foreign aid in the same proportion to its population as we do to Israel, it would work out to approximately $800 billion in one year, far more than the paltry $24 billion just appropriated this year. On top of all this, Israel is probably getting foreign aid from most of the other European nations each year as well. There are approximately 550 Congressmen and 100 Senators, for a total of 650 legislators in Washington, D.C. Theoretically, Israel could bring back just 22% of the $3 billion of annual U.S. foreign aid, which is about $650 million, and give each legislator $1 million in contributions and kickbacks every year, so that Israel would, in effect, be buying the U.S. Government with our own tax money. Fortunately for Israel, the typical U.S. Legislator is not intelligent enough to hold out for $1 million annually and is probably selling himself for a mere few thousand dollars. This example, however, goes far to show how foreign aid has the tendency to unite the legislative and executive branches of government with foreign powers against the interests of its own U.S. citizens.

Respectfully,

T.B.

[H: As you look at this information as regards the Mark of the Beast—DO NOT consider this just another "Jewish" bashing of some sort. This has nothing to do with those who are Judeans thinking themselves somehow "Jewish". This is reference to the Zionist Khazarian group who are self-styled "Jews" who decided to call themselves by this label in the late 1700s. If you cannot sort out the difference, you are in great trouble as to factual historical knowledge and need to apply yourselves to your studies of facts.]

THE BOOK OF REVELATION

13:1 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

The seven heads represent 7 nations composing the Group of Seven or G-7. These seven nations include the U.S., Canada, Britain, Germany, France, Italy, and Japan. The G-7 meet and decide on the World's economic problems and set interest rates and currency valuations world-wide. These 7 nations have been associated as G-7 only in recent history, as the beast takes its final form. [H: Don't get confused with the recent acceptance of Russia onto this board. The G-7 group has never accepted others in the same manner as the original seven participants. Even when you hear the term "meeting of the G-7 now G-8 Group" it is only for cover for there is ONLY A SEGMENT OF RUSSIA WHICH IS ACCEPTABLE.] The 10 horns and 10 crowns are other countries and/or heads of State who will play important roles in the future struggle. The beast, then, is an association of many nations.

13:2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

The leopard's colors are yellow, black and white, symbolizing all races of the world. A bear goes anywhere it pleases and symbolizes world domination. The lion's powerful mouth is full of deadly teeth which symbolize military superiority—"armed to the teeth". This association called the beast, is given power by the dragon who is Lucifer or Satan.

13:3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

One of the G-7 nations is destroyed and later makes a remarkable recovery. This could be Germany, Japan, Italy, or France in connection with World War II, or, it could be the U.S.A. in connection with the Civil War. Which country or incident is referred to doesn't really matter because it doesn't affect the rest of the chapter.

13:4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? Who is able to make war with him?

More people daily follow the ways of Lucifer. The beast emerges supreme in the world after W.W. II.

13:5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.

1. The countries composing the beast control all major forms of communication and education, almost world-wide.

2. The second part of this verse is important and crucial because it holds the key to the successful determination of the beast's birth, age, and death. We are told that it continues in power for 42 months. Biblical time periods are millennium or 1000 year intervals. A month is a fraction of a year. The code word here is month meaning fraction, so that the beast remains in power for 42 fractions of a millennium or 42/100 of 1000 years, or, 420 years. If these calculations be correct, then the next step is to determine the birth date of the beast. To do this it is necessary to determine at what point in time all 7 of the G-7 nations came into existence. Britain, Germany, France, Italy, and Japan have been around for many centuries but the beast is not yet born or complete until the United States and Canada come into existence. [H: Right off, I must point out that this is only ONE part of the Beast at best—just a finalizing of a little Beastlette for THE beast is, of course, as old as human expression. I do not wish to change Tim's presentation for he understands the point he is making—but every "time" segment has figured out the Revelation to meet the needs and circumstances of that "age". What may be more accurate in presentation is to realize that these particular puzzle pieces would fall into the "whole" before the final cycle of experience as expressed through John's vision would come into final realization.] The first permanent settlement in the U.S. was founded in Jamestown, Virginia in 1607. Canada's first permanent settlement was founded in Quebec in 1608. These then are the birth dates of these two countries from which time they began growing and still are today. [H: But you also must realize that these two "countries" are but offshoots of the King Country—England—and therefore do not necessarily need to be identified as three separate nations. You are more under the Crown of the British Israelite Zionists than ever in the history of your planet—RIGHT NOW AT THIS DAY. This is not to distract from your presenta- tion, Tim, because you have done some very insightful calculations—even more important than what YOU "THINK" YOU HAVE DISCOVERED! Let us move on.] The seven heads of the beast, then, were completed in 1608 and 1608 can be considered its birth date. The G-7 association is the beast taking on its final form in the latter days of its life-span. It was in this formation when the Prophet John viewed it during its final days. This unholy association will continue in power for 420 years which puts its death in the year 2028. This date should arrive near the end of W.W. III, or, Armageddon, and the beginning of another millennium,—the 1000 years of peace. These dates coincide closely with certain interpretations of Nostradamus predicting a 27 year war. The first 7 years to be conventional, the last 20 years to be nuclear, beginning sometime in 1993 or 1994. The war will be between the non-Christian axis nations of China, Arabia, and North Africa fighting against the allies who are the anti-Christian-led nations of the United States, Canada, Europe, and the Province of Russia, most of the Provinces of the former Soviet Union having joined China. I say anti-Christian-led nations because the Christian people who live in those countries are the political and economic slaves of the anti-Christ self-called Jews [H: Zionists]. Ironically, it is because of the immense devastation that the allies receive that the Christian slaves finally gain freedom from their Jewish oppressors, who lose their grip and power during the holocaust. The final years of the war, then, becomes the Christian allies fighting against the non-Christian axis, with a final end from exhaustion. There are no winners except for the few survivors who inherit a world free from over-population and the Jewish [H: Watch it! Khazarian Zionist—it will NOT be that which you think of as simply, "Jewish".] 666 dictatorship. [H: You are basically already in the death grip of the referred-to dictatorship and world dominion.] So overwhelming is the latter's destruction that there is peace for 1000 years.

13:6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

The nations composing the first beast blaspheme God, Jesus Christ, and the Bible every day because the major instruments of communication in those countries are so overwhelmingly controlled by the people who follow the second beast; he is defined in verse #11.

13:7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

Witness the aftermath of the Bolshevik Revolution where an estimated 50 million Christians and other Gentiles were butchered and killed by the "Jewish" Bolshevik regime. Karl Marx, Leon Trotsky (Braunstein), and Kerensky were all Jews. (His real name is Aaron Kirbiz; Kerensky was the name of his Step-father.)

13:12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

The second beast, Israel, gets its power from the Jews world-wide in every nation. The Jews world-wide have usually controlled the major means of communication in the nations composing the first beast.

13:13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.

Israel has nuclear capability ready to use.

13:14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

After World War II, it was a miracle that such a small group of people, world-wide Jewry, or the second beast, could control so totally the world media. Through this they agitated the proposal to establish the United Nations for the 'benefit' of the nations composing the first beast. The benefits to the primary inhabitants of those countries is, of course, a deception.

13:15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

The proposal to establish the United Nations was successful and the United Nations went into motion thanks to the efforts of the second beast. The United Nations sends troops to destroy anyone who does not obey its directives.

13:16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

The activities of the second beast acting on the first beast, together combined, cause the people of the world to prostitute or sell their souls—the mark in their foreheads, for money—the mark in their hand.

13:17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

The U.S. dollar is a world-wide currency. You cannot, without much difficulty, buy or sell without it. On the back of the one dollar bill, or Federal Reserve note, is found the mark of the beast. It is the 6 pointed star, composed, in this case, of 13 five-pointed stars. This mark is located just above the eagle. The name of the beast is David or Israel—"the star of David or Israel". The number of his name is 666, the number of the 6 pointed Jewish star. [H: Remember: The "star" in point is not the star of David as you think of as the "House of David"—it is the symbol of David Al Roy—a Khazarian who claimed himself to be THE Messiah.

13:18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

In looking at the flag of Israel let us consider the star in its center:

The star has 6 points

The star has 6 triangles.

The star has a 6-sided polygon inside.

The star has the number and the name of a man: David or Israel.

This star is the mark of the beast! Further, face the facts: The Jews as Pharisees killed the one called "Christ" about 2000 years ago, hence, the name "Anti-Christ". There is no point in arguing this fact since they are still opposed to Him, even to this day, and all the "Judeo-Christian" nonsense you can tout will change not an iota of it.

A LETTER TO ALL ARABS, PERSIANS AND MOSLEMS:

The Christian people of North and South America, Europe, and Russia have been enslaved politically and economically by world Jewry as defined through the Zionist-Khazarian movement. The Talmudic Khazar Jews control the governments of Europe, America, and Russia. They are not true Semites like you, but are mostly of Khazar-Russian-Turkish blood. After the destruction of Jewish Palestine in 70 A.D. by the Romans under the Emperor Vespasian, the Hebrew Semitic Jews scattered world wide and many emigrated to the Khazar Kingdom between the Black Sea and the Caspian Sea, just north of the Caucasus Mountains. There they inter-married with and converted the Khazar race to Talmudic Judaism. The Moslem Caliphate, based in Baghdad, fought Jihad Holy wars against the Khazar-Jew Empire for hundreds of years. The Khazar-Jew Empire rose to its greatest heights of power about 750 A.D. and continued until about 1220 A.D. when the Mongols, under Genghis Khan, smashed and destroyed them. They then scattered among the nations of Europe where they began to dominate in banking, commerce, and government. Some of the wealthiest Jews began marrying into the royal family blood lines of Europe. By 1820, the Khazar Jew banking family, Rothschild, had already taken control over the National Banks of issue of England, France, Germany, Italy, and Belgium. By 1914, the family took control of most of Europe, the national bank of America, "the Federal Reserve System", and laid the foundations for modern Zionism—the idea of Palestine for the Jews and the idea that the Jews will rule over the world.

The 1917 Bolshevik Revolution was the takeover of the Soviet Union by the Jews. Karl Marx, Leon Trotsky (His real name is Braunstein), and Kerensky (His real name is Aaron Kirbiz), the leaders of the Bolshevik Revolution, were all Jews. In 1917, 200 Jews left for Russia from New York with $20,000,000 in gold given to them by the Jewish Bankers headed by Paul Warburg and Jacob Schiff, both founders of the United States Federal Reserve banking system and both agents for the Jewish banking family who controls Europe—the Rothschilds. During the reign of the Bolsheviks in Russia no synagogues were touched, and the Jews are the only privileged people who even today can immigrate to and from the Soviet Union any time they wish.

This is why all of the wars against Israel have failed, because any Arab or Moslem countries receiving Soviet aid were betrayed. Jewish Russia made money selling weapons and technology to those countries but they made sure that the odds were stacked against them. The Moslems received inferior weapons, inferior technology, inferior training but, worst of all, the Moslem military secrets were given to their enemies by Israel. Any time the Moslem world deals with the governments of Europe, America, and Russia, they are in reality dealing with the Jews and their enemy, Israel.

The reason for this implied weakness or inferiority in Christians and Moslems is simple. The Jews always put the welfare of their race and culture above all other considerations, whereas the Christians and Moslems never consider any such thing. When a Jew becomes wealthy, the first thing he does is buy controlling interest in the major means of communication—television, radio, or newspapers, or takes controlling interest in a national bank which creates the currency, in most every country in the world.

The tactic ensures his political safety and future political power. Because the Jews now control 100% of all the major communications media in America, Europe, and Russia, as well as all the national banks in those countries, they thereby completely control the governments of those countries. No Senator, or Congressman, or President can survive or climb in office who opposes them. The Christian or Moslem, on the other hand, when he becomes rich, spends his money on large harems and pleasure yachts and jets. He plays and smiles and laughs, until one day the Jew becomes his master and dictator and expropriates all of his property and wealth and kills or enslaves him and his family. All of the hundreds of billions of dollars from Arab and Moslem oil revenues which are sent to Europe and America for investment is invested and managed by Jewish investment firms so that there is no Moslem control whatsoever in any of the communication media or important banks. This forebodes a very bleak future for the Moslem world because one day, not too far off, the armies and nuclear technology of America and Europe will be mobilized by the Jewish dictatorship to expropriate the land, oil, and wealth of all Moslems. This will all be done under the pretense of war. The times are even bleaker for the Christians for they have already been enslaved within their own countries. These enslaved Christians will fill the armies to fight against the Moslem world. While the Christians and Moslems are killing each other in war the Jew will be the one who will be smiling, and laughing, and pulling all the strings as his power increases.

The Arab-Moslem people of the world must unite and overthrow the hypocrites and prostitutes who rule in countries like Egypt and Saudi Arabia. They are Jewish puppets and one day will be shot or executed like fat ducks too heavy to fly, and their countries and people will be enslaved. The only real balance of power in the world is China. The Jew does not control China. China has full nuclear capability. The Moslem world has oil and sincerity to offer China. It has been predicted by Nostradamus that the Moslem world will unite into a partnership with China and that China will give nuclear capability to the Arabs so that they may remain free from Jewish enslavement. World Jewry was very upset in the 1950s and early 1960s when China independently developed atomic and hydrogen bombs. The Soviet Union promised and worked jointly with China to give China atomic capability but it was all a ruse. China finally broke the Zionist monopoly when a Chinese American scientist defectured to China with the secrets. If these events had not happened then there would be no hope for freedom for any Christians, Moslems, or Orientals (or the Judean "Jews"). And so, my brothers, you must unite with China or we will crush you. We Christians are but slaves to the Khazar Zionist Jews. Like fools and ignorant slaves, we Christians will fill the armies which will be fighting against you Moslems, our real brothers, to enslave you and further enslave ourselves to our Jewish masters. It is too late for us but you still have a chance, but you must unite with our other brother, China. It will only be through a world Holocaust that the Jewish yoke of tyranny can be overthrown. Our hopes are with you. May God bless you always.

Please help distribute the enclosed information, especially to the Christians in America and Europe. When they realize for the first time who the real enemy or Anti-Christ is it will help weaken the Jewish grip.Please put a little of the Billion in oil revenue to work for your own safety and security.

Respectfully,
T.B.

END OF QUOTING

Enough for this sitting, please. I find this quite sufficient to think upon as these days of trial pass upon you.

Do that which you will as you journey through these days of confusion and chaos—but if you remain blind then you shall surely perish as a great nation in freedom.

Salu.

ABOUT ANGER AND THE GARDEN OF ATON

This article has been written in response to a personal request for a study on the subject of Anger by L.F. as expressed in his letters that were "demanded" printed, and were, on pages 57-64 of the 3/9/93 PHOENIX LIBERATOR. While this kind of direct "request" is not exactly how I am accustomed to pursuing scholarly inquiry, I will tackle the matter to the best of my ability. I cannot say I am an expert, yet I have some personal knowledge of the subject as well as access to God's Word on the subject.

To sort and resolve for ourselves the conflicting lies and errors of many centuries on this subject of Anger, not to mention the vast number of interpretations of various "scriptures" and the humanist "New Age" theories on the matter, is a task worthy of a son of God! But...understanding this subject of Anger is also a task necessary to our personal growth.

"Anger" comes in many "shapes and sizes" starting with that of a child deprived of what they want at the moment, to an irascible, petty, egotistical tyrant imposing an ill-conceived and selfish will on others, to a legitimate anger of a generally ineffective person who suppresses their true feelings to the point they erupt in an uncontrollable outburst, and on to the legitimate anger of an interested and knowledgeable person truly aware of a situation who acts appropriately and timely.

There are, of course, many shades of differences between the kinds of anger, the level of self awareness of each person and important others, as well as the level of importance of each cause for displeasure. There is also the circumstance to consider, and this is critical! So — as Hatonn has said many times, we need to have our priorities in order and be discerning as well as responsible.

Every action and reaction starts with the individual. There is no hope of improving any situation until each person deals with themselves first. As Esu said 2,000 years ago, remove the "boulder from your own eye first and then you will be able to discern how best to remove the speck from another's eye!"

In my many years of working closely with humans at a level of crises, I have learned the hard way that the majority of people are in serious conflict with themselves. They say one thing, think another, feel another and do yet something else! Such chaos can only reap more chaos! It also reaps a great deal of anxiety, suppressed anger, depression and irresolute drifting, among other things.

People do not know themselves! Ask anyone what they really feel or think about something. In most cases you will receive an "off the top of my head" response more dependent upon ego, a momentary feeling, or group pressure, than anything else. That is understandable; few want to share or take responsibility for their personal feelings. Unfortunately, very few know their true feelings, even after giving the matter some considerable attention! So — how can you know who you are and what you are about?

Deep inside you is the answer: the Kingdom of God within! How do you get there? With a persevering desire to get there, and with God's help. How do you start? Start with yourself. Examine your emotions. Why do I feel this way? What made me react this way? Do I really feel the way I am acting, or is it some kind of false front? What am I doing? Why am I doing it? Do I need to do it? Is it right to do? What am I thinking? Is it my thought or someone else's? Do I agree with it? Why?

As a wise person once said, "An unexamined life is not worth living." Fortunately, everyone can start the examination on their own life with a little effort. A choice of NOT to know is a choice, for which each person is just as responsible, as they are for making the choice TO know.

The process of knowing is not easy. It is worth every attention and effort you can bring to bear. You may learn that who or what you thought you "hated" you now love, and those persons or things you once "loved" are no longer of interest to you. So — don't be ready to judge too quickly! Your perspective can — and likely will — change dramatically. Be rigorously honest with yourself, even if you cannot be totally honest with others just yet. It is the only way to start knowing and loving yourself. Until you can love yourself, you really have no genuine love to give others — think about it.

Anger is one of those possible responses available to all. It is a natural and appropriate response to many situations. However, we must be aware of our true feelings, our responsibilities, and the true circumstances, in order to begin to deal with anger appropriately.

Anger, out of control, is like a volcano erupting, a lot of heat, debris and damage. Anger can be a warning that something is not right. Therefore, investigate yourself first, the situation next, and then look at the possibility and responsibility for change. If you have become aware of your feelings as they arise, and deal with them in a timely and appropriate way, the possibly destructive aspects of pent-up anger will not accumulate to later explode.

In fact, once we know our true feelings and have been honest with ourselves and others, most situations that end up causing displeasure, error, or worse can be handled with a simple, but firm and clear, resolve, even if that be expressed as a simple but firm "NO!" about the situation. But, of course, not all circumstances fall into that category, and not all people are clear enough to handle even that much with responsibility.

Does God get angry? Should He? If He does, does that mean He is wrong and a "fake" and thus is not MY God? The answer truly lies in knowing God within yourself.

While I would not presume to speak for the Higher Energies of Aton, Hatonn or Sananda, I would point out that much has already been written about God's Laws. I can recommend you read the New Testament and, even more highly, recommend the PHOENIX JOURNAL called, PHOENIX OPERATOR-OWNER

MANUAL, particularly beginning with page 84. Once you come into contact with that "Kingdom within", your own true feelings will likely be more in harmony with God's feelings and you can be a more OBJECTIVE and DISCERNING judge of the matter provoking anger. God IS Light, and that inner self of you IS a fragment of God.

So — was there ever any recorded past time when "God got angry" and it was the right response? (I do not here presume to judge God or His actions — only point out what has been recorded that humans might understand.)

Esu incarnated on Earth-Shan about 2,000 years ago. He was the Son of the Celestial Son, Gabriel. He was trained and prepared for the special task of bringing God's Word to a very dark planet Earth-Shan. It was the Father's (God's) work He was about. He said, "I and my Father are One." He was, in other words, in touch with the "Kingdom within" Himself.

Was He the sort to "unconditionally love and allow"? If you think so, you haven't done your homework! Esu spoke out on the problems of his day. He healed people, but he also warned them to "go and sin no more!" He overturned the tables of the money changers in the temple and told them in no uncertain terms that God's House was meant to be a house of prayer, not a den of thieves! Esu was true to God. He most certainly did not "just allow"! And I would have to expect that He was at least very disgusted with these people if not downright angry, too!

Moreover, His actions were certainly appropriate and necessary, considering the depraved depths to which the priesthood had fallen and how short they were coming up to delivering the true needs of humanity for truth and God's Laws! The important point here is that Esu accepted and carried out His responsibility to Himself, to God, to Creation and to his fellow man. His actions and words were not at all unlike those we sometimes hear from Commander Hatonn. Hatonn speaks out forcefully, for example, to the "money changers" in this "One Nation Under God"—and He does not spare their feelings. They ARE evil! Why would he not address that fact head-on?

Now, does He stop loving them? Well, He may remove Himself some distance from them. Nevertheless, what He says to them is indeed a great — and loving — service to their soul. Who else is telling them about the evil they perpetrate? Only those few others who have recognized the "Kingdom within" and know evil when they see it.

Another example of anger being expressed by one of the Hosts is that of Gabriel when Esu was scourged and hung on the cross. Put yourself in Gabriel's place. How would you, the father of a wonderful son, feel towards the people who were torturing Esu that day? If you believe you would not, or should not, "get angry", then I can only discern that there is something very unnatural AND unknowing in that belief. Remember, you are human, and that means higher universal man! Your very soul would have to be moved by such an event — or you would be as good as soul-dead yourself! According to Biblical accounts, the sky was darkened, there was lightning and thunder, and an earthquake. According to Esu Sananda's account in the JOURNAL called, AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL, I AM SANANDA, these displays were the awesome manifestations of his father Gabriel's controlled, but nonetheless displayed, anger being witnessed that day!

Think about it. Those people persisted in their evil in spite of all the teachings Esu shared with them! What would influence them at all? Well, maybe, at their level of discernment, some "lightning and thunder" at least made them pause to consider what they were doing. In my opinion, Gabriel gave an honest response to an unacceptable situation. That honesty at least let those people know, in a "language" they might understand, what the Higher Forces thought about the matter! The anger was probably palpable in the air that day.

Note that Gabriel DID NOT break ANY of God's Laws. He did not kill anyone. Nevertheless, the perpetrators of the crime will reap what they sow, and, in fact, Gabriel's actions may well have started a few in that evil-minded crowd on a more thoughtful path that day! Those, like most parents, who appreciate the need, at times, for some "tough love" will recognize this response!

There is much in the Old and New Testament that has been borrowed, edited, reworked and made to conform to a "priestly" craft. I have discussed the name "JHVE" in my first series of articles, as well as shown that God's name is Aton! I do not agree with much that is presently part of the Bible. The question of "Jahweh" (AKA Jehovah, JHVE, etc.) being a "God of Wrath" is therefore a difficult problem to resolve. Many scholars have spent years analyzing the Bible, and have arrived at the conclusion that "Jahweh" is included in texts primarily subservient to the priests!

I don't know the origin of this particular set of names. Hatonn and Sananda say that they will answer to many names, depending upon the intent of the person doing the calling. Nevertheless, a way to judge whether a certain text or belief is true is to compare it with God's Laws and the Laws of Creation. If it does not agree, some error has either crept in through ignorance or been deliberately perpetrated for gain of one sort or another.

For example, the Old Testament "God" that instigated wars, etc., would not be in harmony with a God whose Law is "Thou shalt not kill!" On the other hand, many there are who serve that "god", Jaldabaoth, the "son of chaos". Now, "Jaldabaoth" just might start a war, and just might try to kill Esu! Jaldabaoth (AKA Lucifer, Satan, etc.)

would also be the one to rewrite God's word to suit his designs. God is not in conflict with Himself. Man is the one who is so far out of balance as to endanger the Earth and all that is upon her. God has sent His Hosts to warn man. He also gave man a conscience. Will man listen?

If the Earth is destroyed, it will not be God's doing. If man can be brought into some kind of balance, it will be God's doing. What Aton does with the mess we're in is probably not unlike what any father must do with a family far out of hand — only in this case, there are whole universes to consider. At least we can suspect that there will be a great deal of sorting, cleaning, and teaching! That He might be "angry", especially as a father, is a foregone conclusion for anyone who is at all aware of our true situation!

It is my experience that what has been termed in the "New Age" language as "unconditional love", or "unconditional allowing" only conveniently relinquishes one from the less pleasant aspects of responsible behavior or "doing the right thing". Moreover, it ends up entangling one in a path someone else wants to travel, while diverting one from their own path.

This is a choice we must make individually, as Sananda has said in His treatise on "Wrath" (again, see PHOENIX OPERATOR-OWNER MANUAL, page 84): there are no "victims", only "volunteers". I think this "civilization" on Earth-Shan is due for some rigorous "tough love"! On the other hand, we only reap what we sow, and cannot blame anyone but ourselves in the process. Still, we have the opportunity, as each day is given to us, to choose to change our path and therefore our circumstances. Those who follow the wrong "god" will sooner or later wake up to that fact!

Whoever teaches that God is "unconditional love" IS in error! God is Love, Light, Truth. He is also "knowing". He sets CONDITIONS for us to follow — called His Laws and the Laws of Creation! Nevertheless, He is our Father-Mother Creator. While He does not force us to do anything, He does try to teach us. He gave us free will but we are responsible for what we do with it. Therefore, if we don't learn our lessons, we reincarnate again until we do, either here or someplace else. Diplomas are not handed out in this Earth-school just for attendance!

Why does He bother? Because, He does — truly and responsibly — love us. He gave us a special treasure of Himself, and a special home to live on. This "treasure" — a unique spark of Himself — was given within EACH of us and is intended to be found and to be developed and manifested by each, uniquely. The Laws of God are the keys to unlocking this treasure, and mastering those Laws are the key to our graduation! The promise is that if any man shall do the Father's will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God or not. (Ref., John 7:15-17.) God won't change the Laws; the entire universes run in harmony on them. Will the prodigal sons see that and return to the Father? (Ref., Luke 15.)

The Earth and its people are at the time when Aton, who planted this garden of Earth, is returning to harvest the fruits thereof. The "wicked husbandmen" who "stole the fruits" are to be removed, and the "garden given out to others." (Ref., Mat. 20, Mk. 12, Lu. 20.) Is that wrong? It is the way it is and the way Esu taught, according to the New Testament. That God might be angry and take appropriate action is indeed the great hope of many. The need here is to remember, God works WITH you and THROUGH you, not FOR you.

A TIME TO BE BORN, AND A TIME TO DIE, A TIME TO PLANT, AND A TIME TO PLUCK UP THAT WHICH IS PLANTED; A TIME TO KILL, AND A TIME TO HEAL; A TIME TO BREAK DOWN, AND A TIME TO BUILD UP; A TIME TO WEEP, AND A TIME TO LAUGH; A TIME TO MOURN, AND A TIME TO DANCE.

— Ecclesiastes 3:2-4

"TIME" IS BUT A FLOWING SEQUENCE OF THINGS—EACH IN ITS OWN PERFECTION OF EXPRESSION. 'TIS A WISE MAN, INDEED, WHO RECOGNIZES THE NEXT AND LEAVES GO OF THE LAST!

And so too were these very rememberings placed also in Ecclesiastes 3:5-6:

A TIME TO CAST AWAY STONES, AND A TIME TO GATHER STONES TOGETHER; A

TIME TO EMBRACE, AND A TIME TO REFRAIN FROM EMBRACING; A TIME TO GET, AND A TIME TO LOSE; A TIME TO KEEP, AND A TIME TO CAST AWAY.

WILL YOU KNOW WHAT TIME IT IS?

Dharma, it is not yet "time" to put aside those things dear in that which we have labored long in the vineyards—the PHOENIX LIBERATOR. It is not yet time to withdraw in recognition for we have given much to be remembered and, yet, it matters not who speaks or writes the words in Truth—it matters only that they be written.

I have two writings to offer—each seemingly more important than the other and, yet, being unable to do them both at once—we shall move as quickly as is feasible. One subject deals with the total and ultimate manipulation come upon you of Earth and now perfected to the point of presentation all about you—gene manipulation and DNA “replication”.

Then, we have a writing from our friends in intrigue. It would be gracious of us to share right up front some things which shall surely make your reading more pleasurable and give greater understanding but it would seem more appropriate to simply give notations as we move along in the presentation.

These offerings are the VERY ones which are both informative and “dreaded” by our people for the revealing of such is, in itself, a great risk indeed.

As you read, please know that “Com Twelve” is an organization within the Navy Seal Team. This group is dedicated to restore and maintain the U.S. Constitution.

DO NOT, READERS, JUMP TO ANY CONCLUSIONS AS TO SOURCE OF THIS MATERIAL FOR WHEN IT “APPEARED” HERE, THERE WERE AT LEAST THREE PARTIES INVOLVED IN DELIVERY. ALL PARTIES BECOME SUSPECT AND ENDANGERED SO LET US JUST LEAVE PERSONS UNNAMED AT THIS TIME. YOU MUST UNDERSTAND THAT ALL PARTIES WHO HAVE REVEALED INFORMATION ARE ENDANGERED BY LOOSE GOSSIP AND SPECULATION. IF YOU DON'T BELIEVE THAT—THEN LOOK CLOSELY AT THAT WHICH IS HAPPENING TO ONE VICTOR MARCHETTI, WHOSE WORK WE HONOR AND HAVE USED. THE RECENT CIA “SHOOTINGS” AT CIA HEADQUARTERS HAVE BEEN DELIBERATELY LINKED DIRECTLY TO HIM AND HIS SON—ABSURD AND RIDICULOUS BUT THE GAME “AIN'T FAIR NOR JUST”.

THE REASON I feel it fine to have our people present this is because so much of it has been published in one form or another and, now, even a television version of the INSLAW connection with Casolaro's death, that both sender and receiver are not giving enough “new” information as to uncover too much too quickly. Besides, with only 1,400 subscribers to the LIBERATOR, we feel a bit insignificant in the fight to help these daring reporters. We shall see and I further suggest that anyone efforting to “get at them” has to “get through ME!” So be it.

COM-12 BRIEFING

(Activities from 1980 to Present)

The following briefing concerns individuals and events which are keys in the continuing Cabazon-Wackenhut venture and related involvements. While some information has become available to a few investigative journalists and research-investigators, the main body of information has been classified. [H: At any rate of consideration, this will be new information to all but the most select few who work within, or have, the innermost organization itself. At the least, you as readers will find it most interesting.]

Dr. John P. Nichols is the first individual of interest as it is he who first approached the Cabazon Tribe, at the request and support of Wackenhut's Special Interests Group known as Wackenhut World Technologies, Inc. (WWT, Inc.), to offer the Cabazon Tribe (Native Americans) his administrative expertise.

[Editor's note: By incredible “coincidence” the Sunday March 21, 1993 Los Angeles Times has just printed a most confirming article on Nichols and many of the cast of characters you are going to read about below. We find it “interesting” that Commander Hatonn chose to present information about this matter just two days before this story hit the papers. We are reprinting the Los Angeles Times story on pages 24 - 26.]

Dr. Nichols had formerly been known as a labor worker and was commonly referred to as an “International Grantsman”. Dr. Nichols was recognized for his ability to raise funds for a whole host of different organizations, all with differing interests and objectives. Dr. Nichols also spent approximately 10 years in South America, namely in Chile, Bolivia and Brazil. For one year he even took the position of a Coca-Cola Bottling Plant Manager in Brazil despite the fact he holds no credentials or experience to hold any such position for the company. It is believed this move was made at the behest of the Central Intelligence Agency for a related project under way at the time.

Shortly after this period, Dr. Nichols returned to the U.S. and continued his activities concerning collection of funds for various extra-curricular intelligence activities. At this time, he, along with WWT, Inc., took an interest in the Cabazon Indian Tribe. The Cabazon Tribe consists of only 25 Cabazon Indians. Shortly after Nichols became administrator for the tribe, the Cabazons began opening gambling ventures on tribal lands. These ventures were being observed at the time by special agents with the FBI and ATF because well-known members of organized crime groups were also becoming involved.

After setting up the gambling ventures at the Cabazon site, Dr. Nichols began traveling around the country lobbying and proposing a wide variety of military interests for military projects. Dr. Nichols' access to Black Operations funds, as well as international arms merchants, led other U.S. Intelligence Agencies to take notice. The projects discussed by Dr. Nichols concerned the research and development of everything from HMX processing to ABW manufacturing. His meetings and business associations were with the top-level personnel in the defense industry and the Pentagon, such as the Assistant Director for Land Warfare for DARPA.

The legal association concerning Indian land grants and Indian sovereignty has for some time been very attractive to some U.S. intelligence interests as well as Black Rose Operations. Black Rose and other intelligence operatives have realized that their non-Indian administration can gain a substantial profit in a business role with the tribe under the cover of Indian sovereign status. This allows them to conduct gambling operations and other activities without the scrutiny of the U.S. Government. These sovereign status rights have left the tribes open to a variety of ills, such as organized crime involvement and intelligence operations infiltration.

Note: “Rose” is George Bush's code name which has often been “White Rose”. The rose has been historically a symbol in underground societies.

In addition to gambling ventures, intelligence and organized crime groups have found that there are unlimited opportunities for operation of such activities as Toxic Waste Disposal, Conventional and Biological Warfare Arms manufacturing and a whole variety of other questionable activities. These agencies and groups understand that on tribal lands they are only subject to federal laws, which are either non-existent or much more lenient than state or local laws. They can avoid all the checks and balances of the legislative or other government watch-dogs and will not be subject to U.S. law so long as the business is conducted within the reservation territory.

The death of journalist Joseph “Danny” Casolaro [H: I hope all of you watched the episode last week of UNSOLVED MYSTERIES which featured a lengthy portrayal of Casolaro. If not, perhaps you could get a copy for it is very well done, as far as allowed by the "fixed" media.] occurred shortly after he began requesting an interview with Dr. Nichols regarding the Cabazon venture and other subjects. Mr. Casolaro had discovered Dr. Nichols' involvement as an operative in Deep Black Operations.

Part of the operations of illegal activities being documented by a select group of intelligence operatives, as well as a few private individuals such as Mr. Casolaro, was the involvement of these operations in connection to private interests and individuals connected to intelligence groups. One of these groups is Wackenhut.

The Wackenhut Corporation was started by ex-FBI agent George Wackenhut in 1954. The Wackenhut Corp. is involved in everything from regular minimum security contracts up to the protection of some U.S. and private interests with the "Above Top Secret" security status. The Florida-based Wackenhut Corp. holds very lucrative contracts with such government agencies as the Department of Energy, the State Department and NASA. It is also involved with privatized prison operations and management, recently acquiring new contracts overseas. Wackenhut Corp. has also been increasingly involved in the intelligence field. Its operations of a secret operations group known as WWT, Inc. (Wackenhut World Technologies) are deeply involved in the inter-agency struggle among those who wish to maintain a Constitutional Government and those who wish to abolish it.

NOTE: Parts of the CIA and Naval Intelligence are on BOTH sides of the fence regarding Constitutional government.

The president of the Wackenhut group is Richard R. Wackenhut, son of the founder. The company has developed an array of specialized services, currently providing security and investigative services to private business and government in the U.S. as well as over 40 other countries. Twenty-five percent of its annual revenue comes from the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE). These DOE contracts range from protection of the Savannah River Nuclear Plant to The Strategic Petroleum Reserve and all the way to S-4 and S-6 classification facilities for the U.S. Government. It also manages the Department of Energy's Central Training Academy (CTA).

CTA is located deep within the confines of Kirtland Air Force Base in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Actually, it is very, very near Dulce wherein highly advanced technological biological experiments are being done in the underground facilities. It provides and maintains security for all U.S. nuclear weapons and components in inventory as well as Top Secret Security Assets. The CTA is assigned to protect 47 national security sites. Between 3,000 and 4,000 individuals graduate from CTA training cycles each year. Their expertise is in the area of SRT skills, Weapons and Tactics, Crisis Negotiations and Management, Dignitary Protection, Sniper Observation Teams, Tactical Leadership, Overt and Covert Surveillance, Fire Team Tactics, Explosives and Explosives Identification, Armorer and Rangemaster Certification, Advanced Survival, etc. SRT work is divided into three levels—SRT 1: Basic Teamwork and Covert Tactics and Intelligence. SRT 2: Planning and Dynamic Counter-intelligence Factors. SRT 3: Advanced Special Circumstance Training—elite Security Methods, etc. (H & K MP5 A-2, Beretta 92F(M-9), S & W or SIGARMS, Inc. M4506, M4516, M6906, M3906 and M5906 9mm Parabellum Variants. Also SIB/Saver P220 and P226, P225). Graduates of the CTA who go to work for the Wackenhut group are referred to as "Nuclear Snake Eaters". A patch on their uniforms bears the Latin phrases "Ad Finem Terram" on the top and "Fidelis Tamquam Post Mortem" on the bottom. These translate to "To the Ends of the Earth" and "Faithful Even After Death".

The joint venture between Wackenhut and the Cabazon Indians was managed by Dr. Nichols and the Nichols Group. On Wackenhut's Board of Directors is an array of former CIA, FBI, NSA, NSC, ISA and NRO members. The Wackenhut World Technologies Group made several trips to Canada to meet with and attempt to purchase the explosives manufacturing company of Gerald Bull. (Mr. Bull was the designer and seller of the "Giant Gun" being built by Iraq which was destroyed by a joint U.S.-Mossad Removal Team shortly before our military conflict with Iraq. Mr. Bull was then removed in a hit by U.S. and Mossad operatives.) [H: We have written extensively about Mr. Bull in prior JOURNALS so will not interrupt here to speak further about him.]

Wackenhut used Dr. Nichols as its representative to act as a go-between for dealings between the Canadian Co. and the Cabazon Indian Tribe. During the set up of the weapons manufacturing operations at the Cabazon facility several key players involved in the Contra supply effort appeared in person at different times on the reservation as guests of the Nichols family and Wackenhut. These individuals were present for such things as demonstrations of various weapons and advanced night vision equipment.

The Wackenhut Group and the CTA have handled the security of the nation's nuclear arsenals and highly classified sites since being requested to do so by the Reagan-Bush Administration when it privatized the U.S.'s nuclear arsenal. In some instances, Wackenhut took the place of the elite U.S. Marine Corps Black Beret Guard—Special Operations Units.

An individual by the name of Michael Riconosciuto was taken on by Wackenhut and the Nichols Group as Director of Research. Mr. Riconosciuto has a vast scientific background. [H: Before we go further please realize that these are the names revolving within the intrigue of the "Inslaw" case and PROMIS software. Know also that this is THE software which was stolen but is utilized in programming THE BEAST computer system for the United Nations Forces, the United Nations One World Government and World Order.] Riconosciuto studied under Arthur Schawlow, the Nobel Prize-winning physicist who was the co-inventor of the laser. Riconosciuto is extremely intelligent. He has skills in a variety of fields, with an expertise in Electronics, Engineering, and Advanced Computer Technologies.

It was at the Cabazon facility that Riconosciuto received the software package of INSLAW's material known as PROMIS (Prosecutors Management and Intelligence System). The software was borrowed from Nancy and Bill Hamilton (owners and founders of INSLAW company) by the U.S. Justice Department. The Justice Department claimed it was interested in obtaining the program for its department as well as other law enforcement interests. In reality, the U.S. Department of Justice ended up stealing the program.

After INSLAW lent the program to the Justice Department, it was forwarded to Wackenhut and the Nichols Group. It was at the Cabazon facility that Riconosciuto assessed the program and determined what an asset it could be. At this point, Dr. Earl Brian (A Ronald Reagan "kitchen" cabinet member who goes all the way back to E. Meese, W. Clark, etc.) and his associate from the Department of Justice, Peter Videnieks, oversaw the operation to copy and alter the PROMIS software and to create a back door access to the various U.S. intelligence agencies which would remain secret. This backdoor group, 92 countries, will find that they have a very "compromised" system—compromised by the U.S. Intelligence Service—WHEN THOSE COUNTRIES FIND OUT ABOUT THIS LITTLE FLAW THEY ARE GOING TO BE EXTREMELY AGITATED!

Presently, 92 countries have purchased this stolen and altered program. The illegal sales generated hundreds of millions of dollars in revenue. Most of this work occurred at the Cabazon site. Since sale of such intelligence-gathering software to a foreign country is illegal in itself, the property of William and Nancy Hamilton was pirated and sold under the approval and management of the U.S. intelligence agencies and the U.S. Justice Department. INSLAW is now defunct and the Hamiltons are in bankruptcy.

The Cabazon reservation is widely scattered on patches of land that stretch over nearly a 10-mile area, a total of approximately 1,700 acres. There are several different parts to this reservation. There is an underground, multi-operational base on the property. The large Bingo Hall and its expanse of 50,000 sq. ft. can be seen off the left side of Highway 10 if headed toward Palm Springs from the West. Clearly visible off Highway 111 is a huge Southern California Edison power plant being developed (a $150 million project). A $140 million housing project near Avenue 52 on the reservation can also be seen. As it has for many years now, Wackenhut runs the security for the underground installation at the Cabazon reservation. For a time, Wackenhut security personnel were even guarding the reservation meeting hall. The hall is a very small building which was paid for by HUD in an interesting use of funds.

Dr. Nichols, as mentioned, was known as a "grantsman". His most recent grant procurement was from HUD in the amount of $500,000 to create a facility to encourage other development in the area. Despite all the wealth that is being passed through this micro-sized Indian reservation, the grant was to be ostensibly used for establishment of an off-track betting operation. Incredibly, an off-track betting facility had already existed for nearly two years when the grant was given. HUD still granted the funds after a personal interest in the grant was taken by Jack Kemp. The $500,000 was given to Dr. Nichols' sons who currently run the Cabazon operations.

Former Senator James Abaresque was also involved with Dr. Nichols and acted as his attorney. Abaresque was a member of the Senate Select Committee on Indian Affairs. He traveled to Iran in 1979-80 under the direction of Ted Kennedy, supposedly to try to arrange release of the hostages. He has very powerful connections in the Middle East—a personal relationship with Arafat, as well as a number of very highly placed Saudi officials and members of the Saudi royal family.

Dr. Nichols had many connections all over the world with parliamentary officials, royal family members, and presidents, as well as Idi Amin. One of the Cabazon-Wackenhut ventures under the direction of Dr. Nichols was the development of an extremely high-tech and highly advanced electronic as well as physical security network for the Saudi royal family, in particular, one Saudi Royal Palace.

An individual by the name of Fred

Alvarez, a college-educated Cabazon Indian, opposed Dr. Nichols, Wackenhut and the new gambling ventures on the reservations. After making his opposition well known in the press and the public in 1980-81, he received several death threats. He was voted out of his position as Tribal Vice-Chairman of the small, decision-making body of the tribe. A highly placed operative, who is a non-Indian member, flies in privately from Wisconsin for every meeting to act as the group's parliamentarian.

A few months after Alvarez was voted out, he was shot, execution style, at point-blank range, along with two non-Indian friends. The weapon was a .38 caliber automatic. [H: Yes indeed, for you who seem to recognize this information—it has been shared with you prior to this writing—by our friend R. Renick. It is good to see these things come together and in numbers—there is greater safety and security for these daring writers.] Although there were grand jury, state and federal investigations involving many levels for over 3-1/2 years, the case was never solved and no suspects were ever named. However, Dr. Nichols WAS convicted of the "Murder for Hire Scheme" regarding the murders of these three individuals.

Joseph "Danny" Casolaro was the second reporter involved with the INSLAW investigations to be murdered within a 30-day period. On July 29, 1990, Mr. Anson Ng, a reporter for The Financial Times, was found murdered in Guatemala, although his death was ruled a suicide. A third reporter, Harry Ghouli (probably misspelled) also with The Financial Times, has gone into hiding.

On the night of his murder, Casolaro's contact met with him in the parking lot of the Sheraton Inn in Martinsburg, West Virginia because Casolaro was afraid to go to his hotel room. The contact was made between the hour of 5:00 and 6:00 p.m., during which he was given 60 assorted documents, in part, proprietary information from a defense contractor involving a whistle-blowing operation of immense proportions. At 6:15 p.m., Casolaro telephoned his family to tell them he was on Interstate 81 in Pennsylvania and was heading home for a family birthday celebration. And then, just like Dexter Jacobsen in Sausalito, for an unknown reason Casolaro pulled off of Interstate 81.

Mr. Casolaro had declined to take his contact to his hotel room because he feared the room was bugged. His body was found by a hotel maid in his room. His clothes were found very neatly laid out on the bed. An open bottle of wine was on the bathroom floor, yet NO alcohol was found in the body in the autopsy report. There were eight very deep slash wounds on his right forearm (Casolaro was right-handed), and four were on his left forearm. The autopsy revealed that each of these 12 wounds cleanly severed all cartilage, tendons and ligaments in the wrist—an absolute impossibility if the wounds were self-inflicted, yet the death was ruled a suicide. Casolaro also had a large bruise on the upper left inside arm of the biceps. It was estimated that it took about 20 to 25 minutes for him to die.

Wackenhut Special Services Teams, along with NSA officials, informed the Martinsburg Police Department that they would secretly conduct the investigation of Casolaro's death and the police were to maintain this cover. Within three hours of the body being discovered and before next of kin was notified, it was taken to a local funeral home and embalmed. This happened while the corpse was in the custody and jurisdiction of the Martinsburg Police Department. Casolaro's hotel room was also industrially cleaned. Assisting in the cover-up, the Martinsburg Police Dept. assured concerned family and friends who voiced their suspicions of a murder and not a suicide, that the crime scene was being protected and that no official finding regarding his death had been made.

Michael Riconosciuto is the next one on the list. His wife Bobbi and their children are also in grave danger if Mr. Riconosciuto decides to talk.

STOP QUOTING, THIS SEGMENT.

A question which seems to come up with this information is: "Is it from Russbacher" and "Can we trust it?" What do you mean? Go check it out for yourself and what difference does it make from where it comes—if it be truth?

"Well, we aren't yet too sure about Russbacher because he says he....this and that." Forget that nonsense, readers, and enjoy the information and the knowing. I will, later, share a dedication written to his brother, by Russbacher, and you can do a little discerning for self—STOP THE JUDGING! JUDGEMENT, REMEMBER, IS LEFT TO GOD AND SELF! WIPE YOUR OWN NOSE BEFORE ATTENDING THAT OF ANOTHER, PLEASE.

Let us have a short break, please.
Hatonn to stand-by.

CONTINUED QUOTING: (We will take up where we left off—with Mr. Riconosciuto.)

COM-12 BRIEFING
(Activities from 1980 to Present)

Charles McVay, involved in the Star Wars Software Scandal and the TOW Missile deal with Iran, is the foremost technobandit of the decade. McVay was set up in 1987 in an attempt to bring him back into U.S. jurisdiction. Presently in a hospital in Canada, he has won two cases of extradition against the U.S. and is about to be involved in a third attempt by the U.S. Justice Department. McVay also operated as a deep immersion agent for the KGB since the late 1960s. He is an associate of Michael Riconosciuto. [H: No, readers, this is NOT some science fiction or James Bond intrigue—THIS IS TRUTH AND THAT, IN ITSELF, IS WHAT MAKES IT SO INCREDIBLY UNBELIEVABLE—AND YES, RIGHT HERE IN THE GOOD OLD U.S.A. AND RIGHT IN YOUR OWN G-O-V-E-R-N-M-E-N-T!]

Riconosciuto was a CIA operative who wanted OUT of "The Company". He contacted Mr. Hamilton of INSLAW in May of 1991 and fed the Hamiltons classified information on "The Network" and its operations and how they had screwed INSLAW. Riconosciuto called the Hamiltons from pay phones—anonously (or so he thought). He was actually being watched and tracked by a Special Intelligence Assignments Group. He soon realized his life was in danger.

On March 21, he did what is called an "Outing" by authoring and signing a statement which was COMPLETELY DEVASTATING to the U.S. Government. In the document, he detailed that the U.S. Government, specifically the CIA, was using Indian reservations as sovereign nations to manufacture and produce arms of high sophistication as well as general arms to support the Nicaraguan Contra effort.

BLACK ROSE ORGANIZATION

The Black Rose Organization originally funded the "Black World Order" with proceeds from two areas. One, in Southeast Asia, is known as the Golden Triangle. The other area lies on the border of Iran and Iraq, and between Iran and Afghanistan and is known as the Golden Crescent. The drug-proceeds from these two areas wound up deposited in Nugen-Hand Bank in Australia after Dr. Earl Brian carried the bank codes out of Southeast Asia using formal diplomatic immunity. In Australia countless banks and persons were ruined when two operatives by the names of Frank Nugen and Michael Hand went into action. Frank Nugen was later "terminated" (listed as suicide). Michael Hand fled Australia with all the money from this so-called Black Fund.

Hand is currently the most-wanted individual the Australian government has its sights on. He is living in the Middle East under the protection of an Islamic group by the name of the "Gray Wolves" which is in a strange way connected to the Black Rose. Interestingly enough, it is the Gray Wolves who were behind the last assassination attempt on the Pope due to mind-control operations used on the unwitting victim (attempted assassin). This Black Fund next surfaced in Honolulu at BBR&W (Bishop, Baldwin, Renwald & Wong) before it disappeared again.

Michael Riconosciuto is the son of Marshall Riconosciuto, a former business partner of Richard Nixon. Marshall is a former long-time business associate and very close friend of W. Patrick Moriarity. In 1985, Moriarity was sent to jail for bribing government officials.

To illustrate their involvement, in 1984, Moriarity and Marshall Riconosciuto filed bankruptcy on a corporation they both founded known as Pleasanton Properties. Along with their personal attorney, Henry Baer, they had purchased a 940-acre stretch of canyon land. Previously owned by Sinbad 720 of Honolulu, the property was a political front. Mr. Moriarity had obtained a loan of $1.3 million from California-Canadian Bank based only upon his signature. When he got into the financial difficulty with Pleasanton Properties, a deal was struck with the East Bay Regional Park District with a letter of credit. Subsequently, $1.6 million in profit was laundered through to Moriarity as he sat in prison. Bank of America is one of the CIA's premier institutions for Black Fund transactions and operations. This is especially true of the Vienna and Swiss branches.

The largest white heroin bust in history occurred in Hayward, California and is partial proof of the scale of the involvement. The Chang family was all arrested and cars, homes, boats, and properties were all seized by the DEA. However, no one seized the warehouse in which the drugs were found because the warehouse was owned by Bedford Properties. Peter Bedford and his wife Kirsten are also known for Kemper Life Insurance out of Chicago. [Editor's note: Could this be the same family George Green speaks of so fondly?] Despite the fact that everyone knows that new federal law states that the DEA and the federal government immediately and automatically seize ALL property in and on which illegal drugs are found, it was not done in this case.

Casolaro's phone conversations, which were being monitored by the intelligence team assigned to him, revealed that one week prior to his death he stated to close friends that, whereas he had always denied any belief that the U.S. Government was involved in drug sales to support its covert operations, he was suddenly CONVINCED IT WAS TRUE.

The House Judiciary is at this time in possession of documentation supplied by Michael Riconosciuto which contains incriminating evidence of some of these operations.

Getting back to the aforementioned BBR&W of Honolulu, the next phase of the Black Fund's annihilating effect was to heavily hit investors in the Northern California area. The money again disappeared. The people that had invested in the general partnership lost everything they had. The U.S. Government refused to help them seek restitution. Renwald went to jail for a very short period of time. Renwald was also a victim of "suicide" by slashed wrists, but he managed to survive.

Anson Ng, the reporter who was killed in Guatemala, went there for two reasons. He was attempting to trace the Black Fund, which now reappears with the BCCI incident. Also, he wished to make contact with an eyewitness to the CIA triple execution at Rancho Mirage who happened to be a bag man for the money. This man was James "Jimmy" Hughes who had fled to Guatemala when he learned that a contract or a sanction had been placed on him by the family in charge of the Cabazon Indian Reservation, namely the John Peter Nichols family. John Nichols father, Dr. John Philip Nichols, was formerly involved in the hit of President Allende of Chili and was also an associate of G. Wayne Reader, a CIA operative involved in the Silverado Savings and Loan fiasco along with the President's son, Neal Bush. G. Wayne Reader and Neal Bush were also involved with the now insolvent San Marino Savings & Loan. Reader was also the owner of the Palm Desert Golf and Country Club.

Jimmy Hughes, the bag man for the money for the triple execution of Fred Alvarez and his friends, fled to Guatemala after a lawsuit was filed against him by G. Wayne Reader alleging that Hughes had made an attempt on his life.

An operative helped Jimmy Hughes, taking him into safety. This operative is also currently in hiding. This individual is closely connected to the downfall of Sid Shaw and Centennial Savings & Loan. This debacle resulted in the "unexpected death" of Mr. Hanson and the brief but illustrious life of Beverly Haines. Beverly Haines had accrued many enemies, two of whom were involved with the U.S. Justice Department. One was former U.S. Attorney Joseph Rucinello and the other was former Assistant U.S. Attorney Peter Robinson. The Centennial Savings and Loan fiasco also links former Congressman Doug Bosco.

[H: Now, you readers, please understand why Dharma might just be "passing out" right about now—because this same bunch of criminals right down through the Municipal Court Judge just writing about her in the local paper—is a part and parcel of this whole S&L-RTC crime ring—whether or not he even realizes as much.]

had filed a complaint with the Justice Dept. in 1986 regarding the misconduct of a man by the name of Charles Duck. Duck was bankrupt in 1968 and was later appointed by Conley S. Brown, the now-deceased judge from Eureka, to become a bankruptcy trustee. Mr. Duck is currently in the Sheridan Federal Prison in Sheridan, Oregon serving time for the largest embezzlement by a bankruptcy trustee in U.S. history. His attorney is the aforementioned Peter Robinson who was the Assistant U.S. Attorney investigating Centennial Savings & Loan. Robinson personally apologized to Beverly Haines for having to convict her. But he also was appointed, in direct violation of the "Revolving Door Policy", by Marilyn Hall Capell to represent one of the largest drug dealers from the Columbian Cartel. His client, Mr. Pasera, received a 40-year sentence.

A reporter by the name of Virginia McCullough contacted the Justice Department to make inquiries and request an investigation as to why Peter Robinson had been assigned these investigations in direct conflict with the "Revolving Door Policy". She also wrote a letter to the House Judiciary at that time because she and her husband had met with members of the Justice Department on August 15, 1989. At that time, they were told to cease and desist or it could get violent. Needless to say, they were outraged.

On August 30, Mrs. McCullough and her husband were returning to their home in Alameda County after stopping at a McDonald's to get dinner for the family. As they pulled into their isolated property, they witnessed a man run out of the back door. When he saw them, he ran back into the house, which he had already set on fire, ran past her children and out another door. At this point, a car abruptly pulled up, the man jumped into the passenger side and the car sped off. The McCullough children were uninjured but the house did burn completely due to its isolated location. Mrs. McCullough filed complaints with the Alameda Sheriff's Office, as well as writing letters to the U.S. Department of Forestry (who extinguished the fire), the U.S. Attorney and the FBI. Nothing was done regarding her complaints.

Dexter Jacobsen, whose body was found in August of 1989 in Sausalito, was investigating corruption in the federal bankruptcy system and reporting back to the FBI about it. He was found murdered under very strange circumstances. Among the many subjects of Jacobsen's investigations was the aforementioned Charles Duck. The FBI only audited three of the 1,500 cases of which Charles Duck had control, because, as the bureau publicly stated, "they didn't want to beat him over the head." The reason for this bizarre reaction from the FBI was because Duck shared four bank accounts with John L. Mullinari who ran for mayor of San Francisco in the last election. John Mullinari and the Trioni Brothers managed to tie up all of Mr. Duck's assets. Mr. Rucinello is fighting to keep from giving one dime of the bond money to any victim. Their companies have successfully disallowed or tied up in litigation any repair to the bankruptcy victims for the rape of their assets by Charles Duck. At this point the Justice Department had been hearing complaints from many hundreds of victims of the Savings & Loan Scandal for four years.

A woman by the name of Susan Uecher was the successor trustee in one bankruptcy involving a man named Bill Connely. Susan Uecher, on four separate declarations and as a matter of court record, threatened the life of Bill Connely if he were to set foot on his own property. The threat to his life was actually recorded by a woman by the name of Betty Ann Bruno of KTVU when she and her news crew accompanied Connely to Oregon as he attempted to set foot on his own property. Susan Uecher is also the successor trustee to Charles Duck in the Paul Sonowski Bankruptcy in which Dexter Jacobsen was the contingency attorney suing.

There was one individual in all of this who apparently was an honest man. He is a U.S. Bankruptcy Trustee who was placed there to "clean house". His name is Anthony Souza. When Mr. Souza tried to clean house, he was called back to Washington and was met by several CIA officers and Justice Department officials. He was told that they didn't want things "quite that clean". They then shut him down. They did this politically by removing his personal assistants—assistants he had worked with very efficiently and well. This was also accomplished by putting moles into his office and eventually calling him back to Washington and telling him to "shut up".

In court, Mr. Robinson, representing Duck, stated that his client had passed the polygraph test when he denied mismanagement of funds. For the record, Judge Souza said HE DID NOT. Although the polygraph results were never resolved, Duck was sentenced to 2-1/2 years and shortly after went to prison.

Through his sources, Casolaro had obtained the "declaration" written and signed by Michael Riconosciuto. Riconosciuto, through third parties, had managed to supply enough documentation to back up some rather preposterous claims. After reading the material, Casolaro realized to what extent things really were involved. Casolaro had received 60 pages of whistleblowing documentation on a major defense contractor. The material was "repossessed" that night by the assignment team from NSA and Wackenhut.

In April of 1991, the House Judiciary Committee met with Riconosciuto in Washington and afterward asked him for proof of his credibility by supplying them documents. Riconosciuto requested the documents in question from his attorney and asked that they be clearly marked "Lawyer-Client Privilege". By law, this is the only type of mail which is completely exempt from search and seizure by any government entity. When the documents were received by the jail in which Riconosciuto was incarcerated, jail officials admit they opened the documents and then refused to forward any of them to Riconosciuto. They immediately contacted the NSA which sent out a team to review the material. As of December 1, 1991, the NSA still refused to comment on when the documents would be forwarded to Riconosciuto.

One of Riconosciuto's associates who had managed to send him this material had in the meantime contacted a couple of attorneys. One of these attorneys was a very high-profile attorney by the name of Dennis H. Eisman. Eisman, also known as the "Fatal Vision Lawyer", was the attorney in the Jeffrey McDonald case. Eisman was scheduled to come out to meet with a third attorney and visit Riconosciuto at the Pierce County Jail in order to represent him.

Wackenhut and the CIA became extremely irate over this arrangement. Shortly afterward, Eisman was found shot to death in Philadelphia, from a single bullet to the chest. Before the story of his death went public, the government issued an Associated Press report announcing that the Justice Department was going to bring down indictments against Eisman and other named attorneys for money laundering and dealings in narcotics. It could therefore be assumed, the story continued, that Mr. Eisman had not been killed but rather, feeling cornered and quite despondent, had killed himself in the basement of his office's garage, sitting in his car.

The indictments were phony—they never surfaced and no one has bothered to follow up on this. Eisman had been scheduled to fly to Seattle to meet with Riconosciuto the day after his death. Knowing this, the team searched for and removed Eisman's plane tickets to Seattle as well as Riconosciuto's documents.

At this point, Peter Videnieks of the Justice Department, who had served as Contract Officer on INSLAW, threatened Riconosciuto. Videnieks told Riconosciuto that if Riconosciuto were to continue to cooperate with Jack Brooks (Congressman), the House Judiciary and the INSLAW people, he would be indicted along with his friends from Los Angeles. One of these friends Videnieks was referring to was Mr. Ferrante of Consolidated Savings & Loan. There had been an attempt on Mr.

Ferrante's life which was very nearly successful. In the first reports that he gave to the police, Mr. Ferrante indicated that he felt it had been an attempt by the Israeli Mafia.

In tracing the $40 million that was paid in the "October Surprise", we come to Alan Michael May. [H: By the way—one reason some of our friends stay alive and better off than others is that, in at least one instance, the party was the "banker" for the money and carries the bank account numbers ONLY IN HIS HEAD. Further, he is known for lapses in memory, especially under pressure—so that the numbers are programmed to completely escape conscious recall.] May, a former Nixon campaign financial aide, wired the money to the Iranians in October of 1980 as a downpayment on the hostage deal. On Wednesday, June 19, he died of an apparent heart attack despite the fact he was 50 years old and in perfect health. His death occurred four days after the Napa Sentinel reported his connection to the October Surprise. On June 14, May told relatives that he had been threatened and he knew his life was in danger. In a phone conversation with Riconosciuto, May was recorded telling Riconosciuto to "Sit on your fat Italian ass and keep your mouth shut, or we're all going to be dead."

In Alan May's case, his autopsy report released on July 26 stated he died of pulmonary failure, with complications of diabetes. Also listed as a contributory cause was poly-pharmaceuticals or many drugs in his system. A cross reference with the drugs that had been prescribed to him brought to light the fact that these were not the only pharmaceuticals found in his system.

In every one of these deaths there is one common factor—the residence is broken into, their computer banks are raided and personal notes, diaries and files are confiscated. In the case of Dexter Jacobsen, two days after his death his office was broken into twice and his apartment once. In Anson Ng's case, the ISA instructed the Guatemalan government to retrieve the floppy discs and his personal papers regarding his investigation. It did so and turned them over to a U.S. intelligence agency. In a press conference a few weeks later, Senator Alan Cranston requested that these items be returned but they have not. After the killing of Alan May, Riconosciuto was told that his wife and children were in grave danger.

The 1981 government contract-hit of Fred Alvarez and his friends occurred in Rancho Mirage. Alvarez had been working for the Nichols family, specifically, for the senior Nichols in the security field. In 1985, Linda Streeter, Alvarez's sister, contacted 20/20 and managed to get Geraldo Rivera and Barbara Walters to do an investigative report on the situation. During their report, Rivera and Walters detailed the changes of the Indian laws which resulted in the control of the reservations by "non-Indian" business managers. After 20/20's report, Governor George Deukmejian reopened the investigation of the three murders for hire.

The man in charge of the investigation was a detective with the Riverside District Attorney's office by the name of Gene Gilbert. As a result of the investigation, it was determined who had ordered the execution and how much money was paid for the hit. However, the investigators were never able to get an indictment handed down from the Grand Jury due to extreme pressure from the NSA through the Justice Department.

During the investigation, when Detective Gilbert made repeated requests to interview Riconosciuto, they were always denied. Because Riconosciuto was being prevented from seeing an attorney and therefore had no legal representation, he could not get or have access to his papers or files and was even denied access to a law library to defend himself. Thus, he decided to work through people in the media.

At that particular time, the Justice Department shipped him out to the Bureau of Prisons facility in Springfield, Missouri for Mental Competency Hearings. While in Springfield, several of the media people who had become involved made arrangements for Detective Gilbert to fly to Springfield to finally obtain an interview with Riconosciuto. When the NSA found out about the proposed interview, they quickly flew out a U.S. Attorney who stopped the interview after only 45 minutes and immediately had Riconosciuto flown back to Washington.

The NSA and Wackenhut then proceeded to determine exactly what information had been discussed during that 45-minute period. What they found out tied the noose on Riconosciuto's life line. Riconosciuto had revealed which Wackenhut operative had acted as the primary triggerman in the Alvarez murders.

Riconosciuto is now back in Tacoma, Washington at Pierce County Jail. He is being held in solitary custody to prevent him from talking to anyone. [H: Please understand that we do not know WHEN this document was written so cannot verify accuracy of locations, etc.] He is in grave danger because the Bureau of Prisons has repeatedly ignored and then refused attempts by Riconosciuto family and friends to get him medical equipment needed to sustain his life. This is due to the fact that he is very obese and suffers from the condition known as Sleep Apnea which requires a machine to trigger breathing at night should the sufferer stop breathing. The Pierce County jail authorities have repeatedly denied allowing this necessary medical equipment to be brought in.

Dr. Earl Brian never finished his medical internship at Stanford University, quitting a full quarter short of completing it. Despite this, he went on to serve under then-governor Ronald Reagan. He identifies himself as a neurosurgeon. This is a falsehood since he never finished his internship, let alone residency. Dr. Brian was, however, a key Reagan aide and was heavily involved with the intelligence community and Naval Intelligence Prison's Mind Control Programs, (MK/ULTRA. Book: Journey Into Madness, by Gordon Thomas) most notably the abortive UCLA Center for the Study & Behavior of Violent Behavior. Also to be considered is the fact that EACH of the 24 members of the Cabazon Indian Tribe was sent during this time period to a "clinic" for some type of psychological program for alcohol or drug treatment.

The Cabazon "business Committee" of which Alvarez was a member until his death, is very closely controlled by an attorney by the name of Glen Feldman who resides in Phoenix, Arizona. Prior to this position, Feldman was the business partner and law partner of the aforementioned Senator Abaresque from South Dakota, who is now retired and in private practice. Senator Abaresque acted as a representative for both the Iraqi and the Iranian governments. Abaresque and Feldman also worked together to help draft the 1978 revisions to the Bureau of Indian Affairs laws which have been so resented by the Indian communities of the nation.

Linda Streeter and the Indians who have joined her cause to have her brother and his friends' murders investigated have now been officially labeled as dissidents by the Justice Department and the federal government. The three Wackenhut security members involved in these Rancho Mirage executions were themselves done away with in a Helicopter Crash which occurred on the Groom Range (Area 51) of Nellis AFB, Nevada.

One of Casolaro's contacts was an Alan David Standorf. Standorf was one of Casolaro's main suppliers of documents that directly exposed the government's connection to Savings & Loan failures, international drug smuggling, bank scandals, and Mafia ties. Standorf was employed by the NSA and NRO in a very restricted and sensitive Secret Communication Center. At the center he could listen to and intercept message traffic (crypto & codex) from the intelligence community.

Casolaro and Standorf had set up a Nerve Center for operations involving the duplication of sensitive documents. High-speed Xerox commercial duplicating and collating machinery was installed in Room #900 of the Hilton Hotel in West Virginia to provide Casolaro copies of all documents and to allow Standorf a location and time to return the documents back to their original storage files.

After Casolaro's murder, Standorf's body was found in the rear seat of his car, under luggage and personal items, at Washington's National Airport. He died from a massive blow to the head.

Riconosciuto, a primary electronics expert for the U.S. intelligence community, was arrested seven days after providing Congress with testimony in the INSLAW case. When his attorney Dennis Eisman was to have picked up critical information in the case which was destined for Casolaro and Riconosciuto, he was found shot to death. Some of the individuals and companies Casolaro was following leads on at the time of his death are: Dominic and Bob Balsano, Gemini Industries, The Papago Indian Tribe, the Menominee Indian Tribe, The Cabazon Indian Tribe, The Primerit Bank of Nevada, BCCI and 312 other related financial institutions, Dr. Earl Brian, Peter Videnieks, Community Banking of Southern California, Home Savings and Loan of Seattle, Theodore Strand, Robert Booth Nichols, The Department of Commerce, and the Wackenhut Corp.

Casolaro was also investigating the links between the deaths of Indians and journalist Don Bolles who was killed in a car explosion in Arizona in 1976. [H: I am asked to herein note that this is "right on" and books with proof are: The Underground Empire by James Mills and The Arizona Project by Michael Wendland. It must also be noted here that Senators Montoya (NM) and Glen (AZ) (and also one of the "Keating Five") have both been involved in the "reservation" situation.] (In 1980, a jury found John Harvey Adamson guilty of first-degree murder in the death of Bolles). Also being investigated by Casolaro was the gold & platinum smuggling that came from Southeast Asia, through Mexico and then through the Papago Indian Reservation in New Mexico. This was done through a "clearance corridor" which, due to an inter-agency agreement, the DEA refused to patrol.

Another matter he was investigating was the IBM/Tel-Aviv connection linking the use of INSLAW's PROMIS software to Israeli intelligence. Casolaro was also in touch with Alan Michael May, the bag man for the $40 million downpayment made for the Iranian Hostages. Casolaro was also in contact with Bill Hamilton of INSLAW and was scheduled to meet with Videnieks and Brian at the approximate time of his murder. He kept all six of his file folders with his accumulated documents and information with him at all times. Just before his alleged meeting, he left the files locked up at his home, telling relatives he felt they were safer there than traveling with him. In a search of his house after his death, NO documents were found.

Peter Zokosky also had a close liaison with Casolaro. Zokosky had previous dealings with the Cabazon Indians at the time the INSLAW software was being converted for Canadian intelligence. He also knew about the manufacture of chemical and biological weapons for the Contras through the joint venture of the Nichols family and the Wackenhut Corp. Casolaro was in the possession of documents which detailed such things as a bank in New England which has $400 million in phony bearer bonds that are being used for collateral because the bank's money has been siphoned off. Other documents detailed another bank's multi-million dollar loans used to finance drug deals which were based on only a few thousand dollars of collateral.

STOP QUOTING, THIS SEGMENT.

Let us take another short break as this segment is becoming too lengthy for a suitable "chapter". Thank you.

CONTINUATION OF QUOTING:

COM-12 BRIEFING

(Activities from 1980 to Present)

THE PROMIS PROGRAM

The PROMIS program which was stolen by the Justice Department was to act as a Caseload Management Program for the department's massive caseload problems. Ed Meese's associate, the aforementioned "Dr." Earl Brian, was given control of pirated versions of the PROMIS program by Meese in order to sell it back to different U.S. government agencies for a very sizeable profit. Two U.S. courts have sided with INSLAW in their case against the Justice Department and awarded them an $8 million judgement. However, a higher court of appeal has overthrown the verdict, declaring that it was not within the jurisdiction of the lower courts.

On October 9, the case was added to the workload of the United States Supreme Court. Earl Brian owns UPI (United Press International) and FNN (The Financial News Network). The awarding by Meese of the software pirating venture was a "thank you" gift for Brian's role in arranging the October Surprise—the conspiracy by the Reagan Administration under the control and direction of Vice Presidential Candidate George Bush to delay the release of the Iranian hostages until after the 1980 election.

NOW TO RUSSBACHER AND
OCTOBER SURPRISE

[H: Just a point in passing to you who say you have read this and read that and thus and so—would it not be more plausible to hear from someone WHO WAS THERE IN PERSON, FLEW THAT SR-71 WITH BUSH IN THE COCKPIT (ON CAMERA) AND STOP THE NIT-PICKING ABOUT "WHO KNEW WHAT" AND "WHEN"? It would certainly seem appropriate to me. Yes indeed, there will be a book on the matter by this author in point—but right now we have to settle for that which is available and give our best efforts to security and safety.]

Navy Captain Gunther Russbacher was the pilot who flew the specially converted SR-71 carrying then Black Rose Chairman George Bush, CIA Chief William Casey and CIA operative Donald Gregg (among others). They met with Ali Akbar Hashemi Rafsanjani (speaker of the Iranian Parliament), Mohamed Ali Rajai (future President of Iran) and Manucher Ghorbanifor (an Iranian arms dealer with connections to Mossad). Since making allegations regarding the meetings in May of 1991, Russbacher has been in jail, convicted of a charge of impersonating a U.S. Attorney. He is currently being held at Terminal Island (Federal Prison, CA). [H: This was true at the time of this original writing, however, he is now being held in Jefferson City, Missouri with added "State" charges.]

Michael Riconosciuto is currently in jail awaiting trial on charges of "conspiracy to sell drugs". These charges were concocted by the Justice Department to silence him until damage Control Procedures are carried out. The charges were made one week after Riconosciuto authored and signed his affidavit describing the operations, along with his personal involvement, of stealing and modifying the pirated PROMIS software. He detailed how Justice Department employee, customs official, and CIA operative Peter Videnieks threatened (over the phone) the lives of Riconosciuto's wife and children if he proceeded with his public "outing" of the operation. Videnieks was a frequent guest of the aforementioned John P. Nichols (Tribal Manager) who was actually Riconosciuto's boss in several projects conducted on Cabazon Reservation land. The PROMIS software modification was just one of these projects.

As mentioned, the PROMIS software was modified to install a "rear entry" or "back door" (very important) which could then at a later time be accessed for use by the NSA or other U.S. intelligence groups, or...the Black Rose. This accessing could be done without any of the prospective "buyers" being aware of it, so that files or information could be retrieved at will from any foreign country that the U.S. sold it to. The pirated and modified software was then sold to over 90 countries as the operation known as "Keys to the Kingdom" was commenced. The countries included Iran, Iraq, Syria and Libya. Riconosciuto's expertise with computers, electronics and armaments was fully utilized.

The status of Indian Reservation land as "sovereign" enabled CIA, NSA, Wackenhut and elements of organized crime to conduct business in a totally new way—out of the sight of any government overseers or Congressional or Senate snoops. One project of the "Network" currently underway on the Cabazon Reservation involves a joint venture with Southern California Edison Company. This "project" will soon be generating electric power from Bio-mass drawn from local waste outlets. Biological Warfare projects are also under way at Cabazon.

Advanced Warfare projects such as "Pathogenic Viruses" (co-engineered with Stormont Laboratories) are also being conducted at the Cabazon Reservation. Enhanced "Fuel-Air Explosive" weapons are also being manufactured at Cabazon after they were created and tested with the assistance of Meridian Arms at the Nevada Testing site. These weapons are so advanced they match the explosive power of some nuclear weaponry.

This type of Advanced Weaponry gains its power from polarizing the molecules in the gas cloud by a modification of the electric field, a technology developed from Thomas Townsend Brown's suppressed work. Riconosciuto was one of the weapons technicians who worked with this weaponry. He was familiar with it as he had worked with it previously at Lear in Reno, Nevada. Lear's father worked on anti-gravity engines. Riconosciuto worked for a time on the Fuel-Air Explosive Weapons with the aforementioned Gerald Bull of the Space Research Corporation. Bull later became an arms advisor to Saddam Hussein. Hussein also now possesses the Fuel-Air Explosive technology. [H: See, our little stories of capability during that Gulf War were not as "far-out" as they seemed at the time of mass denial of our presentations.]

The Leader of the House, Thomas Foley, announced last month that a formal inquiry into the INSLAW case will be initiated. Foley appointed Senator Terry Sanford as co-chairman of the joint Congressional panel to investigate the matter. Prior to his election as a state senator, Sanford was the attorney who represented Earl Brian in his 1985 takeover bid for UPI. Sanford was also instrumental in appointing Earl Brian to the board of Duke Medical University of which Sanford is President.

Riconosciuto is known in certain circles as a genius in almost all sciences. The so-called drug operation broken up in Washington State that Riconosciuto was arrested for was in actuality an electro-hydrodynamic mining operation using Townsend Brown technology. Government analysis of soil samples at the arrest site showed NO drug contamination but a high concentration of barium. Barium is often used in high-voltage related work.

Wackenhut is presently in the same operational mode in several other areas of the world. The "Reservation Operations" being carried out by the "Enterprise" and the W.W.T. group are under the project name "Yellow Lodge".

The "Yellow Lodge" project involves the infiltration and covert operations of Advanced Chemical, Biological and, in some cases, HAT Weapon development. These activities, due to the sovereign status granted to Indian lands, can be carried out by private and covert operations without answering to the legitimate arm of the U.S. Government. This scenario is especially true of the Jicarilla Apache lands, as well as many other reservations in the American Southwest—the largest of these being the umbra-classification base known as D6 (DULCE) in the state of New Mexico.

The INSLAW operation is one small project developed and carried out under the "Yellow Lodge" Project. It should also be known that Bill Hamilton (of INSLAW) is an Ex-NSA operative. Therefore, one not unfamiliar with black operations.

The individual known as "Clark Gable" is in actuality the aforementioned Robert Booth Nichols. Nichols has extensive connections in both the intelligence underworld and the underworld of organized crime with contacts in not only the U.S. Mafia, but the Japanese "Yakuza" and everything in between. Mr. Nichols was one of Mr. Casolaro's sources of information. Nichols was and is a director of a company known as FIDCO (First Intercontinental Development Corporation). This is just one of the "front" companies established by the "network".

Robert Nichols' wife Ellen has extensive knowledge of her husband's involvements and should be considered dangerous. She is dedicated fully to the goals of their operations.

Associated with Bob Nichols are such individuals as: 1. Sir Dennis Kendall, a former MI-6 operative from England now residing in Southern California. 2. George Pender, a very powerful individual with extensive ties to an assortment of U.S. and foreign intelligence agencies and the Military Industrial Complex. Mr. Pender was a former director of Burns and Roe, Inc. He is considered to be one of the most powerful and influential men in the United States. 3. Peter Zokosky (mentioned previously), a former boss of Nichols. 4. Kenneth Roe, president of Burns and Roe, Inc. 5. Glenn Shockley. 6. Robert A Mayheu, former Howard Hughes associate and Chief Executive of Hughes Aircraft. He has been used extensively as a private contract operative for the CIA to act as a liaison agent between the "Enterprise" and organized crime. This relationship began before the assassination of John F. Kennedy. 7. Clint Murchison, Dallas oilman.

Robert Nichols is one of the key men in this group of individuals which holds and controls an extremely powerful interest in the events of the New World Order. Mr. Nichols himself, according to an admission by Ex-Special Agent in Charge, FBI, Ted Gunderson (ret.), was solely responsible for the removal of a "sanction" placed on Gunderson's life several years ago. It is no mystery as to why the pattern of hits (listed "suicides") continues with anyone daring to challenge or probe too deeply into these individuals and their affairs worldwide.

One of Casolaro's many mistakes was his sudden interest, shortly before his death, in the bombing of Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland. Killed on board the flight, among many others, were Ron Laviviere, Bill Leyere and Dan O'Connor—all CIA operatives from the Beirut station. Also killed was Matthew Gannon, the Chief of Station, CIA, Beirut office. The Toronto Star did a story by John Picton which was right in every aspect.

The commander in charge of their team was a U.S. Army Intelligence officer by the name of Charles McKee, one of the individuals in charge of counter-terrorist operations in the Middle East. Part of the information that was in transit with these now-deceased individuals was material which could be used to destroy the "Enterprise". Included was the connection to the Syrian Drug smuggling ring and the man by the name of Monzar Al-Kassar. Kassar was deeply involved in the drugs and arms for hostages deal with Secord, North, Poindexter, Hakim and all the others of the Black Rose Group.

McKee's operation uncovered an Aqua-Tech group (CIA—Deep Cover Operatives) which was actually the team the CIA employed to help provide cover protection, safe routing and screening procedures for the Middle East drug-running operations. Part of their duties was to cover and deflect interest from other intelligence offices from Europe and other countries, especially U.S. agencies and, in particular, another Deep Cover Operation working somewhere within the Office of Naval Intelligence.

The ONI Group is working currently to topple the "Enterprise" and restore the intelligence community to fall back within the guidelines of their original intent. The most pertinent of their motives is a salvage operation on the U.S. Constitution and the prevention of an extreme right-wing, fascist wing within the U.S. Government and intelligence communities (known to many as Aquarius or The Fourth Reich [Order of the Rose] [H: Full circle? Sound familiar??].

West German Intelligence and Mossad uncovered the fact that a bomb had been placed on board Pan Am Flight 103 by detecting a different briefcase than the one regularly used by the Drug Smuggler. As mentioned, McKee's team was on board the same flight with key evidence which would be devastating to the "Enterprise". When the bomb information was relayed to the proper sources, the reporting agencies were ordered by the CIA Cover Operations Group to "Disregard".

The parameters of this operation reach to the highest levels of many world governments. The Gander, Newfoundland crash is also linked, as well as the bombing of the Marine barracks in Beirut.

Tensions are growing daily between many levels of the intelligence community. Sides are currently being taken. This document is only an outline-briefing of an intricate and highly complicated scenario. Advisories to follow.

STOP QUOTING.

Thank you, son, for daring to share with your fellow-citizen that he might get informed. Ignorance is the worst kind of tyranny. This system is massive and does not intend to be put down—YOU AS CITIZENS ARE GOING TO HAVE TO FACE FACTS AND THEN WORK WITHIN THE SYSTEM IF YOU ARE TO SURVIVE. IF YOU KNOW THAT WHICH YOU DO—YOU CAN DO SO—FIGHT THEM WITH THEIR OWN WEAPONRY AND THEY WILL SLAY YOU—DEAD! FOR ONE THING—YOU HAVE ABSOLUTELY NO IDEA OF WHAT KIND OF WEAPONS ARE AVAILABLE ON THE FIRING LINE RIGHT NOW!

I wish to make a bit of a statement on a very local level which you MUST ATTEND. When ones of our staff were yesterday speaking with a Sheriff in Sacramento—the "appointment" for meeting had to be postponed a day. Why? Because the Sheriff's Department is undergoing emergency and extensive RIOT TRAINING. When asked "what riots"? The response: "Those EXPECTED in a couple of weeks at the end of the 'King' trial." I believe you can finish the story for selves.

Thank you, secretary, for an unduly long day of work. This is, however, most important information for your insight. I don't want any of our people—or anyone—misunderstanding HOW SERIOUS THIS TIME OF LIVING HAS BECOME TO YOUR SAFETY AND TO YOUR NATION. BE WISE IN ALL UNDERTAKINGS—DEAD MARTYRS ARE USELESS TO ALL SAVE THE ENEMY. Good day.

Trial Offers Murky Peek Into World Of Intrigue

 Testimony: Presenting himself as a CIA operative, a mystery man sues the LAPD for alleged false arrest that he says cost him his gun permit and millions of dollars.

By Henry Weinstein and Paul Feldman
(Times Staff Writers)

A tale of international intrigue is unfolding in a tiny Burbank courtroom where a San Fernando Valley man is seeking damages from the Los Angeles Police Department for allegedly ruining a multimillion-dollar deal to sell a high-tech, hand-held machine gun to foreign governments.

While most police abuse cases center on beatings or bullets, the Burbank trial focuses on the credibility of Robert Booth Nichols, a mysterious figure whose name first surfaced in a late 1980s FBI investigation of alleged mob penetration into the entertainment industry.

Again, last year, his name surfaced in a House Judiciary Committee report on possible malfeasance in the Justice Department during the Reagan era. The report also linked Nichols to an aborted business venture at the Cabazon Indian Reservation in Indio which, he said on the witness stand, dealt with the manufacture of machine guns to sell to the Nicaraguan Contras.

By taking the city to court for false arrest, Nichols, 50, could earn a multimillion-dollar damage award. But the lawsuit, stemming from a 1986 incident at The Palomino nightclub in North Hollywood, has also served to draw Nichols out of the shadows and onto the witness stand under oath for the first time.

Nichols says the Police Department caused him to lose his concealed weapon permit, which in turn cost him financing to manufacture the machine gun.

Nichols, who served as a technical adviser on anti-terrorism and had a bit part in the recent Hollywood blockbuster "Under Siege," is a mustachioed 6-foot, 3-inch man who is often described as a Clark Gable look-alike. Beyond that, opinions about him sharply diverge.

During four days of frequently heated testimony last week, Nichols presented himself as a dashing, globe-trotting businessman and intelligence operative. Armed with letters on White House stationery and snapshots of himself posing with foreign political and military dignitaries, Nichols told jurors that he toiled quietly and selflessly for nearly two decades on behalf of shadowy CIA keepers in more than 30 nations from Central America to Southeast Asia.

However, a far different portrait of Nichols was painted by Assistant City Attorney Robert Seeman, who is fighting to save the city from a major payout for damages.

MIKE MEADOWS • Los Angeles Times

Plaintiff Robert Booth Nichols with his wife, Ellen, outside the Burbank courthouse last week.

Seeking to portray Nichols as a phony, Seeman got Nichols to admit on the stand that he is not certain that the people who paid him for his "intelligence work" were employed by the Central Intelligence Agency. Seeman also sought to discredit Nichols' stature as an entrepreneur by drawing out testimony that Nichols has never sold a gun nor made a penny of profit from his firms' business ventures.

A CIA spokesman, in a telephone interview, would not comment on whether Nichols was employed or affiliated with the agency.

Nichols came under suspicion by the Federal Bureau of Investigation of international money laundering in 1978, according to a 1987 federal court wiretapping affidavit. The affidavit, prepared by FBI Agent Thomas G. Gates, states that "FBI investigative files further reveal that Nichols may have been associated with the Gambino LCN (organized crime) family in New York City."

Nichols has never been indicted and has sued Gates for defamation. But his lawsuit has been dismissed twice in federal court.

More recently, Nichols became the subject of public scrutiny in the wake of the mysterious August, 1991, death of Washington investigative reporter Danny Casolaro.

A House Judiciary Committee report released in September said Nichols had frequent contact with Casolaro just before the journalist, who was probing a web of conspiracies ranging from the Iran-Contra affair to alleged Justice Department skulduggery, was found with his wrists slashed in a West Virginia motel room.

The report, titled, "The INSLAW Affair," said the Justice Department had failed to adequately investigate charges that high-level officials had stolen and misused a private firm's sophisticated computer software designed to help track criminals. The report also called for further investigation into Casolaro's death, which was declared a suicide by West Virginia officials.

Nichols acknowledged to committee investigators that he had spoken to Casolaro often and served as a sounding board for him, but would not provide a sworn statement to the House committee.

There has been no discussion about the INSLAW case or Casolaro in the Burbank courtroom. But in four days of testimony, Nichols has provided a colorful, complex and often conflicting portrait of his past.

The trial, which enters its second week of testimony Monday, stems from a 1986 incident in which Nichols, armed with a concealed pistol, was taken into custody by Los Angeles police at The Palomino.

Nichols said he and his brother-in-law, James Hopko, had stopped by the club after a business meeting on the production of machine guns. While seated at the bar and later at a table, Nichols said he drank two bottles of beer and caused no trouble before LAPD officers, responding to a complaint of a disturbance, burst into the crowded room.

Without warning, Nichols testified, he was flung to the ground and two revolvers were pointed at his head. Nichols, who was carrying a concealed weapons permit from the Santa Clara County Sheriff's Department, was disarmed, handcuffed and transported to the North Hollywood LAPD station.

While in the police squad car, Nichols said he asked Officers Keith Wong and Israel Medina to loosen his handcuffs. In response, "they said they'd blow my f--- head off," Nichols testified. The officers also threatened to shoot him, he told jurors, when he insisted that his weapons permit was valid.

Nichols, who has lived in Arleta and Sherman Oaks in recent years, was released from custody after several hours and never charged. His concealed weapons permit was revoked by Santa Clara officials after they received a report of the incident from the Police Department.

Nichols' suit charges that the loss of the permit led to a withdrawal of Swiss financing for his firm, Meridian Arms Corp., to manufacture a new machine gun in South Korea.

According to Nichols' court papers, the low-cost lightweight weapon, known as the G-77, was developed in 1977 in a Covina machine shop and was designed for use by U.S. allies "as an economical method of responding to Soviet efforts at arming their various insurgent clients."

Nichols told jurors he demonstrated the G-77 first in Manila in 1977, and again in the early 1980s at the Cabazon Indian Reservation. There, he said, leaders of the tiny Indian band, in a joint venture with Wackenhut Corp., proposed manufacturing the weapon for shipment to Nicaragua to arm the Contras.

However, the proposed business deal, which was briefly referred to in the INSLAW report, fell through because State Department written approvals for exporting the weapon could not be obtained, Nichols said.

To buttress his client's credibility as a businessman, Nichols' lawyer introduced in court a flood of paper indicating that he had worked on numerous ventures with prominent individuals. They included Robert A. Maheu, Howard Hughes' former right-hand man; Michael A. McManus, an aide to President Ronald Reagan; Clint W. Murchison, then the owner of the Dallas Cowboys, and George K. Pender, an executive with a world-wide engineering company.

Nichols testified about discussions he had with a White House aide on the rebuilding of Lebanon while he was affiliated with Meridian's predecessor firm, Santa Monica-based First intercontinental Development Corp. That firm supposedly specialized in secret foreign construction projects for the U.S. government.

On cross-examination, however, Nichols admitted that his firm never completed a deal to sell a single G-77 or other products.

While Nichols' suit against the police was wending its way toward the courtroom of Superior Court Judge Thomas C. Murphy, the FBI bumped into Nichols during an aborted investigation into alleged mob infiltration of Hollywood.

Gates' wiretapping affidavit states that during a July 15, 1987, stakeout on the Sunset Strip, agents saw Eugene Giaquinto, then president of MCA Inc.'s Home Video Division, who was under investigation, hand a box to an unidentified man—later identified as Nichols.

Appended to Gates' affidavit was an Oct. 8, 1987, document stating that the FBI was investigating whether Giaquinto, Nichols and others were "buying and/or selling stocks by the use of manipulative or deceptive practices."

In 1988, after reports of the FBI's Hollywood investigation surfaced, Giaquinto resigned from the board of the Nichols-controlled Meridian International Logistics Inc. MCA subsequently placed Giaquinto on leave of absence and he later left the company.

Giaquinto was never charged with a crime.

Giaquinto introduced Nichols to Jack Valenti, president of the Motion Picture Association of America, and suggested that Nichols could help the industry in its efforts to combat piracy abroad.

In a telephone interview from Washington last week, Valenti said that he met with Giaquinto and Nichols for about 20 minutes in his room at the Beverly Hills Hotel. "Nichols said he was part of the CIA, that he had done all this work in Asia," Valenti said.

But Valenti did not hire him.

"My instinct was I didn't feel comfortable about some of the things he was saying," Valenti said. "When a fellow tells you a lot of things are top secret...well I know a lot about the CIA from my time in the White House" as a special assistant to President Lyndon B. Johnson.

In June, 1989, Nichols went on the offensive against the FBI.

On behalf of his company, Meridian International, he filed an $11-million damage suit alleging that Gates libeled the company and illegally interfered with potential business ventures. The suit alleges that Gates made slanderous statements to Australian law enforcement accusing Meridian and its officers of involvement with organized crime and a stock swindle.

U.S. District Judge Richard Gadbois in Los Angeles dismissed the case twice. Nichols is appealing the ruling.

In the current case, the most intriguing testimony last week concerned Nichols' claims of taking part in intelligence gathering.

Nichols cited a plethora of details about decade-old meetings with leaders of Third World nations and aides of Reagan. But time and again, he swore he had no recollection of how much he was paid for his intelligence or the names of those he worked for.

Nichols testified that he had no visible income for more than 15 years except for the living expenses he claimed he was receiving from his unnamed CIA keepers.

The Los Angeles native, who has used the aliases Robert Summers and Robert Chabray, said he was first approached by a CIA officer while living in Hawaii in the late 1960s. Nichols testified that he could recall only the man's first name—Ken—and that Ken told him that instead of joining the U.S. military, he could serve his country in other ways.

Nichols said his first assignment was to "associate with a foreign female in Honolulu" for two days. Ken then instructed him to take a job with a Hawaiian security firm and later to move to Glendale to operate a construction company. Nichols testified that he was paid no money by either firm, living instead on funds provided by Ken.

Nichols said that he "participated in gathering information" for Ken and his associates until 1986 in nations including Nigeria, Saudi Arabia, Thailand, India, Japan, Mexico, Costa Rica, Haiti, Norway and France.

The work, Nichols claimed, was dangerous. He said in 1972 he was stabbed in the left hand in Australia. In a mission to remote regions of Cameroon, Nichols said he was shot in the left leg after gathering intelligence on sawmills.

Seeman repeatedly objected to Nichols' vague answers concerning his employers and payments. Seeman asked: "Are you sure the CIA was paying you all these years?"

Nichols replied: "I'm not sure, no."

As in the courtroom, widely contrasting views about Nichols persist elsewhere.

INSLAW owner William Hamilton said that he had dozens of conversations with Nichols and considered him "extremely knowledgeable" on intelligence matters.

"I have not found that he overstates things to you," Hamilton said.

The first time he spoke to Nichols in May, 1990, Hamilton said, Nichols discussed the FBI allegations of his ties to the Gambino family and denied them. "His suggestion was that [government] agents were out to get him because he had stopped working for them," he said.

Soon after, Hamilton said, he introduced Casolaro to Nichols. Hamilton said that Casolaro learned during his reporting that "Nichols had contact with intelligence agencies in 80 countries."

But Maheu, a former FBI agent who also worked with the CIA, presented a very different view.

Maheu said he first met Nichols while he was serving on the board of First Intercontinental Development Corp. "He told me he had access to funds, presumably limitless, and he was going to make it available to me to take back my position...in the Hughes empire.

"But after one session with him[Nichols], it was obvious to me he had no knowledge at all of the Hughes world," Maheu said. "My reaction is he is a 14-carat phony." □

Earth Changes & People Changes: Listen To Your Inner Guidance

3/20/93 SOLTEC

(Editor's note: Please see the update on the upcoming TV program about notably accurate earth-changes seer Gordon-Michael Scallion at the end of Soltec's writing.)

Good evening, Soltec present, in the Light of Holy God. This day you who live in the Northern Hemisphere of your globe celebrate the beginning of spring, the season which represents to you the renewal of life. So let us then, this day, keep in our hearts that Energy of Creation which is the true renewal of all life, in all realms. That Force of Creative Energy comes only from the Divine Source, that which you have called God. As you open your windows and doors and watch as the trees and flowers burst forth with another season of life, take the time to contemplate that which is the First Cause. It is good to bring all things into their proper order of perspective. Marvel at the new beginnings of life for, in so doing, you shall find God.

It would seem necessary, at this time, to again address a subject that has been gone over several times in many of our previous communications but somehow the point of which has not been understood by many of you who are regular readers. Perhaps, from our place of expression we do not always convey the proper emphasis and, because we are so concerned with giving you the pure facts and figures of things, we have neglected to bring the point of our teaching full circle and bring a broader scope of understanding unto you ones. Also, due to the fact that you are in a very physical level of existence, it becomes all the more important to continue to remind you ones of your true nature—that being spirit entities. For it is in the spirit entity of all where The Truth shall be found.

Many are concerned about where to go and what to do when all the Earth Changes take place. And, although this is a very valid concern, it is more important that each one begin to follow his-her own heart. You see, it is not our place to tell each one where the best place to be shall be, for each individual has an individual need. Those needs can only be determined by the one who is posing the question, not by anyone else. It is important that you understand that just because a place is mentioned or not mentioned by myself or others of the Host, does not confirm nor negate the place for you. The only way you are going to know that which is the correct thing for self is to go within and find that answer from God. We bring unto your world the truthful information that is lacking from your place of existence. Your world is a very large place, and it would be quite impractical to map out the entire globe for you. The information we bring is, at best, general in nature for the benefit of all those who exist upon your placement, and in the dissemination of this information, you are to make your own decisions.

N.Z. from Seattle, Washington has written a very lovely communication and is most concerned regarding relocation of family in anticipation of the Earth Changes that are forthcoming. You have done a lot of homework, precious one, yet I would suggest that you go within and find that which is in your heart. Understand, please, that just because I neglected to mention any certain area does not mean that this area is going to either be good or bad in relative terms. Places which rest upon granite pillars are very solid, yet I would tell you also that just because the land is attached to such does not automatically make it a place of safety. Many places such as this are going to experience severe seismic activity, even though the place is mostly solid. As other areas around this granite structure give way, you could be shaken quite severely as well. You should know that there are many other factors which must be taken into consideration, one of which is climate. If you should find yourself in a state of survival, severe winter conditions should be added into the formula. This is but one example, precious.

You see, for each there will be a different need and each of you, if you were to go within and truly seek God on the matter, would receive the answers for which you search. You may not like that which you are shown or told and, therefore, many of you will ignore it and continue to ask, hoping that the answer will be more to your liking the next time. God does not work in this manner, Chelas. God will give you the truth to the questions you pose, not paint you a rosy picture and promise that which cannot be delivered. You have been programmed by your world not to recognize the truth and to reject same. Also, in your conscious mind you may not have full understanding of why you would be led to a certain place and, in fact, it may seem like the most illogical place you could be. Yet, you have, in your level of expression, a very limited perspective of all that is, and that which will be, and the reasons for it, so you may be perplexed as to the why of it.

Yes, Tehachapi does rest upon one of those granite pillars, yet it is not the place for everyone to be for there are other factors which make it suitable for some and most unsuitable for others. This area will be "pushed upward" but, in that pushing, there are going to be many strong earthquakes and much tidal activity from the action so, even though it rests upon one of these granite pillars, it is in for a very rough ride, indeed. Most structures will not survive the energy that will be released during that action. There are other reasons why Tehachapi is not the place for all to be, but we shall not go into that at this time.

Other places may be very low lying areas that will receive severe flooding, other places will literally crack open in seismic activity. Other places will be relatively safe. There are no magic formulas for the figuring of these things, Chelas, for these things are still very unpredictable at best. You simply must go within and ask of God and then truly listen for the answer.

We realize that you are growing weary of the waiting, and many of you would rather that the whole thing just come to its undoing. It is most understandable, yet the lessons must be learned and the only way that you ones are going to learn these lessons is in the experiencing. It may seem to you that you have had about all that you can handle, but I assure you this is not the case. Each of you has strengths that you have not yet tapped into and you will surprise even selves when you find the need to draw upon those strengths which lie deep within. This too is part of those lessons. You will, as you grow, get to the place wherein you trust, in greater measure, the unseen than the seen. In other words, Chelas, you are learning FAITH. You must trust that the ground is solid where you step, though you cannot see the ground beneath your feet. And, as you begin to understand the teachings brought to you by Germain—the teachings about that which is illusion and that which is reality—you will grow in greater and greater understanding until such time as the understanding becomes the knowing.

Understanding comes through the physical mind. Knowing comes through the whole being—body, mind and spirit. When understanding breaks through and permeates all the levels of your expression, then you come into the knowing. At this point there will be no one, be they of Heaven or of Earth, who will change your knowing—that, dear ones, is true BELIEF. The method by which you learn best in this expression is by experience; therefore, you must experience many things, both pleasant and unpleasant by your standards, before you can make judgments and have data upon which to base your understanding. As you continue to progress closer to the end of this cycle of time, the lessons are coming at you ones faster and faster because you are in the final semester of your schooling and the reviews and final examinations are in full swing. That is why you do not have the opportunity to finish one thing before another seems to hit you. Have we not repeatedly told you that you are in the most important time of your history? It is important because this is the time of your graduation.

We are as concerned about your physical survival as you are; however, we are more concerned about your spiritual survival. For the body is replaceable—the spirit is not. The emphasis should be upon your spiritual condition for, if you get this in line, then the physical condition will necessarily follow suit. The outward manifestation of body is but the physical expression of your spirit, and all that you experience is but manifestation of the inner spirit. In other words, you each have created your own "reality" in this existence in order to learn that which you were lacking in your knowledge. All others on your planet with you are doing the same. It is no accident for God does nothing by accident. All things must come to a final climax, then will come the cleansing and then, and only then, will your world take its step upward. Those that choose to see it through and follow God will take their rightful place on the newly created world. Those that choose not God, will not. It is an individual choice—one made only by you.

To those who wonder whether they are on the right track or not, I can only tell you this: You must follow your own hearts. The right track for you can only be determined by you and no one else. You are the director of your own destiny and the choices must be your own. Many of you are being guided but you have not come to the conscious realization of such as of yet. Stop considering only the physical existence, the physical aspects of life. Take into consideration the whole of your existence, of which the physical body is but one-third. Many of you are beginning to see signs in everything from the pattern of dust on your coffee table to the dead battery in the car and are being pulled off your track. Focus and re-center yourselves and bring all things back into their proper order of priority and perspective. Take time to meditate upon your concerns and decisions and allow all factors to be taken into consideration. You will come to the right decision for yourself.

Leave the worry outside, for worry is but wasted energy, sent out to scatter to the four winds. Many of you are also going in circles so fast that you are going nowhere. Slow down and examine where you might be and where you wish to go. Most spend an enormous amount of time "spinning your wheels", doing things which are of total unnecessary or of complete waste. You must learn to bring yourselves back to center because, as you move forward, it will become increasingly more difficult to sort out all that will be occurring about you. It is now the time of sorting, and part of that task will be for each to sort out all that is in their lives and select those things which truly are the priorities for, if you do not do this, you will find your energies more and more scattered until you are completely off the track and running hither and yon, and lost as lambs.

On the physical Earth Changes level you have many occurrences taking place all about you though, at this time, many are yet in the realm of the unseen from your point of experience. Many are experiencing strange sounds inside the head, the sensation of vibrations just below the level of audible sound, bouts of nausea and the like. Relax, for you are not physically ill; you are simply in a state of sensitivity to those subtle changes in frequencies that precede major planetary changes, as well as the shenanigans your elite are pulling. The underground machinery is working night and day at a feverish level as they try to complete their secret hiding places prior to the beginning of the changes which, by the way, they believe to be just around the corner.

Many are also reporting that they are extremely irritable and quick to lose tempers. This is the mental and emotional reaction to the fluctuating frequencies as well. I tell you that you are in a time of tribulation and each is being affected in one way or another. The flares of irritability are the cause of all the outbreaks of violence that you hear about on a daily basis—children killing their parents, parents committing unspeakable crimes against their offspring, brother killing brother, one race killing another—and on and on and on.

Still, others are reporting the inability to focus on any one subject for any length of time. Just another reaction to all the changes that are occurring about you and, sadly, there is no where on your planet that you are able to escape these kinds of attacks.

As the frequencies change, and as the consciousness of the people is affected, so too is the planet for, as you will remember, all things are connected to all other things, and you and your planet are connected. Therefore, your reactions are affecting the planet and the planet's reactions are affecting you. You are in the loop, like it or not, and the speed is rapidly increasing. As the speed increases, the consciousness of the people is affected even more, and the planet is affected more, and so it goes.

The tectonic plates are moving and grinding against one another, and pulling apart from others, and the molten core of your planet is changing its balance and position. You who reside on the surface are on the move and pulling apart and grinding against one another, and your balance is changing. Magma pressures are building within volcanoes, ready to explode, and tempers are building in people, ready to explode. Do you see how it all ties in together?

You see, dear ones, the changes are underway—you are experiencing them already, although you have not been able to recognize the changes because they have, up to this time, been on the level of the unseen. However, they will not remain on this level for very long because the energy is building and pushing outward and is on the brink of manifesting into the physical realm. Once this occurs, then you will see the massive seismic and volcanic activity which all are associating with the Earth Changes. It is most difficult to see the changes as being underway at this time, but "tune in" to the subtleties that are taking place—the frequency changes, the low, almost inaudible sounds, the irritability and the like and soon you will see that these are but the forerunners to the physical manifestation of the changes that you are anticipating. It is very near to that break-through point at this time, and more and more people are beginning to feel and react to the effects, though they may not understand what is occurring.

The strange weather patterns that you have been having are also a prelude to even more massive weather changes to come. There will be more storms and more rain in the dry places, and no rain in the wet places. It will be cold when it should be warm and warm when it should be cold. It is all upside down and still the momentum continues to build which will lead to even greater changes in the future.

The road is paved leading to the climax of the Earth Changes and you are well past the point of no return so just hold on tight and ride out the storm. Keep your perspective and stay on track with your priorities. Remember that which is important and that which is just so much fluff. Keep your mind and heart with Creator and know that at the end of the dark tunnel is the Light of a brand new day. Together, we shall make it to that place.

Let us draw this one to a close and get it on its way.

Soltec to clear. Salu.

(Editor's note: Not so fast, everyone...don't leave the subject yet: According to this week's TV GUIDE, that special focus on gifted earth-changes seer Gordon-Michael Scallion, which was mentioned two weeks ago in Soltec's column as coming up soon, will definitely be on the TV program Sightings for this Friday evening, March 26, usually at 9PM. Check your local listings and tell your friends to watch...or tape it for them. This is one of the most accurate sources who sees the next BIG California earthquake happening by May 9. Buckle your seatbelts.)

been set-up and stolen from in great amounts—can continue as is. The US&P has filed a new amended suit against all, including "Hatonn" who THEY SAY is non-existent! This is for multi-millions of dollars in "damages". They know exactly what they have been and are doing—George Green has even agreed to pay them some $45,000 in the "legal" arena.

This means that we MUST retrieve all gold and assets for you precious ones who sent gifts and they fell into the hands of Green secretly. If you still wish to participate with US—there is now (for some time, actually) a "foundation" set up for receiving. This is tax-deductible as a foundation and can also work in conjunction, I suppose, with other entities. At this point, however, the Institute has been hurt so badly as to stop all activity in that institution until matters can be audited and settled.

Mr. Green has already told Mr. Dixon that he fully intends to do everything he can to force the Institute into involuntary bankruptcy. That, dear friends, will destroy all hope of participants getting return of funds or gold collateral. The Corporation laws will not allow that to happen so all the threats from ones demanding to get their own back with interest and gain—can do whatever they wish with their lawyers—for the corporation is sound and legal fees will be collected from participants who press such demands. I CAN GUARANTEE YOU OF ONE THING—THE ONLY PARTIES WHO WILL GET A DIME—ARE THE ATTORNEYS!

NOTHING HAS CHANGED IN THIS MISSION—NOT ONE IOTA. I AM EXACTLY WHO I SAID I WAS AND AM! THE

MISSION IS NO DIFFERENT AND PROJECTS HAVE ONLY GROWN—ALONG WITH THE FIELDS OF SPELT AND STORAGE FACILITIES. THE PROJECT PROPOSALS FOR THE FIRST MAJOR PROJECT BUSINESSES ARE READY AND APPROVED FOR FUNDING—WE ARE A LONG, LONG WAY DOWN THAT ROAD TO SUCCESS IN OUR TASK AT HAND.

ANYONE WHO WAIVERS AS TO WHETHER OR NOT GOD WILL WIN—IS CERTAINLY NOT WITH THIS PROGRAM—GOD DOES NOT LOSE EVEN IF IN THE INSTANT—IT APPEARS SO! SOMETIMES TOTAL "LOSS" IS THE VERY THING THAT ALLOWS FOR THE TOTAL "WIN". PONDER IT.

Note what is taking place in Russia today, the stopping of your shuttle flight and responses coming out of the puppets' mouths in Washington—and you can see what a miserable period of time you are experiencing.

I can only suggest you ones KEEP UP WITH YOUR INTAKE OF GAIANDRIANA AND NEXT "CONTACT" WILL BETTER PRESENT THE "WHY"—YOU CAN MAKE IT THROUGH THIS NIGHTMARE—BUT "YOU" WILL DO—NOT "ME" AND NOT ANYONE ELSE.

WE SHALL USE THE TELEPHONE HOTLINE [see back page] TO KEEP YOU POSTED—AND IF ALL GOES APPROPRIATELY WE WON'T MISS AN ISSUE OF INFORMATION DURING THIS FUNERAL PROCESS—HOWEVER, WE ASK YOUR PATIENCE FOR MANY, MANY CHANGES AND ARRANGEMENTS HAVE TO BE MADE IN A MATTER OF HOURS—WE ARE NOT GIVEN TO PRIVILEGE OF TIME-DELAY LEVERAGED BUY-OUTS—WE HAVE TO LIVE WITH THE MACHINE GUN METHOD OF DECISION MAKING.

Nevada Corporations

CORPORATE BUSINESS EXPENSES

In managing an active corporation, it is important to be familiar with all the aspects of a corporation's functioning. Part of those management responsibilities are being familiar with business expenses. This means understanding which expenses are deductible to a corporation and which are not. By familiarizing yourself with all legal business expenses, you can dramatically reduce your corporate taxes and receive more personal tax-free perks. Below we are listing business expenses that we feel are noteworthy, plus those expenses that could be considered perks or fringe benefits.

Before we begin, we would like to recommend, to each corporate manager, that they acquire IRS Publications: 535 on "Business Expenses", 529 on "Miscellaneous Expenses", 542 on "Tax Information", and 1120 called "U.S. Corporation Income Tax Package". All of these publications can be obtained either by going in person to your local IRS office or can be mailed to you free by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM.

SELECTED BUSINESS EXPENSES:

* Start-Up Costs: No deductions are allowed for start-up expenses unless the corporation chooses to treat those expenses as deferred expenses and to amortize them equally over a period of no less than 60 months; i.e. fees paid to start a corporation.

* Employee Achievement Awards: These are non-cash awards and their value cannot exceed $400.

* Car Mileage: 28 cents per mile is the current rate that a business can reimburse an individual for using their car for business purposes. This is not considered income to the individual. (Note: an alternative to this is to rent a car to a corporation. This is a way of drawing funds out of a corporation without Employee Taxes or Self-Employment Taxes being paid on rental income.)

* Automobile Lease Program: This is for vehicles leased by the corporation.

* Meals And Lodging: Generally you can deduct the costs of these as long as the expense is an ordinary and necessary business expense.

* Entertainment: 80% of an entertainment expense is deductible to a corporation. This expense must be somehow related to business activities. Why not plan a tax-deductible business trip and take in a bit of tax-deductible entertainment while you're at it.

* Education Expenses: A business can fully deduct educational expenses for employees as long as the education is job related. This would include college courses, business programs and any related seminars. Why not hire a son or daughter about to enter college, to work for your corporation, and have your business pay for their school? (As long as that education would benefit the corporation, it is considered a legitimate business expense.)

* Employee Health Insurance.

* Employee Dental Insurance.

* Monies Given To Qualified Non-Profit Businesses: This use of funds is how the Rockefeller Corporations support their own Non-Profit Organizations, which in turn go and do business with those same Rockefeller Corporations. This allows them to float profits through these organizations year after year without paying taxes on those profits.

* State Income Tax: If a corporation has to pay State Income Tax, this is a deductible item. However, if the business is a Nevada Corporation, there is NO State Income Tax.

* Child Care: You may pay up to $5000 annually for an employee's child care without considering it income to the employee. (Note: This is not an option for those individuals who are contractors to a corporation.)

Keeping these corporate expenses in mind, and reviewing the IRS Publications mentioned above, you will have a much better understanding of just how to properly manage the tax potential of your corporation's revenues. Needless to say, there is much latitude for judicious tax savings by the legal yet skillful and informed utilization of a corporate business structure.

Creator's Gift Of Renewal: Springtime!

3/21/93 #1 HATONN

SPRING EQUINOX

Time when Day and Night are of equal length

You are in the time of the most important and powerful energies of your cycles. This particular time of equinox is one of the most powerful beginning-ending times of the calendar cycle. You will now move into a time of disruption in ever increasing force and chaos.

It is also a time of the beginning of life forms to be gifted to Earth Man which can perfect his physical vehicle and also give him sustenance—IF HE BUT SEES AND

HEARS. It is a time of coming into confrontation with self and with TRUTH. It is the time of either returning to the customs which gave balance and truth to existence and experience—or a time to perish in ignorance in avoidance of that truth. "Custom" is not the accidental, trivial, and meaningless thing which you think it to be. It is the imperishable record of wisdom of the illimitable past reaching back to the infancy of the races, revised, corrected, enlarged, open to all alike, and read and understood by all. Perhaps it is time to return to those customs which gave balance, harmony and truth of expression—back to the teachings of balance and greater existence AS GIVEN BY YOUR ELDERS WHO BEGAN THIS GREAT MIGRATION

TO YOUR PLANET. MAY INSIGHT BE YOURS AT THIS MAGNIFICENT TIME OF CHANGE.

A POINT TO REMEMBER:

GOD GRANTS LIBERTY ONLY TO THOSE WHO LOVE IT, AND ARE ALWAYS READY TO GUARD AND DEFEND IT!

— Webster

And:

"HE WHO HAS NO INCLINATION TO LEARN MORE WILL BE VERY APT TO THINK THAT HE KNOWS ENOUGH."

— Powell

YOU SHALL NEVER KNOW ENOUGH—UNTIL YOU KNOW ALL!

I am going to share a poem sent to me yesterday from an "Octogenarian", Carolyn Browning, which was written in 1950 A.D. It is thoughtful, true and needs a bit of meditation lest you lose your directions and miss the glory of the passage and the guidance of the pathshower.

As you read, keep in mind that "Jesus" is pronounced according to the languages of the different nations—and that One some of you think to be the "Christed Being", fits as well. Just mentally place your favorite word for "The Christ" in the slot that reads "Jesus". For instance, that word in Spanish is "Hay-soos", in Biblical times "Esoos", etc. This "Being" messenger of the Great Spirit has also been known by many forms and labels—but Carolyn used the term "Jesus" and so, too, therefore, shall we.

I KNOW

*"Yes, I believe in Jesus" my lips had oft replied
But fret and anger thru' the day its meaning soon denied.*

*Yes, I believe in Jesus who walked by Galilee
But He was very far away—and couldn't come to me.*

*Twenty centuries are long, and time a curtain drew
For He had talked in Palestine with men I never knew.*

*Then someone reached His hand to me in such a loving way
That thru' His tender kindness—Christ came to me that day.*

He lifted up the curtain—and there before

*my eye
I saw Him in my neighbor and in the passerby.*

*"Yes, I believe in Jesus" for as I kneel to pray
Within the stillness of my soul I KNOW He lives today.*

Ah indeed, you can be lifted up as on wings of Eagles—but find comfort in the fact that He knows of every Sparrow's fall. HIS great promise was to "send the WORD forth unto the lands of Earth" and so shall it be done. It shall go forth on those Eagle's wings and in the song of the winds to those who will feast upon Creator's TRUTH—for in THE TRUTH shall ye be made free—or "...in ignorance shall ye perish from the face of the Earth."

"YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH AND THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU FREE." BUT FIRST, IT SHALL MAKE YOU MAD!

A NOTE ON EARTH UPHEAVALS AND GORDON-MICHAEL SCALLION ON TV

Since there is so very much critical information to cover, I shall leave Earth physical upheavals to my compatriot, Dr. Soltec, Geophysicist. I would, however, also point out that "general" knowledge is NOT ENOUGH. There are ones on your place given insight into things which will come and, although NONE can know exactness of happenings—some are shown a general time schedule. One such exceptional student in the United States is Gordon-Michael Scallion. [See "Professor" Soltec's article this week on page 26 and pay attention to the Editor's note therein about Gordon-Michael Scallion being on the Sightings TV show this coming Friday evening, March 26.] What he will give you is so similar in content and projection to what WE HAVE GIVEN YOU that you will think it came from the same transcribed book—i.e., "200 mph winds will be felt in every square inch of the planet, and in some places it will reach as high as 400 mph. As for safe buildings, oval and round homes would better withstand the coming winds...." I don't believe I need to cover more—all this is found in the JOURNALS already offered—and yes, we shall get them back into our control soon, or reprint them. I am weary of the foolish, greedy games of those who would turn the information for survival into self ego aggrandizement and wealth abundance for self.

NEW TRICKS FROM THE GEORGE GREEN-BELT

Now we are offered "bargaining"! The adversary ALWAYS ENDS UP TRYING TO BARGAIN WITH GOD! But, the intent is the same as always—personal gain at the expense of all others AND full intent to silence our WORD in favor of his own misinformation-scattering and full intent to destroy the Phoenix Institute and all that is held within by you blessed participants. Well, none of it shall come to be. George Green's new intent is to push the Institute into involuntary bankruptcy so that gold in his possession will be lost to any and all—save himself. Nope, it is NOT going to happen—the Institute is CORPORATELY SOUND. Moreover, the gold and silver, among other stolen property, is going to be demanded RETURNED TO THE ORIGINAL GIFTER. I.E., WE ARE GOING TO DEMAND OF THE COURT THAT THE PRODUCT BE RETURNED TO THE OWNER—WE CERTAINLY WOULD NOT JEOPARDIZE THE GIFT BY PLACING IT IN THE INSTITUTE. THERE ARE BETTER PLACES FOR TOTAL PROTECTION OF THE GIVER AND THE GIFT—WHEN HELD IN SUCH TYPE OF COMMODITY.

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR

Thank you, Mr. Green, and your coalition with the University of Science and Philosophy: THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR shall not have more than this last issue, readers. The PHOENIX LIBERATOR may be dead—but remember—the PHOENIX rises from the ASHES—EVERY TIME! The cry of the Phoenix silenced? Not for long, chelas, not for long. Already we have offers from others to carry the "contents" of the publication. Unfortunately the ones who shall do so have "nothing" with which to work either. But, when the going gets tough—the tough get going. When we meet a mountain—we shall persevere until we either go around it, over it—or DIG right through it.

You can bankrupt a thing, a person or a project—YOU CANNOT BANKRUPT GOD! IT MUST NEVER, AT ANY RATE, BE AN ENTITY OR A PERSON IN WHICH YOU PLACE YOUR "KNOWING"—IT MUST BE IN "TRUTH" AND "WE SHALL BE HEARD". THAT WAS THE MOTTO OF THE LIBERATOR OF THE CIVIL WAR—AND, REGARDLESS OF THE NAME OF A PAPER PRESENTATION—SO, TOO, SHALL WE CONTINUE TO SPEAK OUT AND BE HEARD! CAN WE CHANGE THE WORLD BY OUR WRITINGS?? NO, BUT YOU CAN BY YOUR READINGS AND ACTIONS. WE CAN ONLY "BLOW" THE TRUMPET—YOU MUST "HEAR" IT.

YOU HAVE TO "LOOK"

Another little "gem" and then we shall move on to things of genetic and DNA structuring, i.e.: from the sublime to the ridiculous?

MY JEWELS

Carolyn Browning

*I have diamonds aplenty,
Precious stones to throw away,
For I gathered them in handfuls
From the splendour of the day.*

*They were hidden in the water
'Neath a canopy of blue
So I couldn't see them sparkle
Like the early morning dew.*

*Oh, I cupped my hands like children
Holding all that I could take
And was given back great riches
As I tossed it on the lake.*

*Scattered far upon the surface
Drops like dazzling jewels shone.
God transmuted simple water Into brilliant Precious Stones.*
